Chapter 1

The Struggle is Real

Extreme Ownership

At the age of 14 Marina collected a lethal dose of mercury. This day, would be the day that she would die...

She was on her way to finish a job that she had already attempted twice before. She was about to drink her lethal supply of mercury and end her life. She had done her research. There was no way that she could fail this time.

On her way to drink the mercury she was interrupted by a girl from her school who invited her to come to church. Marina had never been to church.

She lived in Tajikistan, a Muslim country. Her family was not religious. She had no concept of what God might be like and she wasn't searching. She had other things on her mind. Specifically – she did not want to attempt suicide again, she wanted to do the job right. This would be the day that she died.

For some reason she said yes to the girl, thinking that she would kill herself after going to church.

She doesn't remember very much of the service that day. What she remembers is that she had a tangible, supernatural encounter with the love of God and experienced a love that she had never known before...

Marina was the oldest of three siblings. Their apartment had one bedroom and one other room for everything else. She had a younger brother and a younger sister.

Her sister was a full sister. Her brother was a half-brother. Her older full sister died as a baby.

Her real Dad had left them when she was very young. She barely ever saw him.

Her stepdad was not abusive. He was reasonably kind when he was present, but that wasn't often. Between his addiction to alcohol and his regular trips to prison, she only saw him occasionally, before he left for good.

Her mother worked as a prostitute for the Russian mafia. Her home was a brothel.

Marina tried to look after her younger brother and sister and keep them feeling safe when men were with their mum or other women in the bedroom next to them. It regularly got violent. There were often multiple men in the room. They would beat and abuse her mother on a regular basis.

Marina's Mum turned to alcohol as a coping mechanism. She would get very drunk and violent. She beat Marina brutally. Marina still has physical scars from her childhood beatings.

When she left home, she was known as the daughter of a prostitute. Her and her siblings were abused, attacked and mocked.

She had to fight constantly. She had to fight to protect herself. She had to fight to protect her siblings. At home she fought to survive. Out of home she fought to survive.

Everywhere she went there was abuse and chaos.

But that day in church, a supernatural, divine love like nothing she had ever experienced or even imagined flooded her heart and launched her on her very first steps of a beautiful transformational journey.

She cancelled her planned suicide. Instead she slowly began to develop a relationship with this God who was the source of this mysterious but wonderful divine love.

Eventually her Mum's body gave up on her. With no money to go to the hospital, they watched her deteriorate before their own eyes. Marina held her own Mother, as blood flowed from every part of her body and she died in her arms.

Marina narrowly avoided being raped and trafficked.

Her brother was unjustly put in prison as a teenager.

Traffickers took her sister. Her sister eventually escaped only to be trafficked again and escape again...

Her biological Dad also died several years after her Mum.

Marina battled poverty, doing everything she could to provide for her family.

Despite the chaos all around her, the hand of God was on Marina and a deep work was taking place inside her.

A truly unexpected adventure with Jesus was about to begin that no one could have imagined!

The struggle is real...

Marina's struggles. My struggles. Your struggles.

Some people say "that's just life for ya".

But that's not life at all! That is destruction. That is what happens when Satanic Assignments and the Giants of Darkness are ruling over our lives.

Life, the Divine life that God designed for us is exceedingly abundantly, above and beyond what we have ever dared to ask, dream, pray or even imagine! The life that God has promised us involves ruling and reigning in victory over every scheme of Satan and every Giant of Darkness as we step deeper and deeper into the destiny that God orchestrated for us before the foundation of the world!

What Marina went through, and often times what we go through, is not the “life” that God designed for us, – yes, we go through many struggles, trials and tribulations caused by Satanic Assignments against our lives that seek to rob, kill and destroy us and our God given destiny - but the Divine Life that God designed for you and I is a life of victory over every struggle!

In this Book, “The Science of Dreams”, I am going to expose the 4 Satanic Assignments and the 4 Giants of Darkness that brutally and Systematically come after every single one of us and I’m going to reveal the 4 Ancient Weapons from Heaven that will empower us to slay these giants, live victoriously and bring our Wildest Dreams to life!

These 4 Weapons from Heaven are the 4 Non Negotiable Elements in The Science of Dreams. Any person who Masters “The Science of Dreams”, unlocks a world, where they not only live in victory over the enemy, but they tap into a realm where they can consistently dream with God and systematically and consistently bring those dreams to life!

This a sacred realm, an Ancient Biblical way of living that is far higher, more beautiful, more exhilarating, more glorious, more impacting and more significant than most people have ever dared to imagine for themselves.

It is the life that we are all called to live in, it is our birth right and our inheritance but it seems these Ancient Pathways are seldom walked in our generation. “But”, God is inviting us to travel these Ancient pathways once again.

Jeremiah 6:16, ESV

Thus says the LORD: “Stand by the roads, and look, and ask for the ancient paths, where the good way is; and walk in it, and find rest for your souls.

I’ve got to say, there are a lot of “buts” in this process.

Marina had a lot of “buts” a lot of “excuses” and a lot of “justifications” that could have turned her into a victim for the rest of her life.

She had every reason to become a person who was focused on what she couldn’t control instead of focusing on what she could control...

... she did something extremely rare.

Marina did the most powerful thing that she possibly could have done.

She took Extreme Ownership of her own life.

She refused to play the blame game, blaming everyone in her life for her problems.

Her Mum, her Dad, her stepdad, her circumstances, her trauma, her past, her...

She began to focus on any and every tiny thing that she could control: her attitudes, her mindsets, her skillsets, her work ethic, her faith, her health, her relationships, her identity, her assignment, her vision, her systems, her finances...

She implemented "The Science of Dreams".

... and little by little, breakthrough by breakthrough – she re-designed her life and she has become a Giant Slayer, living victoriously, bringing massive dreams to life and impacting people all over the world!

The Struggle is real, the Satanic Assignments are Real, the Giants of Darkness are Real – but what is infinitely more powerful than all of our adversaries and obstacles combined is our power to choose!

To choose whether we will focus on what we can't control and become victims or to focus on what we can control and become Giant Slayers.

Practically, taking Extreme Ownership looks like assessing every area of our lives and genuinely asking ourselves if we are truly happy with how things are.

And if there's anywhere that we want to see an upgrade in our lives, we must forget everyone else, forget our circumstances and ask ourselves what can we possibly do to begin to see change in this area of our lives and then with all of our hearts, our strength, our capacity and tenacity – we must do whatever it takes to make those changes!

This is not a popular thing to talk about. It's confronting, which is offensive to a culture that has mastered the arts of avoiding pain, justifying bad attitudes, habits and lifestyles and living in distraction, procrastination and apathy...

I started with Marina's story and the topic of Extreme Ownership because this book is not a magic pill. Yes it has mind blowing, life changing content, but the content in this book is like a seed that must be watered with Extreme Ownership, hard work, a relentless resolve and great courage.

Regardless of how painful or hard that may be – there is no other road that will awaken the Giant Slayer in you and set you on the Ancient path of your Destiny.

Even now you must choose...

The wide road of the victim, where you can blame shift, moan, justify, avoid pain, avoid hard work and avoid sacrifice – but ultimately forfeit the wildly exciting call of God on your life and live conquered by Satanic Assignments and Giants of Darkness.

Or,

Embrace the narrow road where you take Extreme Ownership of every area of your life, where you embrace the wildly exciting call of God on your life, regardless of the cost, where you embrace the sacrifice, the hard work, the vulnerable self-reflection, the pain and the fire in the process, but, where you ultimately emerge like steel forged in the flames of Heaven.

A Giant Slayer victorious over all the schemes of the enemy and living out your wildest dreams!

If you're not ready for the narrow road, you'll get good information from this book but you'll lack the fortitude to implement it, so you'll never walk in the power of the Secrets I'm about to reveal.

If you are ready for the Narrow Road, then brace yourself to be challenged to the core, inspired into a world of the wonders of God and equipped to wield 4 Ancient Heavenly Weapons that are guaranteed to Slay Giants of Darkness and empower you for a life of victory and fulfilled dreams.

If you do not Master the art of wielding all 4 of these Heavenly Weapons then you will never overcome the Satanic Assignments against your life and you will never taste the limitless possibilities available for you in Christ Jesus.

This is not the only moment you must make this choice...

This choice of embracing the cost of the Narrow Road and the call of God must be made over and over again!

Day after day!

Matthew 7:13-14, NIV

“Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. 14 But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.”

But it always starts with 1 decision – so I ask you, and I challenge you, just as God asks me and challenges me, over and over again:

Will you say yes to the Narrow Road?

Will you embrace Extreme Ownership?

Will you do whatever it takes to slay the Giants of Darkness that are coming after you so that you can be victorious over the Satanic Assignments against your life and step into the limitless possibilities available in Christ as you live out a calling more exciting than your wildest dreams?

I'm not talking about average Christianity that you've seen modelled – I'm talking about stepping into a life and a world more glorious, wonderful, powerful and exhilarating than most people would ever dare to ask, dream, pray for or even imagine!

If the Narrow Road is for you – then get ready for a journey that will give you Ancient Biblical keys to a Destiny that God saw before time, when He unleashed His limitless power to dream the best for you!

I'll close this chapter with this thought, in over a decade of pastoring and running a Biblical Training School – I've seen few people so completely and so beautifully transformed, set ablaze and unleashed on the world as Marina.

Yes our training, culture, relationship and love were a significant help in the process for her, but some people in the same environment experienced little transformation, because they were not ready to say yes to the Narrow Road that Jesus was calling them too.

What will you choose?

If you are ready for the Narrow Road – this next chapter will blow open the doors, gates and windows into the limitless possibilities available in Christ!

I look forward to sharing this adventure together my friend – let's go!

Chapter 2:

The Seedbed of Dreams

The Divine Dance

One of the most loved Psalms in the Bible is Psalm 37, specifically in verse 4.

Delight yourself in the LORD, and He will give you the desires of your heart.

Everyone likes the promise –

“He will give you the desires of your heart.”

but there is also a hidden invitation from God in the command, that beckons us nearer, closer and deeper into relationship with Him.

“Delight yourself in the Lord”

Our delight in the Lord is the ceiling on our dreams... the deeper we dive into the realms of delight, the more limitless our dreams become.

To grasp the power of Psalm 37:4, we must travel back in time, to before time began. Back to before -

“The Beginning”.

Before time began - there was God.

For centuries, Church Fathers and theologians have used the Greek word “Perichoresis” to describe a snap shot of this dynamic reality.

Before time began – there was God: The Father, The Son and The Holy Spirit.

“Perichoresis” is most simply translated and described as the “Divine Dance”.

Imagine with me, if you can...

All that exists is the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit dancing together in a seamless harmonious union, infused perfectly with the most dynamic, powerful, extravagant, wild, gentle and exquisite expressions of love that have ever and will ever exist – culminating in the most abundant and glorious demonstrations of delight that have ever and will ever be known...

Imagine with me, if you will...

The fullness of the infinite power of God concentrated into one giant laser cannon of pure, supernatural, divine love, so wonderful that words could never hope to articulate even a single % of it's unspeakable, unfathomable goodness, warmth, kindness, wonders, ecstasy, bliss, euphoria, happiness, joy and delight...

Now... Imagine with me God the Father turning that giant laser cannon of Divine Love on Jesus and blasting Him with absolutely everything it had, holding nothing back – completely unleashing the entirety of His Divine love on His Son!!!

Imagine Jesus, being hit with this Laser Cannon of Love – more powerful than a million bolts of lightning love!

Except these intense beams of love are not actually coming from a cannon, rather they are coming from the Father's eyes and every glance of His eyes is like a thousand waterfalls of love, like lightning, like fire, like oil, like being consumed in an ocean of divine love!

As Jesus is hit by the Father's gaze, everything slows down. The love that comes from His eyes is softer than silk but stronger than steel. It's the most gentle love there has ever been, yet it is the greatest force in existence. It is calming and soothing yet it is a raging fire of love that consumes every aspect of His entire being. It is an intense encounter, yet it is in perfect harmony with the most eloquent dance that has ever been danced.

Then Jesus turns His gaze, which is just as intense and powerful on Holy Spirit, Holy Spirit turns His equally intense gaze upon Jesus, then on the Father... and they relentlessly, throughout eternity blast each other with the purest, most extravagant, most overwhelming measures of Divine Love that have ever and will ever exist.

I am aiming to help you capture the wonder of the Divine Dance...

It's an indescribable - unbroken cycle of the most flawless and spectacular masterpieces of love in all creation and beyond – it's perpetual expressions of divine love that never flinch, never relent and never reduce in their intensity or consistency... each member of the Trinity receives this Divine Love perfectly and gives perfect expression of this Divine Love to the other members of the Trinity in the most creative, the most outrageously abundant and the most excellent ways Divinely conceivable...

The Fellowship of the Trinity, Perichoresis, the Divine Dance is an explosion of the most mind bending expressions of love divinely conceivable... Each member of the Trinity pours out the fullness of their power, they hold absolutely nothing back, but spend themselves entirely in their exuberant, extravagant, heartfelt expressions of love that they lavish on one another.

It was in this setting, in the context of this radical love that the Trinity conceived one of the most powerful ideas that they have ever had.

That idea was - you.

The original idea that they had was that you would be a perfect Dance partner, created with the capacity to participate equally in the Dance. They created you in their image – so that you would be fully capable of participating perfectly in “Perichoresis”.

I want you to imagine with me again...

This time you are the object of the Trinity’s affection.

The gaze of Divine Love is fixed on you and at exactly the same moment all three of the Trinity unleash the fullness of their love and utterly baptise you in the most glorious expression of love that you have ever tasted in your life!

You can literally taste it!

Supernatural love has entirely consumed you! You can see it wrapping around your body like flames and arcing bolts of electrical current, you can hear it pulsating and reverberating through every cell in your being; body, soul and spirit, you can taste it with every cell in your body and the fragrance of divine love has permeated the entire atmosphere!

Speechless, you collapse, in the most blissful, gentle, multi-dimensional, paradoxical state of your life!

You’ve never felt so peaceful – yet you feel like a thousand waterfalls of pure love are crashing over you every second.

You feel freedom like never before – but you feel the volts of a millions bolts of lightning love zinging through your entire being.

You feel like you’re walking with God in the cool of the day – except that you’ve never been so ablaze with the fires of love!

You feel like you’re walking on water but at the same time you feel like your swimming in an ocean of divine love and liquid love is flowing right through you...

Everything is quiet but the love of God is like thunder in your heart!

You can’t even walk, yet somehow you can dance, and carried by the Spirit you rise and take your place that was prepared for you before time began – flowing effortlessly with the rhythms of the Trinity as you receive and express Divine Love in a timeless realm of intimacy, oneness, ecstasy and unrelenting waves of pure divine love.

When Psalm 37:4 talks about “delighting yourself in the Lord” that’s a tiny snapshot, with plenty of poetic licence, into what it looks like to delight yourself in the Lord.

Delight is the pinnacle expression of what Love looks like.

The purest expression and definition of love can only be beheld in the smiles and in the eyes of the Trinity as they radiate and blaze divine delight with every gaze as they come face to face with each other and face to face with us...

In that place of face to face, heart to heart, Spirit to Spirit embrace a supernatural love is found that permeates the very fabric of our entire being.

It is absolutely critical that we do not dilute this definition of Delight.

Regardless of our personal disappointments, disconnection or frustrations – we must never allow our experiences to pollute our definition of the timeless, infinite, beauty, intensity, holiness and extravagance of Divine Love.

We must not water down its divinely over the top nature, or falsely define this loving delight as anything less than the mind blowingly glorious wonder that it is – because if we do, we will shut down our capacity to Dream with God!

Participating seamlessly and effortlessly in “Perichoresis”, the Divine Dance, has always been the original design for your life. Seamless union in the Divine Dance, is the greatest place of Alignment that you could ever find yourself in.

The Ultimate Calling on your life, far beyond doing things or working for God, has always been to be perfectly, radically, extravagantly, outrageously, wildly, crazily loved by the Trinity! The ultimate call of God on your life is to be loved by the Trinity with the exact same intensity with which they love each other!

“Delight yourself in the Lord”, looks like participating in the Divine Dance as an equal dance partner.

That place right there – that place of delighting yourself in the Lord, as you receive divine love perfectly and give perfect expression to Divine Love, that is the Seed Bed of Dreams!

In the context of the Divine Dance the limitless possibilities available to us in Christ are awakened – the Seeds of Greatness and Destiny germinate and the potential to walk in the fullness of God’s Divine Design for our lives, is conceived and begins to sparkle, breathe and exhale.

Jesus always had this longing for seamless union and oneness with us... He says it best in John 17:20-24:

20“My prayer is not for them alone. I pray also for those who will believe in me through their message, 21that all of them may be one, Father, just as you are in me and I am in you. May they also be in us so that the world may believe that you have sent me. 22I have given them the glory that you gave me, that they may be one as we are one — 23I in them and you in me—so that they may be brought to complete unity. Then the world will know that you sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me. 24“Father, I want those you have given me to be with me where I am, and to see my glory, the glory you have given me because you loved me before the creation of the world.

This Scripture is priceless beyond words. It reveals so much of the heart of the Father, specifically that He loves us with the exact same intensity of love that He has for Jesus. When it comes to love, the Trinity only has 1 volume and it is eternally stuck on maximum!

There was a long time in my life that I simply could not believe that was possible.

I had no concept at all of the Divine Dance.

Despite growing up in the church. A missionary kid, born on the mission field in the jungle of Indonesia.

My parents returned home to New Zealand when I was 2 and they became pastors. I grew up in the church. My first proper job was working for a church.

But I had no idea that it was possible to practically and supernaturally experience the love of God.

In fact I strongly believed that I was unworthy of any such love.

It was only through the beautiful journey of discovering Sonship that I was able to awaken to and begin to participate in the priceless love found in the Divine Dance for myself.

