

Session 5

Look Outward

How to Share Your Faith With Co-Workers and Classmates

1. What's one ingredient you can use to win over those in the workplace or on your campus to Jesus Christ?

2. How will you "let your light shine" without overwhelming people in one or both of these places.

3. Do you have a good work ethic? How will you represent Jesus in your workspace?

Takeaways from today's lesson:

- a.

- b.

- c.

Applications:

1. Text a classmate or co-worker today an encouraging text like, "Have a good weekend." Go out of your way to do something nice for them, possibly write them a card. Lift someone up today.
2. Write down the names of three classmates or co-workers who need God.
3. Make these three people your daily prayer target.