Sonship is a generic, gender neutral term, that speaks of our Spiritual Identity and it applies equally to men and women. I have extensive training available on Sonship and how to go on your own beautiful journey into the bliss of Sonship. It is one of the most significant and powerful journey's that any person can ever go on. Although it is foundational to participating in the Divine Dance it is not the focus of this book.

(I have a lot of free resources available for you that will help you go on your own beautiful journey into the Bliss of Sonship. I do recommend The “3 Day” Royal Challenge as a great place to start, that short course is Free and includes a Free gift of my $375 School of Sonship, which will be priceless in the process of discovering how to live in the Divine Dance for yourself. Here's the Link, just copy and paste it to get all of that for Free: www.raisingroyaltyecourse.com/jump-on-board)

This passage in Ephesians 3 captures the heart of God beautifully – pay special attention to verse 19. In this passage Paul highlights that our whole Christian journey is to be founded and grounded on a supernatural, tangible, practical experience of God’s love that trumps a theory of God’s love any day!

Having lived on both sides of this promise, I know, that nothing compares to living in the fruition of what Paul is describing here:

Ephesians 3:17 -21, Amplified Classic

17 May Christ through your faith [actually] dwell (settle down, abide, make His permanent home) in your hearts! May you be rooted deep in love and founded securely on love,

18 That you may have the power and be strong to apprehend and grasp with all the saints [God’s devoted people, the experience of that love] what is the breadth and length and height and depth [of it];

19 [That you may really come] to know [practically, through experience for yourselves] the love of Christ, which far surpasses mere knowledge [without experience]; that you may be filled [through all your being] unto all the fullness of God [may have the richest measure of the divine Presence, and become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself]!

20 Now to Him Who, by (in consequence of) the [action of His] power that is at work within us, is able to [carry out His purpose and] do superabundantly, far over and above all that we [dare] ask or think [infinitely beyond our highest prayers, desires, thoughts, hopes, or dreams]—

21 To Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations forever and ever. Amen (so be it).

This place of intimacy in the Divine Dance, receiving and expressing Divine Love in all its fullness is the Seed Bed of Dreams!

To the same degree that we dive into this limitless love, we will be empowered to dream limitless dreams with God.

Our delight in God is either the ceiling on our dreams or the supernatural key that will unlock the capacity within us to step into a limitless realm of Dreaming with God.

Matthew 17:5, The Message

This is my Son, marked by my love, focus of my delight.

Whether you are aware of it or not, you were marked by God’s love when He conceived the idea of you in His imagination, before the foundation of the world! You have always been and you will always be the immovable focus of His delight.

His invitation to you is to take your place and join the Trinity in the everlasting Divine Dance. This has always been Their desire and Their plan and it will always remain God's steadfast longing, to share with us the greatest expressions of love and intimacy possible.

Ephesians 1:4-6, The Passion Translation

4 And he chose us to be his very own, joining us to himself even before he laid the foundation of the universe! Because of his great love, he ordained us, so that we would be seen as holy in his eyes with an unstained innocence.

5-6 For it was always in his perfect plan to adopt us as his delightful children, through our union with Jesus, the Anointed One, so that his tremendous love that cascades over us would glorify his grace—for the same love he has for his Beloved One, Jesus, he has for us. And this unfolding plan brings him great pleasure!

Regardless of how this chapter has impacted you, you must now make a decision...

Whether it frustrated you, brought up painful thoughts, inspired you or completely set you ablaze with exhilarating excitement or whether it bored you – you must make a decision that will shape the rest of your life:

Will you Dance or not?

Maybe you have no idea how to Dance with the Trinity and that language sounds too mysterious for you...

Maybe like me you grew up with religion and didn't even know it was possible to experience the supernatural love of God...

Maybe that was one of the most beautiful things you've ever heard in your life and you are in full swing Dancing with the Trinity right now...

Maybe you are in your own unique space right now...

Wherever you are at – you must still decide.

Will you Dance or not?

For some that will be effortless, for others it will take the journey of a lifetime to get back to what God designed for you before time began.

For everyone it will be dynamic and as unique as our own fingerprints.

If your answer is “No”, you don’t want that, then I pray that one day you will reconsider, because the consequence is that you have just cut yourself off from the fullness of your own destiny.

The Trinity will be waiting for you with an open invitation to Dance when the time comes – but don’t take too long.

As Leonard Ravenhill said:

“The opportunity of a lifetime must be seized within the lifetime of the opportunity!”

Some people reading this will doubt this type of life is even possible. Some will believe it is actually possible for some people - just not for them!

If that’s you, that’s ok.

But, I want you to ask yourself this...

Hypothetically speaking, if it was possible to experience that type of seamless union and extravagant love in your relationship with God – would you want it?

Because if there’s even a thin slice of desire in you for any dream in your future...

...then this book will be absolutely priceless for you as we break the silence on “The Science of Dreams”.

Get ready to discover how to Master the 4 Ancient Weapons from Heaven that will empower you to live victoriously over the 4 Satanic Assignments against your life so that you can truly start to Dream with God and start living out your wildest dreams!

Chapter 3: Dreaming with God

The Enemy In The Shadows

On August the 4th 1987 Joy White and Carl Tyson took their 19-day-old daughter Carlina White to the Harlem Hospital Centre in Manhattan with a fever. They were not aware that for the previous three weeks a lady named Anne Pettway, had been disguising herself as a nurse at the hospital and looking for an opportunity to meet a desperate need.

Several miscarriages had deeply scarred Ann Pettway and traumatised her with the belief that she may never have her own child. This fear produced a desperate need that drew her to the Harlem Hospital Centre with a dark agenda. On the very same night that Joy, Carl and Carlina arrived, Ann was watching and waiting.

Sometime between 2:30am and 3:55am Ann Pettway removed Carlina's IV line and abducted her.

From that moment the mysterious lady in the nurses uniform and Carlina White simply vanished. There were no clues. There was no trail to follow. Carlina was gone and all that was left for Joy and Carl was the emotional debris left by the tornado of pain that had just crashed through their world.

Like Joy and Carl, most of us are unaware, that in the shadows of our lives, watching our every move there are evil forces commissioned with a Satanic Assignment designed to abort, abduct and through any means necessary completely destroy the call of God and the Divine Destiny upon our lives.

There are 4 Satanic Assignments commissioned against every persons destiny and calling and 4 Giants of Darkness mobilised to enforce those Satanic Assignments.

In this book "The Science of Dreams" I will uncover the 4 Non Negotiable Elements to The Science of Dreams, which are in fact 4 Ancient Weapons from Heaven that will enable any person to live Victoriously, to Dream with God and to begin walking in the fruition of their wildest dreams...

These are not simply good ideas – they are Weapons from Heaven that have proven themselves for millennia.

“The Science of Dreams” is not a Scientific theory. It is a combination of dynamic Biblical, Spiritual, Divine facts, principles and promises that have shaped the destiny of humanity since before the beginning.

In fact, whether you are aware of it or not your understanding and implementation or lack of understanding and implementation of “The Science of Dreams” is exactly what has shaped every detail of the reality that you are living in right now.

There are absolutely no short cuts or free passes into the fullness of the Divine Design for your life and to the same degree that you master “The Science of Dreams”, you will walk in the infinite possibilities available in Christ Jesus.

Any person who discovers, implements and masters these 4 Weapons from Heaven, that combine to form “The Science of Dreams” will go far beyond simply defeating the Giants of Darkness mobilised against them – they will be empowered to live a life where they dream limitless dreams with God and consistently redefine normal, reality, and possibility as they walk into the fruition of dreams that were once “beyond their wildest imagination”.

Just as Joy and Carl were blindsided and all their dreams of a life with Carlina were ruthlessly stolen, we all face an enemy that wants to abort our capacity to dream with God or abduct and destroy any and every dream that we have ever carried...

Our enemy is motivated by pure fear. Darkness can't rest for the terror that plagues it and causes it to relentlessly harass and abuse you in every way possible.

The thought that haunts darkness itself is the thought of something infinitely powerful, something that threatens the very existence of the Giants of Darkness themselves...

It's the thought of you.

It's the thought of you living in the fullness of your destiny. Nothing strikes a greater sense of terror into the heart of evil than imagining you living in everything that God has promised you!

That word destiny, is like the word delight and in order to fully understand it we must again go back to – “before the beginning”.

We already have a picture in our mind now of the wonder of the Fellowship of the Trinity and the Divine Dance – but it's time to see something else, something sacred that has burned in the heart of God since before time began...

It was in the context of the Divine Dance that the Trinity first conceived the idea of you!

The ultimate calling on your life was always - to be perfectly loved by God.

But it was never intended to just stop there.

God always had more in mind for you, in fact that was just the beginning of a Destiny more phenomenal than any person will ever have the capacity to even imagine!

Before time began, in the context of the Divine Dance, motivated by the purest love of all the Trinity summoned all their creativity, all their goodness, all their love and all their power to complete one of the most sacred and extravagant acts that they have ever performed:

God unleashed His limitless power to dream the best for you and it was in that sacred moment that your destiny was conceived!

Your destiny, is what God saw when He unleashed His limitless power to dream the best for you!

There is absolutely nothing average or normal about the Call of God and the Destiny on your life! You have a 5 Star Calling, a Royal and a Sacred Destiny that truly is more magnificent than you have the power to imagine!

No matter how hard you try to imagine the greatest, most exceptional, most mind blowing future that you possibly can – God has already infinitely outdreamed you in every way and marked you for a measure of greatness that no eye has seen, that no ear has heard and that no mind has ever dared to imagine!

1 Corinthians 2:9, The Passion Translation

9 This is why the Scriptures say:

Things never discovered or heard of before, things beyond our ability to imagine—these are the many things God has in store for all His lovers.

Pay close attention again to verse 20 in this passage from Ephesians 3:

Ephesians 3:17 -21, AMP Classic

17 May Christ through your faith [actually] dwell (settle down, abide, make His permanent home) in your hearts! May you be rooted deep in love and founded securely on love,

18 That you may have the power and be strong to apprehend and grasp with all the saints [God's devoted people, the experience of that love] what is the breadth and length and height and depth [of it];

19 [That you may really come] to know [practically, through experience for yourselves] the love of Christ, which far surpasses mere knowledge [without experience]; that you may be filled [through all your being] unto all the fullness of God [may have the richest measure of the divine Presence, and become a body wholly filled and flooded with God Himself]!

20 Now to Him Who, by (in consequence of) the [action of His] power that is at work within us, is able to [carry out His purpose and] do superabundantly, far over and above all that we [dare] ask or think [infinitely beyond our highest prayers, desires, thoughts, hopes, or dreams]—

21 To Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations forever and ever. Amen (so be it).

Now let's check out verse 20 again in The Passion Translation:

Ephesians 3:20, The Passion Translation

20 Never doubt God's mighty power to work in you and accomplish all this. He will achieve infinitely more than your greatest request, your most unbelievable dream, and exceed your wildest imagination! He will outdo them all, for his miraculous power constantly energizes you.

Our enemies, the Giants of Darkness, who are commissioned to destroy us, are often more aware of the significance of our destinies than we are and it floods them with terror.

Your greatness fuels their rage and your very existence threatens theirs.

Part of the mark of Greatness that God has placed upon you is that within you is the power to outdream darkness.

It is the nature of Love and the nature of God to outdream Darkness.

There is no expression of evil that Love is ok with.

There is no expression of abuse, oppression, tyranny or evil that is compatible with love.

A vision is the solution to a problem and when God dreams – He outdreams the darkness.

He has placed this power inside your imagination. You are the light of the world and darkness cannot withstand you.

When you learn to Master the 4 Ancient Weapons from Heaven you will become evil's kryptonite!

Whether you realised it or not you are centre stage in a cosmic battle of Destiny and truly the stakes could not be higher!

Will you overcome every Satanic Assignment against your life? Will you live victoriously over the Giants of Darkness that threaten your existence?

Will you master the 4 Ancient Weapons from Heaven and tread sacred pathways where few others have gone before, as you truly step into the Sacred Calling and the Divine Destiny upon your life?

I am not just being dramatic.

I hope you are having a faith awakening to the greatness that marked your life before the foundations of the earth were laid...

I hope you are ready to step up and take hold of some Giant Slaying Weapons and begin to walk in Victory and Destiny like never before!

Ready or not – those Giants of Darkness are coming for you and as you read, you may come to realise just how close to home this battle is already raging...

In fact, most people lose this battle because they don't even realise that they are under attack. One of your enemies greatest advantages is stealth, which requires invisibility and sabotage – so, let's completely expose the first Giant of Darkness.

The first Giant of Darkness that we must face is Assigned against us specifically to ensure that we never, in any way Dream with God.

If we have dared to dream with God this Giant is already planning the abduction and destruction of all of our dreams.

This Giant of Darkness, is the Giant of Lack and it's greatest fear is that you learn the Art of Dreaming with God...

To cut off your capacity to dream with God, the Giant of Lack attacks your greatest asset in the process of Dreaming with God – your imagination!

Do not underestimate the power of your imagination, nor the lethal side effects of a damaged, defiled or dying imagination.

Your imagination is the 1st Ancient Heavenly Weapon given to you to empower you to fulfil a destiny so great that it exceeds your capacity to even “imagine”!

Let’s take a moment here to appreciate the true power of your imagination and it’s truly sacred origins.

Your imagination is not the result of evolution.

Your imagination is a supernatural communication system designed by God to enable you to experience effortless, seamless, moment by moment intimacy and telepathic communication with the Spirit of God.

It is a supernatural prophetic window allowing you to see into multiple dimensions of time and space at the same moment.

It is the command centre that bridges the gap between the natural and spiritual realm, rooted and intertwined as much with your physical brain as it is with your Spirit.

And perhaps most significantly it is the only communication system in the cosmos that has the bandwidth and download capacity that is powerful enough to be able to perform one of the rarest functions in all creation and that is to Dream with God!

Through your imagination you can receive supernatural downloads of limitless amounts of information without a second of time ever passing.

A person who learns to harness the power of their imagination and to wield it is a weapon rather than to play with it as a worthless toy or abuse it, will uncover a power from God that has the capacity to redefine reality and write the future of humanity.

In the Old Testament, the Hebrew word “yetser”, and in the New Testament the Greek word “dianoia” relate to our imagination. There are over 90 Scriptures relating to the topic of the imagination. However, not every translation translates the word directly as imagination, sometimes it is translated as mind or understanding or imagination.

Here are just 4 of the Many Biblical ways we can use our imagination:

Number 1:

In Matthew 22:37, Mark 12:30 and Luke 1:51 when Jesus instructs us to love God “with all our heart, all our soul, all our mind and all our strength” the word He used for mind is the word “dianoia” or imagination.

1) We love God with all of our imagination.

Number 2:

In Ephesians 1:18, The Passion Translation, Paul writes:

18 I pray that the light of God will illuminate the eyes of your imagination, flooding you with light, until you experience the full revelation of the hope of his calling—that is, the wealth of God's glorious inheritances that he finds in us, his holy ones!

2) We receive revelation through our imagination.

Number 3:

In 1 John 5:20, AMP Classic, John uses the word “dianoia” and it is translated here as “understanding and insight”:

20 And we [have seen and] know [positively] that the Son of God has [actually] come to this world and has given us understanding and insight [progressively] to perceive (recognize) and come to know better and more clearly Him Who is true; and we are in Him Who is true—in His Son Jesus Christ (the Messiah).

3) We know God through our imagination.

Number 4:

*The word “dianoia” is translated as “mind” in Hebrews 8:10, NIV
This is the covenant I will establish with the people of Israel after that time, declares the Lord.
I will put my laws in their minds and write them on their hearts.*

4) We know the will of God through our imagination.

This is exactly why Satan has placed a bounty on your imagination and commissioned the Giant of Lack to destroy it completely at any cost!

Our imagination is the 1st Weapon from Heaven that God has given us to be able to redefine reality, defy impossibility and bring our Sacred Destiny to fruition. Our imagination is the key to unlocking a world where we dream supernatural limitless dreams with God.

Our imagination is the only key that can unlock one of the most powerful forces in all creation, it is this force from Heaven, unlocked by your imagination that the Giant of Lack fears most and it is this force that the Giant of Lack will do anything within its power to suppress and destroy...

How to Tell You Are Under Attack

As I mentioned the Giants of Darkness prefer to operate through invisibility and sabotage. That way, you don't even realise you are in a battle.

The favourite type of Victory for the Giant of Lack, is when a person doesn't even realise that they have been conquered. The Giant of Lack is in full celebration when their victims come to believe that their life of defeat and submission is actually the good life.

If you are in this place it's often very difficult to tell, because the systematic conditioning and attack on your life has been at work since before you were even born.

The Giants of Darkness don't just operate through isolated, random, solo, search and destroy missions.

They have vast networks of Satanic entities operating simultaneously through multiple generations in order to create deep rooted cultural mindsets and normals that enslave millions of people at a time - and the masses often don't even realise they are caught under a demonic matrix that has been systematically manipulating entire family lines, cultures, regions or nations for generations.

P.S. this might be about to get a wee bit confronting...

So, you'll need to ask yourself if your destiny is worth fighting for, because right now we are going to expose some Giants and it might get nasty before it gets better... hold on for the ride though!

To say "It will be worth it!" is an enormous understatement.

Let's start by exposing the evidence that you are under attack by the Giant of Lack:

The first sign that you are under attack by the Giant of Lack is Poverty.

I'm not just talking about being a little short on cash.

A Lack attack goes deep into your psychology, your spirituality, your relationships, emotions, state of being, health, economy, world view, mindsets, attitudes, culture and behaviours – absolutely all the areas of your life are impacted.

The Giant of Lack is ruthless and relentless aiming to tear down every expression of the Divine Life promised to you. It brings disappointment like a plague. It fosters discouragement, depression and despair.

Sometimes the approach is more subtle and it tries to seduce you with the treasures of this world, but it always takes more than it gives!

This systematic attack can be so stealthy, so long term and so pervasive that you may still be thinking, even as you are reading this, that it's not really impacting you all that much.

Let's go a little deeper...

Remember the target of the Giant of Lack is actually your imagination with the focus of shutting down every trace of the unstoppable force from Heaven that your imagination has the power to unlock.

The Giant of Lack, lays out the most subtle siege attack in the world, that is so long term and so covert that we don't even realise that the Giant already has the Victory.

I will have to use a more dramatic test, to expose the true impact that the Giant of Lack is having on our lives:

So, I'll come at it from a slightly different angle...

How often do you wake up, and before your head has even left the pillow, your heart is completely ablaze with an inferno of passion to launch into your day and do absolutely whatever it takes to bring your wildest dreams to life!?

No challenge is too great! No sacrifice too costly! No mountain is too high! No distance is too far! No dream is too impossible! No Discipline is too demanding! No wake up time is too early! No Giant is invincible!

When you live with that type of passion this starts becoming your new normal:

You wake up on fire and unstoppable every day!

The very fact that you have received the gift of life for one more day and the opportunity to pursue your wildest dreams sparks an explosion of delight! Even the tiniest breakthrough and even seemingly bad news sends you into a flow of heartfelt gratitude.

Before your feet hit the ground you are undone and overwhelmed by the mind blowing supernatural wonders of the Divine Dance – Divine love has completely consumed you, marinated you and blasted you with a million bolts of lightning love!

You are so gripped with passion for the Divine Assignment on your life that you are ready to lay your life down for your cause in a heartbeat, but your consuming desire is to live your life for maximum impact and to give the greatest expression of divine love possible to the world with every breath that you are blessed to breathe.

All around you – you are surrounded by the fulfilment of your wildest dreams. You are carried by the momentum of Heaven! Every day you are able to dream with God for greater and more extravagant ways to express divine love to both individuals and to multitudes!

You have caught the most serious case of prenoia in the world!

Prenoia is the opposite of paranoia. Extreme paranoia believes that everything is conspiring against you for evil.

Extreme prenoia believes that absolutely everything is conspiring for you to bring about the fullness of the Divine Calling and Destiny on your life, which is exceedingly, super abundantly above and beyond what you have ever dared to ask, dream, pray or think – infinitely beyond your wildest imagining!

When you Dream with God and He speaks to you from a higher dimension and reveals the impossible, improbable and impractical assignments that He has for you - your heart leaps with joy knowing He has a plan and that His power that is at work in you is able to fulfil every promise that He will ever make you!

This is what life starts looking like when you start living in victory over the Giant of Lack.

Your world will be saturated in Divine Abundance of absolutely every kind! It's a Divine Abundance that flows primarily from the inside out.

I'm not speaking about money, I'm talking about the Divine Life that Jesus promised us – it will flood every cell in your being and permeate everything that surrounds you.

John 10:10, AMP Classic

The thief comes only in order to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have and enjoy life, and have it in abundance (to the full, till it overflows).

The Greek word for life here is the word “zoe” – it is the Divine life. Jesus Himself defined that word when He said “I am the way, the truth and the life (zoe)” John 14:6.

Zoe is the Divine life. A Divine state of being. Zoe is the exact same state of being that the Trinity share together in the Divine Dance. The Greek word translated as “abundance” is the word “perissos”. It means “without measure”.

The Giant of Lack, systematically launches a co-ordinated, multi-generational strategic assault on your imagination, hoping to completely crush it through every expression of poverty possible – because it knows that your imagination is the Highway into a limitless overflow of the Divine life in your life that will enable you to Dream with God so beautifully and powerfully that you will be empowered to outdream darkness and step into a world where you are living in the fulfilment of Ephesians 3:20!

A world where you are literally watching the manifestation of dreams on a daily basis, that were once far beyond your ability to ask, dream, think or pray – dreams that used to be infinitely beyond your wildest imagination, but now they are your reality!

Here’s the confronting part, that is going to require an attitude of Extreme Ownership ...

Anything less in our lives than the fullness of what God has promised us is evidence that the Giant of Lack already has a measure of Victory over our lives.

Anything less than the Divine Life without measure...

Anything less than “infinitely beyond our wildest imagination”...

Anything less than the birth right and inheritance promised to us is evidence of the Giant of Lack exerting a degree of Victory over our lives.

We, need to be very, very careful here that we don’t slip into a victim mindset.

You see, a victim mindset, will start to justify and make excuses for why we are not living in the fullness of the promises of God. A victim mindset will get us lying to ourselves and get us to convince ourselves that this is unrealistic, unreasonable, unattainable...

The list of excuses and justifications go on and on, but the danger is, the Giant of Lack, whispers a quiet amen to every excuse, to every justification. ...and after enough excuses and justifications – we’ll entrench ourselves in a world of lack, a world where every pessimistic thought will become a self-fulfilling prophecy.

The danger is that we justify our current “normal”, when the reality is that God has infinitely more for us.

Without taking Extreme Ownership of this and going all it to do whatever it takes to create change, we will bind ourselves to the “forever diminishing normal” designed for us by the Giant of Lack.

Without taking Extreme Ownership of this – we will live Conquered by the Giant of Lack. No, what we need here, what we need right now is an attitude of Extreme Ownership!

An attitude that accurately takes stock of exactly where we are at in our lives right now. An attitude that assesses the full weight of what God has promised us.

An attitude that owns up to everything that we are thinking and doing that is fuelling the fires of lack in our lives and an attitude that weighs it all up and honestly says:

I'm going to do whatever it takes to slay the Giant of Lack that is attacking my life and I am going to step into the fullness of my birth right, my inheritance and the promises of God for my life!

So, the big question?

How do you slay the Giant of Lack?

Well, lack produces fear.

The antidote to fear is always love.

Perfect love casts out all fear, because the nature of love is to supply.

Love produces a level of abundance that drowns out the influence of the Giant of Lack and that love is found in "perissos" (without measure) when we are swallowed up in the Divine Dance.

The beautiful journey from Lack and a love deficit into the Limitlessness of Divine Love is the journey of a lifetime and for me it was only made possible by discovering my Sonship.

If you are serious about doing whatever it takes to slay the Giant of Lack in your life – the beautiful journey into the Bliss of Sonship is not just your next best step it is an absolute non-negotiable part of the process of stepping into your destiny!

The rest of this book is about to give you some enormous keys, but if you want to journey into the Bliss of Sonship, I have a huge amount of Free resources available, that I would highly recommend you check out. The ultimate taster resource is The "3 Day" Royal Challenge – so keep an eye out for it!

Do not think for a moment that defeating the Giant of Lack is a simple task. It definitely is not.

It will demand everything that you have. It will demand that you go all in. It will demand that you forsake a casual attitude about your destiny and the sacred call of God on your life. It will demand that you forsake the status quo.

Even in Christian circles this will demand more than most Christians are willing to give. But God is not inviting you to live a normal Christian life, He has something so much greater in store for you.

Once again, you are going to have to embrace Extreme Ownership and ask yourself if you are willing to do whatever it takes to walk in your destiny.

Are you willing to do whatever it takes?

If so, you are going to have to embark on the adventure of a lifetime that leads you into the fires of the Divine Dance! You will face innumerable obstacles and battles – but if you refuse to give up, if you embrace the beautiful journey into Sonship, you will discover a State of being, so radically infused with and saturated in divine love that the Giant of Lack will lose all influence in your life.

This book, “The Science of Dreams”, is going to cover some of the most vital content required to slay the 4 Giants of Darkness Assigned against your life, but we will not be covering how to step into your Sonship.

If you truly are all in, if you truly are taking Extreme Ownership of stepping into your Sacred Destiny, then you must also study and Master Sonship because it is the key that will enable you to take your place in the Divine Dance.

Once you have found your place in the Divine Dance you will be able to partner the power of “The Science of Dreams” with the power of the Divine Dance and you will truly become unstoppable...

For now – let us continue with “The Science of Dreams”, but once you have finished this book – do whatever it takes to discover and to walk in your Sonship.

Dreaming With God

The process of dreaming with God is an overflow of the Divine Dance. It's a process of both hearing the whispers and desires of God and also of searching out, discovering and engaging with the deepest and the most wonderful authentic desires of your own heart.

One of the most powerful questions that you can ask yourself to kickstart this process is – “What do I want?”

This is one of the most significant and most empowering questions that we can ask in our lives.

But if you only ask yourself the question it will not benefit you. It is the answering of this question, which has the capacity to dramatically upgrade your life.

Remember Psalm 37:4 says – “Delight yourself in the Lord and He will give you the desires of your heart.”

The process of dreaming with God is a collaborative, wonder-filled dance that will awaken your, yes, I said “your” wildest dreams.

Vaguely or causally answering this question “What do I want?” is not enough to empower you to see your dreams fulfilled.

Most people never answer this question with authenticity and precision. Most people never actually engage in the beauty of the process of Dreaming with God.

The end result is millions of people going to their graves without ever seeing their dreams fulfilled. People are always asking why God allows so much evil and chaos in this world – the answer is because God's solution is to place dreams in our hearts that have the power to fix this world's problems and we keep taking those solutions and dreams to the grave – by the millions!

If you ever want to walk in the ecstasy of seeing your wildest dreams fulfilled, then you have to abandon casual immediately. A casual attitude is a dream's death sentence. A casual attitude is one of the greatest causes of death for dreams in our generation. It's time to abandon lethal, casual attitudes and get passionate about dreaming with God!

The first step in Dreaming with God is to ask yourself, “What do I want?” and then go on the roller coaster ride of letting your heart speak freely about your genuine desires. This question needs to be answered diligently and in depth with precision detail for every area of your life.

Answering this question with vulnerability, authenticity, courage, and detailed precision will position you to start the process of bringing your wildest dreams to life.

A lot of people are too afraid to admit to themselves what they really want because they are so afraid that what they really want in life is not possible.

A lot of dreams get aborted before they ever have the chance to come alive, grow and flourish because some part of us believes that those dreams are not possible. That is the Giant of Lack speaking words of death that will abort our dreams.

We need to change our internal dialogue. Nothing is impossible. Impossible and possible are dictated by our minds and the minds of those around us. To change what is possible, we simply have to change our minds.

You need to ask yourself what do you really want from life? You only have one life. No one else can answer this question for you: What do you want? From the smallest desire to the greatest.

Remember that the question is not: “What do you think is possible in the context of your current circumstances?”

The question is much deeper than that - what do you really want? What are the secret desires of your heart that you really long for? If you had limitless resources at your disposal, what would you want to do, to be, to see or to create?

This is the only way to dream with God – without limits!!!

One of the most beautiful things about dreaming with God is that there are no limits! Dreaming with God takes place in your imagination, where everything and anything is possible in an instant...

The only way to allow yourself to dream authentically is to allow yourself to dream without limits, without restriction and without listening the Giant of Lack relentlessly whispering that your dreams are impossible.

You have dreams and desires deep inside you that will leave a legacy of blessing for generations to come. Will you dare to dream without the illusion of impossibility?

I want to give you permission to rebel against every thought, every voice, every circumstance and every experience that has ever told you that your dreams are impossible. Now is your time to dream authentic and limitless dreams!

I challenge you to honestly, courageously and diligently answer this question– what do you want?

In the process of Dreaming with God, reality is not important. What is important is desire.

If you are distracted by limits, impossibilities, circumstances or even your present reality you will not be able to focus on the true burning desires of your own heart.

Forget everything to do with logistics in the process of Dreaming with God – logistics and details are essential, but it is essential that they come at the right time. The dreaming phase is the wrong time for logistics and details.

If introduced at the wrong time, details and logistics will kill your dreams instead of bringing them to life. In the dream phase, forget logistics, details, possibility and reality and focus exclusively on the wild authentic desires of your own heart.

The dreaming phase is the time to engage with the secret desires of your own heart that are so big, so revolutionary and so radical that they terrify you, evade your conscious awareness and defy both possibility and reality. The dreaming phase is not the time to be rational, practical or realistic.

Countless dreams have been aborted before they ever had the chance to see the light of day because people have been trained to be practical at the wrong time. I am all about being practical at the right time. But during the dreaming phase being practical is inappropriate and counterproductive.

Being practical at the wrong time will limit you to the restrictions of your present circumstance. Being practical at the wrong time will turn you into a liar by causing you to suppress the genuine desires of your heart, because our dreams are often impractical. If you only allow yourself to embrace what is practical then you will suppress your hearts desires and you will abort your own dreams.

Intentionally allowing yourself to dream impractical and unrealistic dreams allows you to be completely honest with yourself about the desires in your heart. It also empowers your imagination to be free to see new possibilities, new ideas, new creative solutions and new perspectives that you may never have considered before.

This is the purpose of Dreaming with God: engaging both your imagination and your conversation with God to see a better, brighter future.

The majority of the process of bringing your dreams to life is about logistics, strategies and working out how to take precision actions, with precision timing in order to transition your impossible, impractical and improbable dreams into reality. But the dreaming phase is all about discovering the authentic desires of your own heart and allowing God to inspire you with possibilities beyond your wildest imagination!

When you Dream with God you have to be intentional about being courageous. Your hearts authentic desires and the destiny that God has in store for you will be so good that they scare you!

Your destiny is so phenomenal that it may cause you to be concerned about what other people will think. You may think that some people won't like your dream.

This is the Giant of Lack speaking again. Insecurity caused by what others think will turn you into a liar by causing you to reduce your dreams or avoid your dreams or present false dreams that you think are more acceptable in your context.

The dreaming phase is all about desire and having the courage to admit first to yourself and then to the world what you really want and what you know God has created you for.

In every sphere of human advancement dreamers have redefined what is possible! In 1895 Lord Kelvin declared to the world "heavier-than-air flying machines are impossible". On December 17, 1903

Wilbur and Orville Wright did the impossible when they flew the first successful powered aircraft.

In 1934 Albert Einstein said "There is not the slightest indication that [nuclear energy] will ever be obtainable." Just before Christmas in 1950, on December the 20th in Idaho USA four light bulbs were lit by nuclear powered electricity. Einstein's own equation is now at the heart of over 400 nuclear power plants.

Even the concept of light without fire was a huge development for humanity. Dreamers had already brought humanity a long way before nuclear power came along. Dreamers brought humanity to the place where we had discovered how to harness electricity and dreamers were responsible for inventing light bulbs to power in the first place! Impossible dreams are constantly becoming tomorrow's brand new normal.

Scientists and doctors had declared that running a mile in under 4 minutes was impossible. It was not believed just to be difficult or dangerous, it was believed by scientists and doctors to be humanly impossible.

Roger Bannister dreamed outside the confines of possibility. He dreamed of running a mile in under 4 minutes. As a part of Bannister's training he would visualize, he would imagine himself doing the impossible, he would imagine himself making history, defying reality, probability and impossibility as he imagined himself running a mile in under 4 minutes.

On May 6, 1954, Roger Bannister redefined reality, possibility and normal when he ran the first mile in under 4 minutes with a time of 3:59:4. He beat the barrier of impossibility by less than a second – but he did it! He did the impossible, redefined reality and created a brave new normal for humanity! The current world record for the fastest mile is now 3:43:13, held by Hicham El Guerrouj.

You must choose to be courageous. You must choose to be powerful. You must choose to dream authentic Dreams with God. You can be honest about what you really want. You can dream without limits. You can see a better, brighter future!

You can guarantee opposition. Regardless of what your dream is, how big it is, how small it is or even how brilliant it is – you can guarantee that someone will stand in opposition to your dream and your destiny – the Giant of Lack will make sure of that! You must choose to dream anyway! Don't let haters turn you into a liar who never truly admits to the greatness of your own dreams.

Your dreams have the capacity to influence nations and write history – but only you can dream them!

Stay away from negative people. They have a problem for every solution.

Albert Einstein

Many dreams defy what is rational, realistic, normal, achievable and possible. At the same time, it is impossible dreams fulfilled, which redefine normal, possible, achievable, realistic and rational! The future will be a totally different reality, from the reality that we are experiencing right now, because some individuals have dared to be courageous enough to dream beyond what is real, possible, achievable, rational and normal.

It is fulfilled dreams that make the difference between the present and the future. It is fulfilled dreams that redefine normal, possible, rational, achievable, practical and reality itself!

The future belongs to those who dare to dream!

So, let your heart speak! Set your heart free to dream with God. Do not let your hearts voice be bound and gagged by impossibility, circumstances, reality, logistics or details. Let your heart speak honestly, without fear or interruption. Allow your heart the position of honour that it was designed to have. Do not treat your heart like a prisoner or a slave, which must beg for an opportunity to have a voice.

Give your heart a position of honour and allow it to express its authentic desires whenever it pleases. By doing so, you will cultivate your capacity to dream with God.

Unlocking The Unstoppable Force

I believe that if we can learn to dream with God we can outdream the darkness in our world and redesign our world in the image of Heaven.

That might seem impossible, improbable or impractical to you – but it is impossible, improbable and impractical dreams that have gripped the hearts of humanity since the dawn of time.

Throughout history it has been the impossible, improbable and impractical dreams of revolutionaries that have captured the hearts and hopes of people all over the world, causing dreamers to arise from ashes and oppression and forge from the future a brave new world - a brave new normal that only the most courageous hearts could once imagine!

We see the impossible, improbable and impractical dreams of technology, sport, architecture and business come to fruition every day.

Our normal today would have been absolutely unbelievable to the average person 60 years ago. But we have dreamed, imagined, redesigned and built a whole new world.

Fulfilled dreams have redefined impossible, normal and reality itself. Yesterday's unbelievable dreams have become today's brand new normal.

I believe that all of our dreams have the capacity to forge a brave new normal - the capacity to redesign our world in the image of Heaven!

I believe that there are dreams inside of you that are more wonderful, more revolutionary and more powerful than you have yet dared to imagine!

I believe that inside of you are the type of dreams that are so inspiring, so compelling and so captivating that they have the potential to give a whole new level of hope to our generation.

These are the types of dreams that I want to inspire, to empower and to see come alive – dreams that have the capacity to grip a generation by the heart. Dreams that evoke the type of passion that writes history, shakes nations and redefines normal on the face of the earth forever!

In the movie Braveheart, Mel Gibson's character William Wallace said: "Every man dies. Not every man really lives." It's only once we have discovered something that we desire so intensely that we are willing to die for it that we truly come alive.

The type of desire that will do whatever it takes to see a dream fulfilled is the very same type of exhilarating passion that causes us to truly come alive.

This is one of the most powerful secrets of our imagination... Lean in close right now to hear this:

When we engage our imagination to see the fruition of our dreams before they ever come alive we unlock one of the most world changing forces in the entire cosmos – it's definitely not a force that the Giant of Lack ever wants you to possess.

The substance, the force is raw passion!

Many people are so intimidated by the seemingly impossible dreams that have been conceived in their hearts that they abort their own dreams before they ever give them a chance to live.

That is the best case scenario for the Giant of Lack; if you abort your own dreams then you've done his job for him.

It is the process of dreaming the impossible and meditating deeply on the better, brighter future that you desire, which will actually awaken within you the raw passion, which is the very substance that can make the impossible possible!

By aborting impossible dreams, we simultaneously abort the embryonic passion, which brings impossible dreams to life.

By allowing ourselves to fully invest in dreaming the impossible dreams that our hearts genuinely long for, we awaken and steward a fiery passion inside of ourselves that can accomplish the impossible, write history and shape nations!

Pure passion is one of the most valuable substances that we can ever possess.

It has more value than wealth or power because pure passion and desire can literally redefine reality.

Evidence that you have mastered the 1st Weapon from Heaven - your Imagination; is that you consistently live with such a force of raw passion burning in your chest every day, that you do not just talk about doing whatever it takes to bring your dreams to life – you actually do it!

And you don't just go through the motions – you do whatever it takes and you pour your whole heart into the process: every moment and every action are infused with the blazing fires of desire and raw passion!

Like William Wallace, you have found a cause worth dying for. Your heart and mind have become a blazing furnace of unquenchable desire for the reality that you have seen in your imagination to be made manifest on the earth.

There is a secret to unlocking that dimension of passion. It goes beyond a surface level imagination. It is the realm of "yada". "Yada", is a Hebrew word for intimate, experiential intimacy. It is the greatest form of intimacy possible, so sometimes it is also used in the Bible as a word for sex.

Genesis 4:1

“And Adam knew (yada) Eve his wife; and she conceived”

“Yada” literally means: To see, to hear, to smell, to touch and to taste.

Not only is it possible, to “yada” our wildest dreams in our imagination: to see, to hear, to smell, to touch and to taste them – it is one of the most critical disciplines in the process of bringing dreams to life!

When you take time and create space to go deeper in dreaming with God than just a surface level glance at your dreams. When you step into the realm of yada and consistently allow yourself to see, to hear, to smell, to touch and to taste your wildest dreams as though they are a present reality... You unlock one of the most priceless vaults in the cosmos – you unlock the vault of raw passion and burning desire.

Let me walk you through an activation to help you see what this can practically look like, but get ready for an adventure, because we are about to dive into the art of Dreaming with God in your imagination and anything is possible...

Now:

Lets slow this right down...

Don't rush this, something powerful is about to happen:

I want you to imagine that you are in the future.

You are walking in the fulfilment of one of your wildest dreams.

Make sure that the dream that you choose for this activation is one that is deeply significant to you. This is crucial, because insignificant dreams cannot unlock the vaults of passion – only dreams worth dying for have the power to unlock the vaults of raw passion and burning desire!

Focus now on this dream that you truly desire and long to see fulfilled. This dream holds deep significance to you because you know how many lives it will impact, you know how desperate the world is for the solution you are dreaming of.

Imagine now, that you just stepped into the future:

You can see it... you can see this dream, fully fulfilled.

The dream is not just alive, it's happening and lives are being changed forever...

Now I want to go deeper again, so, allow yourself to step into a place of yada and begin to imagine:

What does this fulfilled dream look like?

What does this fulfilled dream sound like?

What does this fulfilled dream smell like?

What does this fulfilled dream feel like?

What does this fulfilled dream taste like?

Whose lives are impacted by the fulfilment of this dream?

How is the world a better brighter place?

How does the fruition of this dream improve your life?

How does this fulfilled dream impact the relationships in your life?

What is the Legacy of this dream?

What do you love about this dream?

Why is this dream worth fighting for?

Ok, now I want you to ask yourself.

On a scale of 1-10 how much joy will you feel when this dream is fulfilled and established in the earth in all its glory?

Also, I want you to ask yourself, how painful will it be for you on a 1-10 Scale if this dream never comes to life?

Now, I want you to ask yourself what you are willing to do to bring this dream to life?

What is your next best step in bringing this dream to fruition?

What small step can you take today to add momentum to this dream?

What time today will you action that small step?

What words of Life will you declare over this dream right now?

That actually reminds me of Carlina White's story...

Abducted at 19 days old and gone without a trace.

In some ways she was taken like many of our dreams...

She was stolen and placed into a world of deception as Ann Pettway weaved a world of illusions for her to live inside...

This world of illusions tailor made by Ann's deception protected them from an alternate reality where Joy and Carl searched passionately for their missing daughter who was just 45 miles away.

Ann renamed Carlina, "Nejdra" and as the years passed by Nejdra, became known as "Netty". But something inside this young lady was not at peace. Two realities were colliding for her. The reality she had been told to believe her whole life and an emerging belief that her whole world was a lie.

She began to have a sense that the narrative she had been told about her origins and her identity were in fact an illusion. As she began to challenge the legitimacy of the fabricated world that Ann had invented Ann's answers became more and more unbelievable. The more Ann lied to her, the more convinced she became that the entire story she had believed about her origins and her identity were completely false.

Hunger for the truth grew inside her until it became a consuming desire. Eventually the years of confusion and suspicion came to an end as Netty came face to face with a picture of herself as a baby on a missing persons website.

In January 2011, at age 23, DNA testing confirmed that Netty Nance was in fact Carlina White. For Joy, Tyson and Netty, the truth, the news and the reunion were overwhelming. Joy White, was an explosion of tears, delight and gratitude to God that her daughter had been found!!!

Just as Joy White had the dream of her daughter restored to her – get ready for a wave of dreams being restored to you as I reveal how to expose and conquer the remaining 3 Satanic Assignments and Giants of Darkness that are holding your dreams captive!

Get ready, Get Ready, Get Ready to take that fresh raw passion and blazing desire of yours and use it as a key to unlock and unleash the 2nd Heavenly Weapon that you need in your Giant Slaying arsenal – here we go!

Chapter 4:

Building in The Spirit

6 Years of Struggle

Here we stand, hearts ablaze with desire, fueled by raw passion, glistening with hope and our imaginations focused on the significance and wonder of our wildest dreams and divine destiny...

We are poised to unleash a viral outbreak of dreams that will shift normal on the face of the Earth forever...

...then out from the shadows...

...emerges another Satanic Assignment against our life and another Giant of Darkness!

The Sinister agenda of this Giant is to crush every promise that God has ever made you and remove every trace of the power of God from operating in your life.

This Giant wants to utterly destroy the 2nd Ancient Weapon from Heaven that unleashes the Supernatural power of God in your life to bring the promises of God to fruition.

This 2nd weapon from Heaven carries the power to birth the wildest dreams that you've seen in your imagination from the spiritual realm into the natural realm. Those who Master this Weapon, Master the Impossible and carry the capacity to redefine reality!

This Giant of Darkness and this Weapon from Heaven have been engaged in cosmic warfare for time immemorial...

The Giant of Darkness is the Giant of Unbelief.

The Weapon from Heaven is the Weapon of Faith!

The Giant of Unbelief wants to convince you that nothing God has ever said is true, God is dead, therefore there are no promises from God, there is no power of God, there is no reason for hope...

Faith wants to show you God's System for "Building in the Spirit", so that you can live in the fullness of everything God has ever promised you – ruling over the impossible and redefining reality in the image of Heaven!

The Giant of Unbelief has "2 main Lies" that it uses as its "2 main Strategies" to eliminate faith from your life.

It uses the same 2 Lies over and over; challenging every promise that God has ever made!

The Lies are:

1) The promises of God are not real.

The Giant of Unbelief will do whatever it can to discredit God and His word, so that you never develop any hope of living in the promises of God for your life.

If you don't believe that the promises of God exist – you will never awaken the faith needed to bring the promises of God to life...

If the Giant of Unbelief fails to convince you that God and His promises are dead, then it has a backup lie that takes out millions of Christians from living in the promises of God.

The second Lie goes like this:

2) Oh yeah, ok, so that promise is actually real, and it is actually possible for some people to live in the promises of God and that might be the case for some people – but, it is definitely, 100% not possible for you!

The objective of the Giant of Unbelief is to extinguish every trace of every promise that God has ever made you!

If the Giant of Unbelief can't discredit God in your eyes, then it will do everything it can to discredit you!

Wow – did I suck on these lies for way too long!

Do not underestimate the vast influence of the Giant of Unbelief, hundreds of millions of Christians are robbed and destroyed on a moment by moment basis because of the Giant of Unbelief.

This is not a friendly Giant. It is an insidious Satanic entity that wants to bind your family line to a lifeless existence void of every good thing God has for you, void of hope and void of God Himself!

This Giant will leave you powerless to access your inheritance and your destiny and it will most definitely crush your capacity to participate in Seamless Union with the Trinity and the Delight of the Divine Dance...

This Giant will corner you in an abusive relationship and give you such a verbal battering that you will never see yourself worthy of anything ever again – unless, unless you rise up as the Giant Slayer that you were born to be!

Growing up in churches where there were next to no expressions of supernatural power, I found that the Giant of Unbelief had a huge stronghold in my mind that shut down nearly every trace of the supernatural power of God in my life.

It was in the process of breaking free from the powerless mindsets imposed by the Giant of Unbelief that I began to discover a whole new way of living that is infused with the Supernatural power that we need to bring our wildest dreams to life!

I spent 6 years battling the Giant of Unbelief just to bring 1 promise from God to fruition in my life.

For a season of about 6 years I prayed, I read my Bible, read books, listened to tapes, CD's, watched videos, DVD's, fasted and cried out to God consistently just to see 1 promise fulfilled.

At every moment it was the Giant of Unbelief that held back my destiny and starved me of the promises of God for my life.

The promise from God that I was going after was Mark 16:18 "They will lay their hands on the sick and they will be healed."

After around 6 years of struggle with next to no results, I was out praying yet again...

It was late at night. I was outside praying in the dark. Then in that moment God got right up in my face and exposed in my own thinking where I had come into agreement with the lies from the Giant of Unbelief.

For the first time in my life I could see how filled my own mind was with the Strongholds of the Giant of Unbelief.

But now that I could finally see what the problem was - I could fix it. I began to aggressively repent and reject every lie that Unbelief had sold me.

I aggressively took hold of the truth and began to declare it over my life...

About a week later, the power of God began to flow undeniably through my hands for the first time...

I was speaking at a youth meeting and among other things I talked about praying in tongues.

There was an altar call. One young lady came forward wanting to pray in tongues and also wanting healing.

She had a badly injured knee and could barely stand on it. She also had bronchitis and was struggling to breathe and was coughing a lot.

I prayed for her for healing and was not expecting her to get healed. I wasn't used to people getting healed. I was preparing to pray for her for a second time for healing when she interrupted the unbelief racing through my mind ...

"I'm healed!" She said.

"From what?" I asked.

"From everything!" She replied.

Her knee was instantly healed, her bronchitis left, she went from serious bronchitis symptoms to just lite flu symptoms instantly. Her coughing stopped. Her airways cleared. Her face lit up! Then she began praying in tongues for the first time!

After that, miracles began to flow everywhere I went! The streets, shopping malls, meetings, restaurants, jungles, busses, nations, hotels, red light districts, mansions, conferences, villages, people's homes, kids camps, churches and more.

Hundreds and hundreds of miracles...

My whole life, my calling to walk in the footsteps of Jesus had been locked down by the Giant of Unbelief.

Now I was experiencing a supernatural outpouring beyond what I had imagined!

Blind eyes, broken bones, paralysis, deafness, creative miracles, cancer, tumours - health challenges of all kinds were being healed!

I then began to apply a similar process of faith to other promises and desires that I was burning to see fulfilled in my life...

One after the other...

Promises from God that I had previously believed could never happen for me began happening! Dreams, Desires and Destiny beyond what I had imagined broke out around my life!

Through this whole process I have discovered that there's a simple 4 Step Blueprint from Heaven for how to use Faith, to "Build in the Spirit", in order to defeat the Giant of Unbelief and to bring our wildest dreams to life!

Phase 1: A Burning Desire

It all starts where we ended our last chapter – having raw passion and a burning desire!

We just uncovered that when we intimately and intentionally “yada” our wildest dreams in our imagination we open up the vaults of raw passion and unleash the type of burning desire that can literally redefine impossible and reality itself.

Unlocking this burning desire is the first of 4 phases in the process of “Building in the Spirit”.

Those who Master the process of “Building in the Spirit”, Master the process of birthing the promises of God into their lives. If you Master the process of “Building in the Spirit”, you can basically walk into the kitchen in Heaven and help yourself to the limitless inheritance that God has prepared for you!

Ephesians 1:18-20, The Passion Translation

18 I pray that the light of God will illuminate the eyes of your imagination, flooding you with light, until you experience the full revelation of the hope of His calling—that is, the wealth of God’s glorious inheritances that He finds in us, His holy ones!

19 I pray that you will continually experience the immeasurable greatness of God’s power made available to you through faith. Then your lives will be an advertisement of this immense power as it works through you! This is the mighty power 20 that was released when God raised Christ from the dead and exalted him to the place of highest honour and supreme authority in the heavenly realm!

Phase 2: Assurance of Faith

After you have unlocked a burning desire, you must seek God for an assurance of faith.

An Assurance of faith is important for 2 really significant reasons.

Reason 1)

You need to know that this burning desire really is in alignment with God’s will for your life.

Even Jesus sought His Father for an Assurance of faith in the Garden of Gethsemane:

Luke 22:42, NIV

“Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours be done.”

The Father said no to this desire and Jesus was fine with that and walked His road to the Cross for us.

Reason 2)

The second reason that you want and need an Assurance of Faith is that if God is saying yes, to go after this burning desire it is extremely powerful to have a confirmation from God that you are moving in the right direction. An Assurance of Faith will give us great confidence as the storms of Unbelief attack God's promises for our lives.

Years ago as a single man, I sought God for an Assurance of faith that He had me covered for a wife and a family. In response, God gave me a vision of a little girl in a dress, running through a grassy field.

It was just what I needed as an assurance of faith that God would provide for my dream of a wife and family. Quite a few years passed before I got married – but I was content that whole time, simply because of 1 Assurance of Faith.

I now have 2 beautiful daughters!

Genesis 15:1-5 NIV

After this, the word of the Lord came to Abram in a vision:

*“Do not be afraid, Abram.
I am your shield,
your very great reward.”*

2 But Abram said, “Sovereign Lord, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?” 3 And Abram said, “You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir.”

4 Then the word of the Lord came to him: “This man will not be your heir, but a son who is your own flesh and blood will be your heir.” 5 He took him outside and said, “Look up at the sky and count the stars—if indeed you can count them.” Then he said to him, “So shall your offspring be.”

God gave Abram both His Word as a promise and also the stars as an assurance of the promise, so that every time Abram looked at the stars a picture of his descendants would flood his imagination and light him up with a raw passion and a burning desire for the promise of God over his life!

Verse 6 also says:

6 Abram believed the Lord, and he credited it to him as righteousness.

Once you have received an Assurance of faith from God that this burning desire is fully sanctioned from Heaven – then you really get to put your faith to work!

At this point, it's like your dream has been conceived in the Spirit.

It's no longer a possibility, it's a spiritual reality. This requires a real mindset shift. From now on you must perceive your dream as a living reality.

Like any living reality – it requires nurture. If you forget about it for a few months, there's a good chance it will die.

This happens all the time. People get excited about their destiny, they start going all in – then they get distracted and their dream dies.

This sacred aspect of your destiny cannot be treated as a pet or a hobby. It has much greater value than a pet or a hobby. It must be honoured and treated as sacred. Pets and hobbies get daily attention, but it is a rare thing to meet a person who gives more attention to the dreams that they are Building in the Spirit, than they give to their pets or hobbies.

Once you have assurance of faith for this burning desire and God has given it His seal of approval, then you become responsible for a living, sacred dream that is as real in the Spiritual realm as you are in the Natural Realm.

Don't think that the Giant of Unbelief will just give up. The Giant of Unbelief will stalk all your dreams ruthlessly, especially when they are in this vulnerable embryonic state.

The Giant of Unbelief will mobilise a Death Squad against your vulnerable dream. Watch out for verbal attacks on yourself and your dream. Expect that your enemy will be launching a Death Squad. Don't just sit and wait for it to come. Set up spiritual defences with your declarations over your life, your destiny and your dreams!

This is one of my favourite scriptures to declare in the midst of an enemy attack.

Isaiah 54:17

But in that coming day no weapon turned against you will succeed. You will silence every voice raised up to accuse you. These benefits are enjoyed by the servants of the LORD; their vindication will come from me. I, the LORD, have spoken!

But my favourite defence is offense and that's what Phase 3 is all about...

I absolutely love The third phase of Building in The Spirit!

Phase 3: “Framing your Future”

In the Third Phase of Building in The Spirit, major changes and developments unfold in our relationship with our dream.

Once God gives us an Assurance of faith that now is the time to pursue this dream and our burning desire is fused with God’s stamp of approval – everything is different...

This is a significant coming of age moment, when our dream transitions from merely being an idea in our imagination to being conceived as a living spiritual reality.

We too must change in how we relate to our dream. We must go through a transition from seeing our dream merely through the eyes of our imagination to seeing our dream through the eyes of faith.

2 Corinthians 5:7, NIV

For we live by faith, not by sight.

Faith perceives spiritual realities as present tense fact. Faith sees differently to our everyday imaginings and we must transition to seeing our dream through a lens of faith. This is also a process. Building in the Spirit, first builds up our faith and then our dream matures as our faith matures.

Matthew 9:29

Then He touched their eyes, saying, “It shall be done to you according to your faith.”

In this process our faith solidifies and grows as we begin to embrace the transition.

How we think about the dream changes, how we talk about it changes, how we see the dream changes even our responsibility to the dream changes.

An idea that used to just bounce around in our head is now alive.

God now entrusts us with this dream as though it were a beloved child that He was giving us to raise for Him. There’s nothing casual about this, it is a sacred calling, with significant responsibility attached to it. How you steward this dream will significantly impact the favour of God on your life. If you steward this dream as a precious and sacred gift from God you will experience an increase in the favour of God on your life.

Just as the faithful servants in the parables of the talents and the minas, your faith-full-ness will be rewarded with increase. The spiritual momentum on your destiny will increase.

Our dream from God, our cause worth dying for, our burning heart's desire has received an Assurance of Faith from God and it is now as alive in the Spiritual realm as we are alive in the natural realm.

We continue leaning into God for deeper insights into the significance of this Dream and He continues to reveal deeper layers of the significance and the destiny of this dream.

As the picture of the destiny of this dream gets even clearer, we are able to increase the level of precision with, which we “Frame our Future”.

With precious chosen declarations, blessings and words of life we speak life over our dreams and call out our dream that does not yet have any natural substance as though it is a present tense reality.

This is faith at work: calling out unseen promises as present tense realities!

Faith is not faking it... But in it's infancy, it's hard to tell the difference. At first, faith may be as tiny as a mustard seed. Building in the Spirit will turn that tiny mustard seed level of faith into something huge!

Faith in action does not look like a few words casually mumbled in a half-hearted prayer.

We daily declare the richest, most powerful, most limitless, most abundant, most life giving, nurturing and wildly exciting words that we are able to as we “Frame the Future” of this dream. You may wish to write these declarations down in a very serious and official way.

I have “12 Royal Daily Declarations”, that I take very seriously, that I use to “Frame the Future” for my life, my family, my destiny, my dream team and my wildest dreams. This is not the limit of my declarations of faith, it is the foundation of my daily process of Building in the Spirit and Stewarding my Sacred Destiny.

Proverbs 18:21, NIV

The tongue has the power of life and death, and those who love it will eat its fruit.

Building in the Spirit is a process.

Through this process our convictions of faith grow. The spiritual substance, the reality and the momentum of the dream also grows.

Over time our relationship starts to change again as we become even more pregnant with the imminent expectation that this dream is about to be birthed into the natural realm!

Hebrews 11:1 AMP, says:

Now faith is the assurance (title deed, confirmation) of things hoped for (divinely guaranteed), and the evidence of things not seen [the conviction of their reality—faith comprehends as fact what cannot be experienced by the physical senses].

As the sense that this dream really is about to happen and our expectation quietly builds we start nesting, we start doing absolutely everything possible in the natural and the spiritual to prepare for the day of its arrival...

For Abraham, this process of building in the Spirit and framing his future took 40 years! The process of birthing dreams and promises from God is a true adventure, whereby we partner with God and with Faith to call into being impossible dreams birthing them into the natural realm through faith.

Fortunately for Abraham, during his 40 years of birthing his promise from God, he had an assurance of faith. Every time he looked up into the stars – he was reminded of God's assurance of faith that he would have a son and his descendants would outnumber the stars!

Romans 4:17-19, The Passion Translation

17 That's what the Scripture means when it says:

"I have made you the father of many nations."

He is our example and father, for in God's presence he believed that God can raise the dead and call into being things that don't even exist yet.

18 Against all odds, when it looked hopeless, Abraham believed the promise and expected God to fulfil it. He took God at his word, and as a result he became the father of many nations. God's declaration over him came to pass:

"Your descendants will be so many that they will be impossible to count!"

At this point in the process of Building in the Spirit, our faith has now matured to the point that we are fully persuaded that this dream is about to come crashing out of the spiritual realm at any moment!

Because we have taken the time to "Frame the Future" of this dream and to nurture it, it has grown strong and healthy. We can see by faith that this dream has already exceeded our wildest imaginings!

There's 1 more absolutely vital aspect to building in the Spirit...that we must now focus on to ensure that we remain in a constant state of victory and faith, regardless of the attacks of the enemy.

Phase 4: “Extreme Gratitude”

One day as I walked along in the sun, God whispered to me:

“Live every day like all your wildest dreams have already come true.”

That is exactly how we live, when we have faith that our God given dreams already exist as spiritual realities.

This is the final key to building in the Spirit. As you meditate on the dreams that God has promised you, as you see those dreams fulfilled in all their glory by faith in the present tense – practice allowing the greatest, most extreme expressions of gratitude to God that you’ve ever expressed, flood your heart and rise up as incense before the throne of God.

Through faith you are able to express Extreme Gratitude, right now for spiritual realities that you know will one day be established in the natural. This is one of the most powerful expressions of faith and spiritual practices that we can ever engage in.

Extreme Gratitude is always in perfect harmony with the Divine Dance. As you practice Extreme Gratitude there’s a good chance that you’ll find yourself being pulled into the Divine Dance and becoming so overwhelmed by the love of God that you and your faith become as invincible as Abraham...

Abraham was such a Master of Faith, that even when all the facts did their best to defy the promises of God for his life – his faith did not flinch, instead of reacting in unbelief, Abraham’s faith only grew stronger.

The more impossible the promise looked, the more Abraham rejoiced and the stronger his faith grew – until at last, the son that Abraham had seen by faith for 40 years in the Spirit realm was conceived in Sarah’s long dead womb!

Wow! Pause on that for a moment!

What Abraham saw in the Spirit for 40 years finally came crashing out of Heaven and into Sarah’s womb!

Can you imagine the joy, the laughter and the delight that they experienced as they finally held their son in their arms! Tears of extreme gratitude rolling down their cheeks, absolutely speechless in wonder! Overwhelmed with the faithfulness and the goodness of God and completely undone with bliss.

No wonder they named him Isaac, which means: “laughter, he laughs and he will laugh”, which is exactly what they did over and over again as they held Isaac, their long awaited son and their promise from God.

Well – that is what Extreme Gratitude looks like and by faith, that's what our prayer life can look like as we behold spiritual realities as present tense realities. By faith we perceive our dreams not as maybe's but as facts and as we “yada” those dreams by faith, we can experience the joy of that final day of breakthrough a thousand times or more before the day comes that it actually happens in the natural.

Romans 4:19-21, NIV

19 Without weakening in his faith, he faced the fact that his body was as good as dead—since he was about a hundred years old—and that Sarah's womb was also dead. 20 Yet he did not waver through unbelief regarding the promise of God, but was strengthened in his faith and gave glory to God, 21 being fully persuaded that God had power to do what he had promised

To have faith, is to be fully persuaded. When you are fully persuaded that promises like Ephesians 3:20 are a fact for you, a certainty and a done deal - then a lifestyle of Extreme Gratitude is the only way to live!

Ephesians 3:20, The Passion Translation

20 Never doubt God's mighty power to work in you and accomplish all this. He will achieve infinitely more than your greatest request, your most unbelievable dream, and exceed your wildest imagination! He will outdo them all, for his miraculous power constantly energizes you.

As you know there are many other spiritual disciplines that will build your faith, and I encourage you to pursue them all, especially reading your Bible, but there are few disciplines as powerful as the practice of Extreme Gratitude.

Extreme Gratitude really is the pinnacle of “Building in the Spirit”...

Extreme Gratitude, is one of the highest and most powerful Spiritual disciplines. Extreme Gratitude for the things that you perceive by faith is evidence that you are beginning to master the Ancient Heavenly Weapon of Faith and it is evidence that you have slain the Giant of Unbelief.

The Sound of Extreme Gratitude, for the things that you perceive by faith will produce supernatural momentum in the Spiritual realm that releases 2 mind blowing side effects – 1 for you and 1 for your dream.

Extreme Gratitude will position you to joyfully rule and reign in power and love over every challenge that comes your way:

Philippians 3:1 Mirror Translation

The conclusion of your faith is extreme gladness in the Lord. He is your constant reference to bliss! I am not just saying this to be repetitive: joy is your fortress! There is no safer place to be, but to be ecstatically happy!

When you practice Extreme Gratitude your attention is set on God, the sound of Extreme Gratitude is filling the atmosphere, delight is flooding your heart and flooding the atmosphere all around you.

There are few ways to position yourself more effectively to be overwhelmed by the bliss and the ecstasy of the presence of God than to regularly practice Extreme Gratitude.

Philippians 4:4 Mirror Translation

Joy is not a luxury option; joy is your constant! Your union in the Lord is your permanent source of delight; so I might as well say it again, rejoice in the Lord always!

We were designed by God to live overwhelmed by His Presence and love. When we are overwhelmed by God's Glory – nothing else in this world can overwhelm us. We can live above every circumstance and rule over every situation. Regardless of the chaos unfolding around us, when we are overwhelmed by the love and Glory of God we are positioned to rule and reign in power and love over every challenge that comes our way.

The regular practice of Extreme Gratitude, especially for the things that we perceive by faith has always been one of the most effective ways to create an atmosphere where we find ourselves consistently overwhelmed by the Glory of God and invincible in the face of our enemies!

Psalm 27:1-3 NIV

*The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life—
of whom shall I be afraid?
When the wicked advance against me to devour me, it is my enemies and my foes who will stumble and fall.
Though an army besiege me,
my heart will not fear;
though war break out against me,
even then I will be confident.*

The place of Extreme Gratitude unlocks deep intimacy with the Trinity and intimacy with God always releases amazing dreams, insights, creativity, ideas, strategies and wisdom. This will position you to refine your declarations over your dream, it will fuel your faith and it will set you up for victory over the 3rd Satanic Assignment and Giant of Darkness that have been commissioned against your life and destiny!

When it comes to how your dream will be blessed by the sound of Extreme Gratitude, you need to imagine that Extreme Gratitude is like a heat seeking missile in the Spirit.

When you pour yourself out in Extreme Delight God mobilises Heaven on your behalf to release victory over your enemies, to set up divine appointments and divine timing, He literally re-arranges reality on your behalf constructing the circumstances and sequences of events that will divinely orchestrate the fruition of your dreams and the desires of your heart.

Extreme Gratitude is a form of “Delight”. We know that as we release the sound of delight, God fulfils the desires of our hearts but He does that by mobilising Heaven on our behalf as we worship and give thanks.

PSALM 37:4 ESV

Delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

This is exactly what King Jehoshaphat experienced when he was surrounded by 3 great armies that were coming to completely destroy his Kingdom. He made his focus extreme gratitude for a salvation that he had perceived by faith – despite the fact that the enemy armies were already marching to the battle lines.

King Jehoshaphat’s strategy was to place the worship team at the front of the army, to delight in God, to be bold and to have faith.

2 Chronicles 20:20-25, NIV

20 Early in the morning they left for the Desert of Tekoa. As they set out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Listen to me, Judah and people of Jerusalem! Have faith in the Lord your God and you will be upheld; have faith in his prophets and you will be successful.” 21 After consulting the people, Jehoshaphat appointed men to sing to the Lord and to praise him for the splendour of his holiness as they went out at the head of the army, saying:

“Give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures forever.”

22 As they began to sing and praise, the Lord set ambushes against the men of Ammon and Moab and Mount Seir who were invading Judah, and they were defeated. 23 The Ammonites and Moabites rose up against the men from Mount Seir to destroy and annihilate them. After they finished slaughtering the men from Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

24 When the men of Judah came to the place that overlooks the desert and looked toward the vast army, they saw only dead bodies lying on the ground; no one had escaped. 25 So Jehoshaphat and his men went to carry off their plunder, and they found among them a great amount of equipment and clothing and also articles of value—more than they could take away. There was so much plunder that it took three days to collect it.

An insight I received from the Lord through this passage is that there is always a blessing in the blindside. Every time the enemy blindsides us, if we position ourselves in faith, delight and Extreme Gratitude - even while the enemy is marching to the battle lines - believing that there is a blessing in the blindside, we can experience what Jehoshaphat experienced and what Joseph experienced:

In Genesis 50:20 NIV, Joseph said:

You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives.

Here's a Quick re-cap on how to Master the 4 Phases of "Building in the Spirit":

- 1) You must have a Burning Desire
- 2) You must seek God for an Assurance of faith
- 3) You must "Frame your Future" with declarations, this phase includes solidifying your faith, taking ownership of your dream and holding fast as you birth your dream into the natural realm through faith
- 4) You must live in a place of Extreme Gratitude for the dreams that you perceive by faith, giving thanks like Abraham and Sarah as they held Isaac in their arms

Living by faith and not by sight looks like living from another dimension. Everyone around you is looking at your facts, but you are living by faith and the facts are irrelevant in your decision making process. Living by faith and not by sight happens when your faith in God's promise eclipses the facts that defy that God is able to fulfil His word to you.

The impossibilities that were once giants in your eyes become as grasshoppers – when this happens everything changes! But it often happens – little by little...

Through this process of building in the Spirit, it's literally like taking possession of spiritual real estate and building your Wildest Dreams in the Spiritual realm!

As you steward your burning desire and your assurance of faith and begin to declare the promises of God over your life – calling what is unseen as seen and practising extreme gratitude as though all your Wildest Dreams have already come true, something priceless happens!

The “Spiritual Bare Land” you acquired through an Assurance of Faith, starts to have a building appearing on it. Perhaps just a tent to begin with, but as you build in the Spirit your Wildest Dreams become masterpieces and like the father's of the faith you move in and take up residence and you start to live from the conviction that the promise of God is a present reality – it just hasn't been revealed to the eyes of those around you yet.

Michelangelo once said:

“I saw an angel in the marble and I carved until I set him free.”

In 1494-1495 Michelangelo transformed a block of granite into one of the greatest sculptures and most magnificent artistic masterpieces ever created. He said:

“In every block of marble I see a statue as plain as though it stood before me, shaped and perfect in attitude and action. I have only to hew away the rough walls that imprison the lovely apparition to reveal it to the other eyes as mine see it.”

Living by faith is similar – just as Michelangelo carved his Angel out with every action of his hammer and chisel, so too, we carve out our destiny, our Wildest Dreams, our promises from God with every faith based action and declaration!

As we Build in the Spirit, we are literally “Framing our Future”. Everything that we “yada” in our imagination, the burning desires of our heart, the unyielding declarations that we stand firmly on and the extreme gratitude that we are expressing for future realities – all works together to literally “Frame our Future” and redesign our world!

How we “Frame our Future”, how we are building in the Spirit literally frames up and determines the potential of the life and dreams that we will live in the natural.

Living by faith and not by sight requires us to actually move in and take up residence in another dimension. Our attention becomes fixed on the higher realm of faith that has the power to redefine the natural facts and impossibilities.

How crazy must Noah have looked building the arc in a paddock at a time in history before the Earth even experienced rain?

He was living by faith and not by sight. Abraham must have looked crazy believing his descendants would outnumber the stars in the sky when he and his wife were barren. He was living by faith and not by sight. Living from a higher dimension that has the capacity to redefine natural realities.

Building in the Spirit, is being like Michelangelo and carving out your angel, your promises, your destiny, your wildest dreams in the spiritual realm by faith in order to eventually reveal it in the natural.

What's the angel that you will carve that will be appreciated by the generations to come?

What's your angel, your cause, your Wildest Dream that's worth dying for, that's worth building in the Spirit and that's worth investing years of carving out by faith just as Michelangelo carved his angel?

Our next chapter exposes a Giant of Darkness that has never besieged any generation with a greater onslaught than this generation is experiencing right now – I guarantee you can relate and you've almost certainly faced off with this Giant multiple times already today...

There are three stages to every great work of God; first it is impossible, then it is difficult, then it is done.

Chapter 5: What Would Wisdom Say?

Gaugamela, 331 BC

Throughout history, war has been one of the most dramatic contexts to highlight the extreme significance of strategy. Entire nations and empires have fallen as a direct result of strategy. One example is the battle of Gaugamela, which saw the rising of one empire and the falling of another.

The battle of Gaugamela was one of the most epic battles in world history it took place on the 1st of October 331 BC in present day Iraq. Darius the Emperor of Persia and the Commander of the largest army on earth came head to head with Alexander the Commander of the army of Greece, in a battle that would set the course of history.

The fate of two kingdoms would be determined by this single battle. Alexander was risking everything to bring the fight to Darius. If Alexander was conquered Greece stood open for a Persian invasion. If Alexander could conquer Darius in this battle – the entire Persian Empire would be his!

Sources vary regarding the exact size of the Persian army that day, but to quote Colonel Lance Betros, Military History Instructor, USMA, West Point, Darius's army was between 200,000 – 250,000 soldiers. It was one of the largest armies assembled in history up to that time. In contrast Alexander had approximately 40,000 infantry and 7,000 cavalry. These seem to be impossible odds:

Alexander was outnumbered by 150,000-200,000 soldiers!

Darius chose the battlefield and prepared it for his advantage. He had parts of it flattened and placed traps throughout it for Alexander and his men. He created the perfect conditions for his army. However, Alexander was secretly observing Darius's preparations and managed to capture some of Darius' men and find out important information including where Darius had positioned the traps.

Darius expected Alexander to attack by night. He ordered his men to stay up all night in preparation for an attack that never came. While the entire Persian army stood at the ready for battle the entire night, it was rumored that Alexander slept in on the morning of the battle. His troops were well rested, well fed and ready for war!

The Persian army's front line stretched out for over 4 kilometers. They outnumbered the Greeks by 150,000 - 200,000 battle hardened warriors. Defeat seemed inevitable; victory seemed impossible. If Alexander had attacked with a regular strategy on that day, it is likely that none of us would even know his name.

The Persian army were battle hardened veterans who had just successfully created one of the greatest empires in world history. But Alexander was set apart by the wisdom of his strategies. Alexander's understanding and value of strategy caused him to consider every option and every possibility before the battle. He worked harder than anyone else on mastering the wisdom of strategy before his battles so that his battles could be easy.

It was this intense focus and attention to detail, that enabled him to come up with the type of wisdom and strategies that could effortlessly neutralize an army's greatest weapon in minutes, as he did with the feared Scythe chariots. He had been thinking about every strength, weakness, opportunity and threat of the enemy in order to know how he could exploit them. Then he trained his men how to defeat the enemy well in advance of the battle day.

One of the Persians most feared weapons of war were their infamous Scythe chariots. Darius had 200 Scythe chariots, which had large blades sticking out from the hubs of the chariot wheels. These chariots were notorious for massive destruction as they rode through the enemy cutting people down with the blades.

During the battle Darius released his 200 Scythe chariots. What he didn't see coming was Alexander's superior strategy. Some of Alexander's infantry units were assembled in what was called a phalanx. A phalanx was a unit of men positioned sixteen men wide and sixteen men deep. These soldiers carried spears that were 16-18 feet long and small shields. When the chariots charged at the phalanx hoping to cut the men to pieces, the soldiers moved to create a long and wide path for the chariots to run into. The blades did not touch anyone, and the horses stopped their charge when faced with a wall of spears. Then the spearmen either side of the chariots took out the drivers.

Within minutes the 200 notorious Scythe chariots of the Persian army were completely eliminated without having any impact on Alexander's troops. Nearly everything that Darius tried that day failed as he came face to face with the superior wisdom and strategies of Alexander.

Alexander had a precision strategy. Every detail had been considered. Every possible scenario that could kill his dream of conquering the greatest Kingdom on Earth had been meticulously analysed and counter strategies had been developed.

It was Alexander's wisdom, focus, planning and his ability to develop strategy that empowered him to conquer the greatest Empire on the planet with an army of approximately 47,000 men. When faced with the impossible Alexander did not just win, he absolutely crushed the Persians!

He dominated them completely – he made the impossible look easy, because he took the time to focus, and he did the hard work of planning and developing strategy well in advance of the battle. In that single battle Alexander's men killed approximately 50,000 Persians, while losing only 1,000 of their own troops. Being outnumbered by 150,000 – 200,000 veteran soldiers, facing an army up to five times their size and facing some of the most notorious weapons of the day on the enemies home turf was no match for superior wisdom, focus, planning and strategy!

Even when faced with the impossible, Alexander demonstrated that a great strategy can empower an impossible dream to come to fruition. It was after the battle of Gaugamela that Alexander received the title "Alexander The Great". Another exceptional point to note is that Alexander was only 26 years old when he led Greece to victory at Gaugamela over the greatest Empire on Earth. Alexander died at age 32 and in that time, he had conquered the whole known world.

Alexander the Great never lost a single battle. He was victorious in every campaign, in fact he won the most impossible battles, like Gaugamela in style! He made the impossible look easy because he understood the value of taking precision actions with precision timing for precision results.

One of Alexander the Great's keys to victory was having the wisdom to focus, focus, focus! He focused meticulously on creating superior strategies to his enemy before every battle. Once he had mastered a superior strategy everything else fell into place. His superior strategy gave him precision clarity so that at every point he could take precision actions with precision timing for precision results.

Such confidence in his strategies allowed him and his army to implement the strategies with surgical precision and a ferocious boldness!

A less obvious key that positioned Alexander the Great to be victorious in every battle, was that he was fully persuaded that absolutely nothing was impossible.

He had such conviction that nothing was impossible, that fear never clouded or restricted his creativity in the process of creating strategy. Fear will shut you down - especially your creative capacity.

Alexander the Great never once backed down from a battle. Regardless of the odds he was fully persuaded that he would be victorious, but he knew the only way to ensure that victory was to focus, focus, focus! He understood that any battle could be won with the right strategy, so, he made certain before every single battle that he had done absolutely everything possible to focus and to prepare a superior strategy that would guarantee their victory.

There are different thoughts on the cause of Alexander's death, some say he was poisoned others say he died of a fever. Colonel Lance Betros said that if he had to arrange a list of the top ten commanders of all time – the undefeated master of strategy “Alexander the Great” would be his number one commander of all time.

You can be more spiritual than an angel and have greater faith than Abraham and still be completely taken out by the 3rd Giant of Darkness that is brazen enough to hunt you down anywhere and at any time of day or night...

The Secret Poison

This Giant may appear as an angel of light. It may even seem completely innocent. This particular Satanic Assignment against your life is a cunning, deceptive, strategic and tailor-made poison crafted to be administered in small doses that are seldom lethal in the moment. It often tastes delicious, so you'd never suspect it was designed to kill you.

This poison is administered directly to you, openly, in broad daylight and often times you welcome it and drink it with a smile, not realising that long term it is absolutely lethal to your destiny and calling.

You drink down the poison not realising that with every sip, you are tricked into becoming your own enemy and betraying your own dreams!

Meanwhile this Giant of Darkness goes undetected. Sneaking round your house, your workplace, shadowing your every move waiting to administer more tiny doses of its poison as many times a day as possible.

This Giant is the Giant of Distraction! The Satanic Assignment that it has been commissioned to carry out against your life is to ensure that you are busy doing anything, nothing and everything except Focusing on the most Strategic thing!

The 3rd Ancient Heavenly Weapon given to you to defeat the Giants of Darkness is Wisdom.

In our current digital world, surrounded by notifications, updates, downloads, cool videos, global news, lock downs and pop ups we are being assaulted by the Giant of distraction like never before as it relentlessly pursues one of our most precious commodities – our attention!

Wisdom and Distraction both aggressively compete for our attention with 2 completely different agendas.

The Giant of Distraction is focused on smothering the life out of you in every way. It wants to smother your connection with God. Smother your daily schedule with busyness, smother your rest time, smother your work time, smother your relationships, smother your down time, smother your day time and smother your night time.

The Giant of Distraction is trying to get you so busy and so distracted and so engaged with anything, nothing and everything that you are run ragged, stretched to thin, burning the candle at both ends, over worked, burnt out, run down and jacked up to the point that you never do the most Strategic things...

The worst thing that the Giant of Distraction can imagine is you stopping, listening and hearing the voice of wisdom.

Wisdom

Let me take a little poetic licence once again...

Wisdom is like a beautiful Head Mistress of Heaven's Royal Academy of Giant Slayers. She is stunning. She effortlessly captivates every space that she enters. Her perfume is an ever changing symphony of the finest fragrances of every season. She radiates warmth, kindness, strength, gentleness, boldness and an atmosphere of invincibility. Literal waves of translucent light seem to shimmer off her and dance almost invisibly in her wake.

Intrigue, honour, awe, power and reverence encircle her and silently herald her approach as they permeate a room before she enters.

Her full sleeved, full length dress is breath taking. She made it herself, as she does with all her garments. It took over 100 years of Tuesday evening dress making. It is as much a piece of jewellery as it is a dress. It is a one of a kind light silver and white dress embedded with an ocean of dazzling precious stones.

Her hair is so blonde it could be white or it could be blond with pulses of light occasionally passing through it. It is tied up elegantly. Long diamond earrings match her diamond necklace and the jewels themselves sing heavenly melodies as quietly as the sound of breathing, harmonising with every jewel on her dress. Thousands of barely audible heavenly voices release the sound of delight and rise as an incense of worship. As they sing, their colours morph almost unnoticeably in a slow motion dance, softly sparkling and swirling in a cadence with Glory.

Nothing about her is more entrancing than her aqua blue eyes that carry the very heartbeat of Heaven in every glance.

Her eyes are a like double edged sword, because as you look into them, they capture you entirely and an invisible force pulls your focus nearer. You feel as if you could swim in them and discover all the mysteries of eternity. But when Wisdom engages you with full eye contact – nothing you've experienced has ever been more penetrating.

When Wisdom looks into your eyes she reads your entire story. Nothing is hidden to her. You are fully exposed and simultaneously fully embraced. With a single silent glance she has become perfectly acquainted with every moment of your journey.

Then the silence deepens... even her acephala jewellery and the dancing beams of light around her still themselves.

The silence is perfect stillness. Not even your thoughts can move as everything holds its breath with intrigue. Now that Wisdom knows your entire destiny, your past, your present, your strengths, weaknesses and every detail of your story – what will Wisdom say?

Proverbs 8:1-5, 12, 32-36 NIV

*Does not wisdom call out?
Does not understanding raise her voice?
2 At the highest point along the way,
where the paths meet, she takes her stand;
3 beside the gate leading into the city, at the entrance, she cries aloud:
4 “To you, O people, I call out;
I raise my voice to all mankind.
12 “I, wisdom, dwell together with prudence;
I possess knowledge and discretion.
32 “Now then, my children, listen to me;
blessed are those who keep my ways.
33 Listen to my instruction and be wise;
do not disregard it.
34 Blessed are those who listen to me, watching daily at my doors, waiting at my doorway.
35 For those who find me find life and receive favour from the Lord.
36 But those who fail to find me harm themselves;
all who hate me love death.”*

What would Wisdom say to you?

If you broke free from the distractions what would Wisdom say to you?

Here's a few ideas:

Wisdom assesses all the information; past, present and future.

Before Wisdom looks into the future to the moment where you give account for your life, Wisdom looks back to the beginning and considers the full extravagance of the Sacred Destiny and Calling that the Trinity has entrusted to you.

Then Wisdom pierces the deepest recesses of your heart and captures your most authentic, extravagant and precious desires:

Specifically, Wisdom considers what you want the most important moment of your existence to look like...

The moment that you have to give account to God.

That moment that you stand face to face with your maker and give account for every breath you breathed, every action that you took or didn't take, for every word you spoke, for every resource that you stewarded, for the life that you lived and most significantly – how you stewarded the Limitless and Sacred Destiny that was entrusted to you.

Psalm 139:16

Your eyes saw my unformed body; all the days ordained for me were written in your book before one of them came to be.

In a moment, Wisdom weighs on a balance the Sacred Destiny that was entrusted to you, the current Trajectory of your life, your Deepest Hopes and Desires for the moment that you must give account of your life to your Maker and then sits you down for some real talk.

There's no small talk with Wisdom, no excuses, no justifications, no waste, no mucking around and she tolerates no fools. There's in your face reality, brutal honesty, extreme ownership, crystal clear clarity and high stakes consequences and rewards. Her Focus is to raise up Royal Giant Slayers who will do whatever it takes to walk the Narrow Path, the Ancient Highways and walk in the infinite possibilities available in Christ.

Wisdom will test your heart to determine whether or not you are good company for her. If you are – she will challenge you like you've never been challenged before, in order to equip and empower you for your Sacred Destiny!

If you are not good company for her, she will quietly move on and leave you to your own self destructive dysfunction. Wisdom's role is not to be a rescuer.

If Wisdom deems you as good company, she will communicate with you clearly, captivating your Focus and Attention completely, this is what she will reveal:

- 1) Here's the Limitless Sacred Destiny that God has Entrusted to you.
- 2) Here's how you are Stewarding it.
- 3) Here's where that will lead if you continue on your current trajectory.
- 4) If you want to change the destination that you are heading for, then this is what you must do.

If you responded well to that feedback, at a heart level, because Wisdom would see right through your words and thoughts and into your heart, then Wisdom might take you a little deeper.

Before she revealed even another word to you she would demand a commitment from you of the highest levels of Focus and Extreme Ownership that you have ever summoned.

Her price tag is not silver and gold, she already has riches beyond measure – her currency is the highest levels of Focus and Extreme Ownership - she will demand all that you have and more!

Once you have given her a solemn oath, vowing to supply the highest quality of Focus and Extreme Ownership that you have ever attained, she will then and only then take you deeper...

If Wisdom was convinced by your vows, she would begin.

She would begin by demanding her first payment of your Focus immediately.

She would then begin to work with you to create a tailor made Personalised Precision Vision Plan, detailing exactly how to Steward your Sacred Destiny and Dreams into complete Fruition:

The Precision Vision Plan would show you how to dream with God and how to set yourself on fire with passion for the types of dreams worth dying for. She would caution you not to touch any dream that does not set you ablaze with desire.

She would walk you through the process of Building in the Spirit.

Wisdom would teach you how to partner with God to create a Personalised Precision Vision Plan that will provide you with the infrastructure you need to steward your Sacred Destiny and Dreams on a daily basis.

She would uncover every detail of how to mature the dreams that you have birthed through faith into the fullness of the world changing, history making, planet shaking dreams that God saw when He unleashed His limitless power to dream the best for you before the foundation of the world!

She would break it all down for you into achievable bite sized goals that revealed how you could systematically bring your wildest dreams to life!

She would highlight the power of knowing and achieving each days priority tasks.

She would show you the Massive, Consistent and Strategic actions that your Sacred Destiny required on a daily basis.

Then she would get really intense.

She would demand from you the second part of her payment: Extreme Ownership.

At this point she would get through to you on the deepest most soul trembling level that anyone has ever spoken to you on and bring a reality check of where you are right now and the changes you need to make in order to get to where you want to go...

She would then line up for you the high stakes consequences and rewards attached to your Calling and reveal how your success or failure will influence multitudes for generations to come.

Once she has your Focus and your Motivation at a record high she will confront you with the cost and require an immediate commitment from you.

The cost will be great. It will cost you every thought, every behaviour and every distraction that is causing you to betray your own Destiny and Dreams!

You may love some of these things that cause you to betray your own dreams – but for the sake of your Sacred Calling Wisdom will ask you to surrender them.

Luke 9:23-25, The Passion Translation

23 Jesus said to all of his followers, "If you truly desire to be my disciple, you must disown your life completely, embrace my 'cross' as your own, and surrender to my ways. 24 For if you choose self-sacrifice, giving up your lives for my glory, you will embark on a discovery of more and more of true life. But if you choose to keep your lives for yourselves, you will lose what you try to keep.

25 Even if you gained all the wealth and power of this world, everything it could offer you, yet lost your soul in the process, what good is that?

Wisdom does not require a vow of poverty, but she does require a vow of Loyalty. A vow that you will no longer betray your own Destiny by drinking the poisons of Lack, Unbelief, Distraction and Apathy. A vow that you will not be a victim and Focus on what you cannot control.

Wisdom requires that you vow loyalty to your own dreams by Vowing to take Extreme Ownership of your Sacred Destiny and Focusing only on what you can control. Vowing to Dream with God. Vowing to Build in the Spirit. Vowing to maintain your Focus on your Sacred Destiny and Dreams. Vowing to take Massive, Consistent and Strategic Action on a Daily Basis.

If Wisdom is convinced that your Vows are sincere and you maintain your Vows, she will walk with you all the days of your life.

Finally Wisdom, would give you a gift. This gift is the Key to revolutionising your personal world and the world that you live in, it is a Key to overcoming every impossible barrier and to re-designing Earth in the image of Heaven...

The Single Key that Wisdom would give you as her parting gift would be...

Knowing the battle that you are about to enter...

Knowing that the Giant of Distraction is stalking you every minute of every day...

Knowing the significance of your Sacred Destiny on the future of Humanity – the Key that Wisdom would give you is Focus.

Without Intentional Focus it is impossible to steward the Sacred Destiny upon your life.

Focus is one of the rarest but most powerful forces in the world. It is a Force so powerful that it can unleash Divine Destiny and set such a fire on one person that multitudes and nations and history itself will be marked forever through the power of Focus operating through the life of a single person!

The power of Focus is what set Alexander the Great apart from every other military Commander in world history as the single greatest Commander the world has ever seen.

Alexander the Great was convinced that no dream was impossible if you gave it the Focus that it required.

His Focus gave him wisdom and Strategies that shaped history time and time again. At the age of 26 he conquered the greatest Empire in the World. By the age of 32, he had conquered the whole known world.

If you Master the 3rd Heavenly Weapon of Wisdom truly nothing will be impossible for you!

Proverbs 21:22, NIV

22One who is wise can go up against the city of the mighty and pull down the stronghold in which they trust.

Wielding the Weapon of Wisdom makes all things possible, but you will have to count the cost and decide for yourself if you are willing to pay the price required to walk in the fruition of your wildest dreams.

If the answer is yes, you must begin by embracing Wisdom's gift of Focus.

What could Focus produce in your life? Is it possible that the single most important ingredient to bringing your wildest dreams to life – is Focus?

What if increasing your level of Focus, was the most important thing that you needed to do right now in order to make Ephesians 3:20 your daily reality:

Ephesians 3:20, The Passion Translation

20 Never doubt God's mighty power to work in you and accomplish all this. He will achieve infinitely more than your greatest request, your most unbelievable dream, and exceed your wildest imagination! He will outdo them all, for his miraculous power constantly energizes you.

3 Things You Can Do To Immediately Help Upgrade Your Focus

Don't be distracted by the Giant of Distraction. Forget about that guy. Nothing drives the Giant of Distraction more crazy than being ignored.

Instead – give your attention to Wisdom's gift: Focus

When you Focus on your Sacred Destiny all the other facets of Wisdom will naturally follow along. The critical question is how can you increase your Focus when the Giant of Distraction is stalking you day and night?

Here's 3 Things that you can do to immediately to upgrade your Focus:

1: Create a Personalised Precision Vision Plan.

You need to write down your vision. It's very difficult to Focus on a Vision that you have not written down.

Habakkuk 2:2, BSB

Then the LORD answered me: "Write down this vision and clearly inscribe it on tablets, so that a herald may run with it."

For over a decade I have travelled throughout New Zealand and Internationally, teaching on Vision. When I ask audiences who has actually taken the time to write down their Vision and create a Strategic Plan for how they are going to bring their wildest dreams to life and steward their Sacred Destiny, almost no one in the audience has ever done it.

Sometimes you get people who have written down some goals. But creating a comprehensive Personalised Precision Vision Plan is extremely rare. I think if people realised how much it is costing them not to have a Precision Vision Plan they would create one immediately.

One of the big prices you will pay for not having a Precision Vision Plan is that you are extremely vulnerable to the Giant of Distraction.

A Precision Vision Plan gives you a massive, crystal clear “YES!”. Without a Massive “YES!”, you are vulnerable to a Massive Distraction. Most people are easily conquered for the Giant of Distraction. To completely knock you off track from your Destiny, the Giant of Distraction doesn’t even have to convince you to do anything bad.

Perhaps all the Giant of Distraction needs to do is convince you to take on another little hobby, or serve and help out in another ministry, start another project or, or, or, and, and, and, plus, plus, plus...

All of a sudden you find yourself doing something, nothing and everything apart from the one thing that you were truly born for!

If you have said a Massive “YES!” to your dreams and taken the time to clearly write down your Vision, your strategic plan, your goals plus the precise priority actions that you need to take to make those goals happen it becomes so much easier and clearer to recognise when you need to say a Massive “NO!”

Without a Personalised Precision Vision Plan you could be distracted until the day you die and then have the most terrible experience of regret as you face your Maker and discover just how much of your Limitless Destiny you wasted.

Nehemiah had said such a Massive “YES!” to the Assignment on his life that it was easy to recognise when he needed to say a Massive “NO!”.

Nehemiah 6:3, NIV

And I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work and I cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and come down to you?”

I think one of the main reasons why people don’t create a Personalised Precision Vision Plan is because we often don’t know where to start. I totally get that!

Even as someone who has taught and written about vision for years and even as a Life Coach I could get lost if you told me just to grab a pen and paper and write down my vision and create a Personalised Precision Vision Plan.

It really is quite a complicated process if you want to do it well and it’s very easy to get lost in.

Because this process is so difficult for most people, I invested a colossal amount of time and energy into creating a series of Simplified, Systematic Templates and Training Videos called The 40 Day Focus Package.

In The 40 Day Focus Package I walk people through an in depth step by step process that provides all the Templates and Coaching a person needs to create their very own Personalised Precision Vision Plan! I recommend it as a 40 Day Process, but it's entirely self-paced.

The Feedback I'm receiving is truly life changing for people and there's few things more gratifying for me than watching people walk into their long standing dreams quickly once they get Focussed!

I'm not trying to do a hard sales pitch here at all, but I am fully persuaded that this resource will add enormous value to your life! Normally The 40 Day Focus Package is a $997 Life Coaching package, but I really want to make this available to people, so right now I'm doing something pretty crazy and basically giving it away for just $NZ37. If you have access to another Systematic approach to developing a Personalised Precision Vision Plan already that's great. I created this resource for people that need help with that process and you can access The 40 Day Focus Package by copying and pasting this link: www.thescienceofdreams.com/focus

I don't want people to have to keep on struggling with the process of creating a Personalised Precision Vision Plan, so, I hope this resource can be as helpful to you and your family as it has been to so many others.

My aim is not to sell a Package – my aim is to see you take Extreme Ownership for the level of Focus in your life. I don't believe that a person can honestly say to themselves that they have taken Extreme Ownership for their Wildest Dreams and the Sacred Call of God on their lives if they haven't even created a Personalised Precision Vision Plan.

The opportunity at hand here is huge! By creating a Personalised Precision Vision Plan, slaying the Giant of Distraction becomes incomparably easier than ever before and you will find that lost dreams, dead dreams, stuck dreams and new dreams start coming to life one after the other as soon as you Master Wisdom's gift – Focus!

Ok, so to re-cap that, the first way to immediately upgrade your focus levels is to write down your Vision and create an in depth Personalised Precision Vision Plan.

If you fail to plan, you are planning to fail!

Benjamin Franklin

2: Create a Priority To Do List

Once you have written down your Vision and you have created a Strategic plan the next step will always be to take Massive Consistent Strategic Action!

Having a Priority To Do List is a great way to keep you Focused on your priority tasks for the day, week or month.

It's also a fantastic way to eliminate time wasting and build a strong sense of momentum every time you tick off a job from the list!

In 1906, an Italian man named Vilfredo Pareto, recognised and coined the 80/20 principle. He realised that 80% of the land in Italy was owned by about 20% of the population. He began to discover other places that the 80/20 principle also applied.

One area that the 80/20 principle often applies, is on our daily to do lists. 20% of our activity often produces 80% of our returns. Pareto referred to the 20% as the vital few and the 80% as the trivial many. Will you engage in the 20% - the “vital few” activities that will bring you success? Or will you be distracted by the 80% - the “trivial many”, which will ultimately rob you of your dreams?

If you have 10 tasks on your to do list for the day, it is often true that 2 of those tasks will bring you the greatest reward for your effort – Pareto refers to those tasks as the “vital few”. One of the keys to bringing your dreams to life is being able to identify the “vital few” tasks that you need to accomplish on a daily basis. If your Vision, Strategy and Goals are out of focus, your priorities will be too.

P.S. I have Templates, Videos and Step by Step Training in the 40 Day Focus Package that walks you through the entire process of putting all these things in place as a part of your Personalised Precision Vision Plan. If you are creating your own Personalised Precision Vision Plan, make sure to include these in the process.*

People with vague goals end up with vague to do lists. A vague to do list will betray your dreams by causing you to engage with the “trivial many” at the expense of the “vital few”. Over time this can kill any dream.

A person with vague goals might get 8 of the lowest priority jobs done each day and feel like they’ve really achieved something. Unfortunately engaging with the “trivial many” at the expense of the “vital few” results in a lifestyle of maximum effort for minimal reward.

In contrast a person who is focused on their Personalised Precision Vision Plan will have a clear understanding of, which “vital few” tasks they need to accomplish each day. They might spend 80% of their time on the “vital few” tasks for the day and only get 2, 3 or 4 things on their to do list finished. However, engaging with the “vital few” rather than the “trivial many” is a system for success, which produces a lifestyle of maximum reward for maximum effort!

Because they consistently choose the highest priority objectives, their productivity will be far greater than the person with vague goals who is busy all day long accomplishing low value objectives.

Over a week this makes a big difference. Over a month it makes a huge difference. Over a period of years, it is the difference between the life or death of our Wildest Dreams. Setting specific and measurable goals consistently over a lifetime can literally be the difference between the life or death of your wildest dreams.

So, when you make your Priority To Do List – identify, “the vital few” tasks, which will give you the highest return. Often, the highest reward tasks are the hardest, so people avoid them not realising how much that will cost them in the long term – in more ways than one!

One of the first things you can put on your to do list is:

Fast Distraction – Feast on Focus!

Where are the really easy opportunities for you to substitute a Distraction for Focus?

Having tasks of all sizes on your to do list, will mean that if you only have a few minutes between tasks you can grab a really small job off your list to do, instead of wasting that time on a distraction.

Just the fact that you have a Priority To Do List causes you to re-Focus on your vision every time you look at the list.

Another simple option is post it notes. Put post it notes in strategic spots that are going to help you re-Focus on your wildest dreams and your Sacred Destiny multiple times a day! God would have given the Israelites the same idea it they had post it notes back then:

Deuteronomy 11:18-21, NIV

Fix these words of mine in your hearts and minds; tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. 19Teach them to your children, talking about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. 20Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates, 21so that your days and the days of your children may be many in the land the Lord swore to give your ancestors, as many as the days that the heavens are above the earth.

3: Create Community

Like-minded people on the same journey are always priceless! Here's a few ideas for how you can create community to help you upgrade your Focus levels...

Share this free book with a few friends and use it as a conversation starter to talk about your Sacred Destiny and your Wildest Dreams together. People can get quite chatty when you ask them what their wildest dreams are... and these deep conversations can spark a very powerful and fresh momentum on your dreams.

Do The 40 Day Focus Package with a few friends or your home group or your church... I don't even mind if you buy it once and then share access with your crew. Or do something Vision related with your crew.

Now, not everyone is fortunate enough to have a group of people around them who want to increase their Focus levels. You could join a group Online. If you haven't got many ideas or options, we do have The Online School of Sonship where hundreds of like minded people are gathered together. We pray, do training and chase after our dreams together.

This does have a cost to it as well, it's normally $1,497 for Lifetime access and we are actually still charging the regular fees – but for people reading my book I am basically giving it away right now. So, it's only $NZ197 and the value of what you get is absolutely wild even at full price!

Again, I'm not trying to be all “salesy”, but I am trying to give you some ideas, options and a crazy good offer to help you out if you need them. So, if it sounds like a good fit and you love ridiculous deals, where you get to save $1,300 then The Online School of Sonship could be just what you need to really start launching some big dreams! What Would Wisdom Say To You?

Let's bring it in tight as we wrap up this Chapter.

Proverbs 8:10-11, NIV

*10 Choose my instruction instead of silver, knowledge rather than choice gold,
11 for wisdom is more precious than rubies,
and nothing you desire can compare with her.*

If Wisdom's vibrant aqua blue eyes pierced your soul completely - exposing you and embracing you to the core of your being, while she searched out your Sacred Destiny, your Deepest Desires, the Trajectory of your life and then weighed them all in the balance...

...if she held you silently, face to face in her timeless gaze...

When she eventually broke the silence what Priority Actions would Wisdom say you need to take right now?

Chapter 6:

The Distance Between Dreams

A Final Giant To Slay

You've been dreaming with God and your heart is ablaze with a Vision worth dying for! You've been building in the Spirit and by Faith you are birthing your wildest dreams into the natural realm! You have embraced Wisdom's Call to Focus, Focus, Focus and you have created a phenomenal Personalised Precision Vision Plan and you are supremely confident in your next best steps!

You have been slaying the Giants of Lack, Unbelief and Distraction as you train with the Ancient Heavenly Weapons of Imagination, Faith and Wisdom...

Only one brutish Giant of Darkness stands between you and becoming a Master of "The Science of Dreams"!

This is the ugliest, dumbest, rudest, laziest, scabbiest, nastiest, most bad mannered, most selfish and self-absorbed, most foolish, most unhealthy, most casual, messiest, trashiest, sweatiest, greasiest, dirtiest, most ignorant, deplorable, slobbish, disgusting, slime covered, stench infected Giant of all.

This Giant is absolutely horrible it has the worst attitude, the worst temper, the worst language, the worst smell, the worst hygiene, the worst punctuality, the worst everything and absolutely nobody – not even the other Giants of Darkness want to be anywhere near this vile creature.

The only thing this Giant of Darkness does well is oppress, suppress, depress and repress any person, any atmosphere and anything that it comes close to. It's like an enormous cloud of sludge that oozes it's way into a room and releases its misty putrid essence onto everything in its proximity.

This Giant of Darkness has crawled out of the darkest, most filthy, scum infested pits of Hell and has been Commissioned to fulfil the 4th and the grossest Satanic Assignment against your life, which is to give you and your whole world an extreme makeover in its own disgusting image!

This Giant is the Giant of Apathy and it has been commissioned to make you weak willed, lazy and stupid!

The Ancient Heavenly Weapon designed to slay this Giant is the Weapon of Boldness! The Giant of Apathy wants to come upon your life and make you weak-willed, lazy and stupid, but Boldness will make you mighty to take Massive, Consistent and Strategic Actions that re-design your world in the image of Heaven and bring your wildest dreams to life!

The only way that the Giant of Apathy has any chance at influencing anyone to become as gross as it is, is by applying a very deceptive, very long term, very long range strategy and coating it's specialised, slow release poison with all sorts of fantastic sugary delicacies and false promises!

No one in a healthy Mental, Physical and Spiritual state of being would ever choose or desire or agree to become like the Giant of Apathy. Even the thought of it is so repulsive it could make you sick.

Therefore the Giant of Apathy attacks people's Mental, Physical and Spiritual state of being with a maniacally twisted scheme that it hatched in one of Hell's darkest corners. A plot so evil but so genius that it has created one of the biggest cult followings in our modern world.

The dark strategy of the Giant of Apathy relies entirely on bringing it's victims into the most broken state of degradation, despair and desperation imaginable until ultimately it's victims even give up on life itself. The Giant of Apathy has developed its hideous craft slowly over thousands of years refining every aspect of its traps, poison, weapons, bait, false promises and every kind of trauma, dysfunction, chaos and perversion it can lay its hands on.

At this point, we need a brave volunteer, someone strong, young vibrant and full of life and hope. We need to use their name for the sake of the illustration – thanks, I see that hand we will take the name “Chelsea” as our volunteer... thanks for being our pretend volunteer today Chelsea!

(The pretend audience gives a little clap.)

One of the leading and foundational lies that the Giant of Apathy starts out with is the idea that truth is not absolute, truth is relative. My truth is true for me and your truth can be true for you.

It wasn't too difficult for the Giant of Apathy to get the lovely Chelsea to believe that. But unbeknown to the beautiful Chelsea, the moment that she came into agreement with that lie she took on a major aspect of The Giant of Apathy's stomach churning image.

After Chelsea came to believe that truth is relative, the awful sluggish beast, the Giant of Apathy convinced her that her feelings defined truth. So she begins to let her feelings lead her in her life decisions.

At this moment the Giant of Apathy knew he had his victim right where he wanted her. As long as Chelsea let her feelings define her reality, she would be the Giant of Apathy's slave.

Chelsea's only hope was to tell her feelings the truth. But the Giant of Apathy would ensure that never happened! He would seduce her with poisonous lies and supply a thousand voices to echo a twisted amen to her delusion. As far as the Giant of Apathy was concerned – Chelsea was another run on the board!

When really hard challenges started coming up with friendships, at work, in family and with money the Giant of Apathy suggested that it would feel better if she avoided dealing with those hard situations. That felt like a better option than the really hard choice of dealing with some big issues.

Then some painful circumstances from her past came up and Apathy encouraged her to avoid that too. The Giant of Apathy promised her that life would be better if she went for instant gratification a little more often, because that would definitely make her feel a lot happier. She thought that seemed like a good idea too.

After a few years of avoiding hardship and pain and embracing instant gratification she was so weak willed that it was almost impossible for her to commit to anything. Facing anything that was difficult, challenging, painful or uncomfortable became an unbearable feeling. Quitting and avoiding painful and hard things become her status quo.

She started avoiding disappointment, by not getting her hopes up too much. Discipline was definitely too much hard work. Another thing that she also mastered avoiding was correction – what a nasty feeling that one was!

As Chelsea looked at herself in the mirror, it was impossible for her to see anything that reminded her of the strong, young, vibrant, full of life and hope young lady that she had been just a few years ago.

She didn't know when, but at some point in the last couple of years her feelings that had been leading her life decisions had now turned against her.

She constantly felt like something was intrinsically wrong with her. Her sense of loneliness was growing deeper and more constant. She finally acknowledged that she was starting to hate being herself and the first waves of depression were beginning to lap at her feet.

That's when the Giant of Apathy came to her rescue again – he offered her just a small amount of something special. A drug that he knew was perfect for her that would, "Just take the edge off that pain".

The chemicals exploded through her blood stream and from that very first taste she knew she was hooked! At last she was happy again! For a moment anyway. Her happiness was expensive. She was broke. Her growing depression began to be eclipsed by her desperation.

The Giant of Apathy had waited years for this moment. She was nearly where he wanted her. She still had a few dregs of hope and self-respect remaining, but he knew there was no way that they could survive what he had coming up next!

It was like Chelsea no longer existed. It seemed like there was nothing left of who she had been, as everything about her was now eclipsed by a raging addiction and no way to fund her cravings. The Giant of Apathy came to her rescue again! He ran a few ideas past her of how to raise some quick cash. It would be a secret and just a one off to help her get back on her feet.

For the first time, she disagreed with this voice that seemed to appear in her mind every time things got hard or painful. She wasn't interested this time. But it was too late for Chelsea. She was now so weak willed and had so little self-respect left that there was no way she could resist the storm of abuse that the Giant of Apathy rained down on her for rejecting his well-intentioned ideas!

Chelsea was now a world of chaos!

Psychologically she crossed a line when she reluctantly said yes to the quick cash idea. Her depression evolved to despair and she knew that she could not live any longer with this unending pain that was gnawing at her soul from the inside out. With the cash in hand, walking down the busy city street, with the night life buzzing around her - she hit rock bottom.

She raced to get her fix...

On the way she saw something that haunted her.

A young lady caught her eye; she was strong, vibrant and full of life and hope. For the first time in a long time she remembered what hope felt like and it seemed for a fleeting moment, like a beautiful dream.

But as soon as she felt the cash in her pocket, her overbearingly painful reality crashed over her again. Against all the odds, somehow a tiny seed of hope remained, like a lone star on a cloudless night.

The Giant of Apathy, watching as always from the shadows saw the glint of hope appear in her eye and his jaw dropped in amazement. He had not seen hope like that in her for years and this was supposed to be the worst and possibly the last night of her life!

He looked again and there it was plain as day! Something wasn't right and he wouldn't stand for it. He began to craft something special for Chelsea.

Right then, Chelsea heard a sound that seemed to jump right inside her heart and instantly pull her into a café music gig. Her feet started walking before her brain had even realised what was happening.

It was warm inside, she was immediately offered a free coffee and as she sat in a comfy couch with a warm mug in her hands. The music seemed to wash her cleaner than she had ever felt in her whole life. She was so captivated by this music that she wasn't even aware that her craving had vanished.

Almost in a trance, she closed her eyes and let the music wash right through her. Silent tears streamed beautifully down her face. She had no words for what was happening but it was the most wonderful experience of her life.

After a long time, the music transitioned and someone began to speak about a God who loved her. Every word was absorbed straight into her Spirit like water on thirsty ground. As they spoke, she listened with her eyes closed and this loving Father in Heaven that they spoke about made Himself and His love more real to her than anything she had ever known.

Chelsea knew there was no going back, for the first time in her life she had come home and she would never turn back. Her beautiful journey into the Bliss of Sonship had begun in the most spectacular way.

When she opened her eyes to see who was speaking – she saw something that surprised everyone...

The speaker was you!

There you were walking in your Sacred Destiny!

You were a pure expression of love. The Presence of God rested on you so powerfully that you seemed to radiate like Wisdom herself. There wasn't a dry eye in the room as the tangible love of God had baptised every heart in Heaven's finest love. You flowed so effortlessly as you spoke that you seemed to be carried along by the Divine Dance.

Chelsea wasn't the only person who unexpectedly walked themselves into the café that night. Miracles, signs and wonders were a regular occurrence around your life. Dozens of people had walked in off the streets and the encounters that they had with the love of God in that moment marked them for the rest of their lives.

Miracles flowed all through the room, without a prayer being prayed. Heaven's weighty atmosphere of love, peace and joy filled every corner of the room. The Presence of God that rested on your life turned up like this everywhere God sent you. You were a walking revival.

Thousands of lives had been set ablaze with the love of God as people chatted with you, hung out with you, bumped into you in the street, shared a conversation at a dinner table or heard you speak somewhere.

As you left the café that night, you wept silently too. You cried the same tears of Extreme Gratitude that Abraham and Sarah had cried thousands of years ago. You wept for joy because of every life that God had touched that night.

You wept for joy because at one point you did not believe that your wildest dreams really could come true. But as you surveyed your life in that moment you were living in a world overflowing with fulfilled dreams that you could previously never have imagined.

The impact of the fruition of your dreams on your life, your family and the lives of those close to you, meant more to you all, than you could ever put in words. The tears of joy continued sliding down your face.

Beyond that your fulfilled dreams were impacting lives all over the world every single day. It was now impossible to quantify the impact of all your fulfilled dreams. At every stage in the process God expanded your capacity to outdream darkness and the dreams you were now dreaming for truly were:

“infinitely more than your greatest request, your most unbelievable dream, and exceeded your wildest imagination!”

The tears of joy mixed with a gentle laughter and your lips curled up into a smile as another wave of Extreme Gratitude flared up like a bonfire in your heart.

The Distance Between Dreams

The distance between where you are right now and the fulfilment of your wildest dreams is measured in action. Take the wrong actions right now and you can become your own worst enemy and never walk in the dreams and calling you were born for. Take the right actions and you can step into the infinite possibilities available in Christ Jesus!

Right now, is the time to take Extreme Ownership of every single action that you are taking or failing to take – because your Sacred Destiny literally hangs in the balance...

4 Ruthless, Calculated Giants of Darkness are scheming and plotting Lethal Attacks against you at every turn.

The cosmic struggle over your Destiny is real.

Your success or your failure will impact more lives than you can imagine.

All of Hell is terrified of you walking into your Destiny and they are raging against you.

All of Heaven knows the Limitless power that burns inside you and they Champion you towards Victory.

The time to decide if you will front up with whatever it takes to bring your wildest dreams to life is now.

The time to decide if you will devote yourself wholeheartedly to Mastering the 4 Ancient Heavenly Weapons is now.

You were born for this moment.

You are on the verge of your greatest breakthrough.

Now is your time to arise.

You are now only 1 Weapon away from completing “The Science of Dreams” – the Weapon of Boldness!

You have grasped the Weapon of Imagination, that enables you to Dream with God. You have stepped into a Faith that enables you to Build in the Spirit. You have embraced Wisdom’s call to Focus, Focus, Focus and create a Personalised Precision Vision Plan.

You are now ready to wield the Weapon of Boldness and to take Massive, Consistent and Strategic Actions that build in the natural what you’ve birthed from the Spiritual!

As you learn the art of Mastering Boldness and taking Massive Consistent Strategic Actions you will eliminate every trace of the influence of the Giant of Apathy in your life. This Giant is so low and so despicable that victory over all its schemes in your life tastes extra sweet!

Time to Slay a Nasty Giant!

Before we go forwards here, we must go back and check the foundations of Focus, because if they aren’t right you risk betraying your own destiny.

Random actions betray your dreams. They build momentum in the wrong direction. Engaging in random actions is like playing Russian roulette with your own dreams. Random actions are the opposite of precision actions. Precision actions breathe life into your dreams and build momentum towards the better brighter future that you have been dreaming of.

Most people live counterproductive lifestyles. They have dreams, which they are working hard for but at the same time they betray their own dreams as they are distracted by random activity.

Random action is a betrayal of your own dream; random action is taking a step in the opposite direction of your own Destiny. For most people, random action is their default setting.

How do I know this?

Because random action comes from random planning and precision action comes from precision planning.

Do a survey of the people in your world: family members, people you went to school with, friends in your sports team or from social contexts and ask them if they have ever taken the time to sit down and spend hours investing themselves in developing a Personalised Precision Vision Plan detailing exactly how they plan to bring their wildest dreams to life?

You will find that even a lot of the people who you consider are very successful have never done this – but imagine if they had?

What could have been possible if their lives had been lived with precision planning that produced precision actions with precision timing producing precision results day after day, month after month, year after year?

I guarantee you the world could have been a better brighter place! Every dream that dies has collateral damage. There are always people like our imaginary friend Chelsea or my good friend Marina in desperate need at the other end of our God Given dreams...

The reason there's so many people like Chelsea in desperate need in this world is because so few people have developed the Focus required to create a Personalised Precision Vision Plan. As a result, they are easily distracted by anything, nothing and everything except the one thing most vital to bringing their dreams to life.

People don't engage in strategic planning because they can survive without it.

You could survive without strategic planning too. But the world has waited too long already for a Generation of Christians to step out of Survival and Step into their Sacred Destiny and Calling.

Of all the hundreds of millions of Christians in the world – if we had 10,000 truly walking in their Destiny – we would set the world on fire and turn it upside down for Jesus in next to no time at all!

This is not a book about “How to Survive and Live an Average Life Without Ever Tasting Your Destiny”

Written by Everyone Ever Who Settled For Average.

“The Science of Dreams” is about Conquering every Satanic Assignment against your life! It's about Mastering Heavenly Weapons of Warfare and completely dominating every Giant of Darkness that is coming at you seeking your destruction!

It's about going way beyond what anyone has ever said is possible and unleashing the limitless possibilities available in Christ as you walk in the Sacred Destiny that God saw when He unleashed His limitless power to dream the best for you!

In the words of Paul:

Philippians 3:12-14 AMP Classic

12 Not that I have now attained [this ideal], or have already been made perfect, but I press on to lay hold of (grasp) and make my own, that for which Christ Jesus (the Messiah) has laid hold of me and made me His own.

13 I do not consider, brethren, that I have captured and made it my own [yet]; but one thing I do [it is my one aspiration]: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead,

14 I press on toward the goal to win the [supreme and heavenly] prize to which God in Christ Jesus is calling us upward.

The Chinese bamboo tree germinates from a seed and then requires a great level of nurture in order for it to become what it was created to be.

It must have a constant supply of food and water. After a whole year of watering and fertilising it would appear that the Chinese bamboo tree is doing nothing but consuming resources.

After a second year of dedicated cultivation, the bamboo tree still does not even break the surface of the soil.

A third year passes, and it still appears that this bamboo is simply a colossal source of resource consumption. Yet another year of attentive watering and nurturing passes and this plant still has not even broken through the soil.

For five years the Chinese bamboo tree invests itself in developing the infrastructure for massive exponential growth. For five years the Chinese bamboo tree develops its root system and builds its energy reserves in preparation of massive action.

After five years of hidden development the bamboo tree finally breaks through the surface of the soil and within six weeks it grows 90 feet/27.4 meters! On average that is over 2 feet of growth a day! But did it grow to 90 feet/27.4 meters in 6 weeks or 5 years? Realistically it took five years, but the five years of preparation allowed for exceptional, exponential growth!

Like the Chinese bamboo tree, you will first have to engage in developing a secret system for success. Initially it may look like you are not getting much done as you invest yourself in a season of strategic planning and preparation.

But this season of developing your own Personalised Precision Vision Plan is preparing you for massive exponential growth! You will have to take great care in this time of hidden development to nurture the strategic planning process. It will need water and nutrients every day. You will have to be relentless and extremely attentive to the details involved in the strategic planning process.

But it is worth it!

Every moment of preparation is worth it for the Chinese bamboo tree when all of a sudden out of nowhere this giant bamboo tree explodes onto the scene and almost instantaneously becomes a giant on the landscape! It will be worth it, when your strategic planning empowers you to step into your wildest dreams...

It will be worth it when you start to see your dreams coming to life at an exponential rate!

The Chinese bamboo tree prepares itself for five years so that everything is ready for its moment of massive action. When it finally takes action, that action is precision action. There is absolutely nothing random about it.

This is its moment!

Every detail is taken care of. The root system to sustain a 90 foot/27.4 meter tree is in place. The energy reserves and all the resources required are in place. The plan is in place. The objective is clear. The focus is precise. The moment that it is time for action, that action is passionate, precise, powerful and massive! Within six weeks of breaking through the soil, the Chinese bamboo tree stands as a giant on the horizon.

Investing yourself into the fine details of developing your Personalised Precision Vision Plan prepares you to Master the Weapon of Boldness as you launch into Massive Consistent and Strategic Action!

Your strategic plan will clarify your priorities, it will focus your attention, it will unlock your passion, it will help you avoid significant hazards and setbacks, it will help you critically analyse your plans and results and it will direct your focused energy into the highest priority tasks at hand.

Developing a Personalised Precision Vision Plan will fast track you on your journey towards the fulfillment of your dreams by empowering you to take precision actions, with precision timing for precision results on a daily basis.

Whatever you have to do to create a Personalised Precision Vision Plan – do it!

You cannot honestly say to yourself that you are taking Extreme Ownership for your Destiny if you don't even have a plan.

I know that it's not normal to have a Personalised Precision Vision Plan – but it's also not normal to live out your Wildest Dreams. It's time for a brave new normal that produces a viral outbreak of fulfilled dreams that redesign Earth in the image of Heaven.

You know that I have all the Templates and Training available to walk you step by step through an in-depth process of creating a Personalised Precision Vision Plan in The 40 Day Focus Package. It's available at this website: www.thescienceofdreams.com/focus

I don't know where else you can get a resource like The 40 Day Focus Package – but it doesn't matter, where or how, what matters is actually investing some serious time, effort and resources into creating a Personalised Precision Vision Plan so that you are perfectly set up for success when the moment comes for you to be like the Chinese bamboo tree and explode into action!

The difference between life with a brilliant strategic plan and life without a strategic plan is the life or death of your wildest dreams.

Developing a strategic plan is hard work. So, if you only want to do what is easy in life then there's no option but to give up on your Destiny.

Hard work is the air that your Destiny breathes.

If you want your life to be hard then just do what is easy! A life full of regrets, full of average, full of normal, full of more of the same old status quo, full of unfulfilled dreams, disappointment, addictions, broken relationships, wasted talent and potential is easy to accomplish. Just do what is easy and you can shack up with the Giant of Apathy and have all of those things in abundance!

But if you know you are truly ready to draw a line in the sand and end your days of oppression under the influence of the Giant of Apathy – it's time to make a Personalised Precision Vision Plan.

It is hard work to develop a strategic plan. It will take you hours and hours of soul searching, vulnerability, planning, research, resources and straight hard work. But putting in the hard work to develop a strategic plan is a system for success that can empower you to see your wildest dreams come alive!

“Do what is easy and your life will be hard. Do what is hard and your life will become easy.”

Once You Have a Plan it's Time for Massive, Consistent, Strategic Action!

A Personalised Precision Vision Plan is required to activate the full power of the 4th Ancient Heavenly Weapon – Boldness! Once you have that in place it is game on!

You have eliminated every influence of the Giant of distraction and the pathway into the call of God now stands clearly before you. You are ready to take your next best steps into the call of God with precision and an unstoppable boldness!

Proverbs 28:1, NIV

The wicked flee though no one pursues, but the righteous are as bold as a lion.

Taking Massive Action

The road to your Destiny is so fraught with enemies, challenge, hard work, pain, disappointment, betrayal, frustration, risk and battle after battle... that the only chance you have of bringing your wildest dreams to fruition is to Boldly, wholeheartedly go all in with the type of passion sparked by someone who has discovered a cause worth dying for!

This is the Narrow Path and it is not for the faint hearted.

Those who only have a casual value or a casual approach to their calling will be completely destroyed by the force of their enemies.

A casual attitude doesn't stand a chance before the Giants of Lack, Unbelief, Distraction and Apathy. For the Giants of Darkness a casual person is their favourite victim. They can effortlessly ruin the dreams of a casual person to the point that they end up living under so much deception that they don't even realise they are completely conquered by the enemy and missing out on the purpose they were born for.

The only hope of Slaying these Giants is to unleash the fire!

When God forged you before the foundation of the world He placed seeds of Greatness in you that would empower you to overcome every obstacle and enemy that would ever stand before you - but those seeds of greatness can only be germinated and activated to their full potential by a certain type of fire.

That is the fire that comes when you cross a threshold in your own mind and become fully persuaded that you are ready and willing to do absolutely whatever it takes to follow Jesus into the fruition of your Destiny!

At that point – a fire begins to burn in the deepest part of your soul and it awakens the power of the seeds of greatness within you causing an unstoppable force of Boldness to explode to life within you...

You become the Storm!

No longer will it be you running from the Giants of Darkness, but such a furious momentum will infuse everything that you do that darkness will scatter before you!

The lifestyle, the world and the powerlessness of a casual attitude will become a distant memory – the oppressive influence of the Giant of Apathy will be completely shattered off your life and out of the ashes of casual will arise a Warrior baptised in fire, weaponised with the 4 Ancient Heavenly Weapons of Imagination, Faith, Wisdom and Boldness!

As you step back onto the battleground of Destiny with furious Boldness ready and willing to do whatever it takes, pay any price, slay any Giant, move any mountain and overcome any adversity – Heaven and Earth will shake! Giants will fall. Captives and Prisoners will be set free. Darkness will be decimated. Heaven will come.

This is the realm of Boldness!

Matthew 16:24, NLT

Then Jesus said to his disciples, “If any of you wants to be my follower, you must give up your own way, take up your cross, and follow me.”

Being a follower of Jesus is not about avoiding pain, avoiding hard work, avoiding risk or avoiding persecution – being a follower of Jesus is about following Him into our Destiny! Into the fight, into the pain, the hard work, the risk, the persecution into the midst of every impossibility and every Giant of Darkness that rages against us and defies the promises of God and boldly taking our stand on the word of God and in faith Decreeing and Declaring that every impossibility and every enemy will bow the knee to the name of Jesus!

Following Jesus is about taking a stand in a world where chaos is running rampant. It's about Dreaming with God for a better brighter future! It's about being like Abraham and looking beyond the facts and impossibilities and believing the promises of God above the contradictions and holding fast to our faith as we birth spiritual realities into the natural realm!

It's about rising above the noise of distraction, embracing Wisdom and putting all our Focus on the Assignment, the purpose and the Call of God on our lives so that we can prepare ourselves to Boldly take Massive, Consistent and Strategic Action!

It's about Slaying Giants of Darkness and tearing down whole armies of impossibility!

Romans 8:37, TPT

37 Yet even in the midst of all these things, we triumph over them all, for God has made us to be more than conquerors, and his demonstrated love is our glorious victory over everything!

The way of Christ, is the way of the Warriors, the way of Giant Slayers. The way of the Heroes of Faith, the Way of those who partner with God to outdream Darkness. The way of those who Rule and Reign over the Impossible.

Joshua 1:5-7, NIV

5 No one will be able to stand against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you. 6 Be strong and courageous, because you will lead these people to inherit the land I swore to their ancestors to give them 7 “Be strong and very courageous.

You are Destined for greatness, for victory, to be mighty in faith, to be pure in heart, to be of great courage – but none of these things can be attained without struggle.

There can be no Giant Slayers without Giants to Slay! There can be no Heroes of Faith without great resistance to God’s promises. There can be no miracles without impossibilities!

We were Purpose Built to be victorious over the struggle!

Matthew 19:26, NIV

Jesus looked at them and said, “With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

There is Divine Purpose in the struggle. Your Sacred Destiny is not just about achieving something, it is also about becoming something.

This is the highway of the Cross. It’s the highway of becoming love and nothing is more beautiful, more priceless or more painful because the full force of love can only ever be revealed in the face of pure hatred and evil.

Jesus revealed the fullness of the Father’s love for humanity on the Cross and gave us the purest example of what love looks like that humanity has ever seen.

Through every stage of the journey to the grave and back Jesus demonstrated the full force of love:

When He was betrayed – He kept his love on!

When He was mocked – He kept his love on!

When He was tortured – He kept his love on!

When He was crucified – He kept his love on!

Through it all Jesus never avoided hard things or pain.

He did whatever it would take to reveal the Father's love to us and the only way to reveal such a pure, unconditional and wildly extravagant love that could not be compromised or conquered was to go to Hell and back!

Through it all His love never flinched

1 John 3:16, NIV

This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters.

I call betrayal the “Beauty of Betrayal” because it is a mandatory part of the process of becoming a perfect expression of love. You must be betrayed, persecuted, hated and rejected to have the opportunity to love your enemies. It is only in this space that the scene is set to demonstrate to the world the true nature of the love of God.

This means that carrying our cross will demand that we do hard things and painful things in order to achieve what we were created to achieve but also to become who we were created to become.

Jesus said:

Matthew 16:24, NLT

“If any of you wants to be my follower, you must give up your own way, take up your cross, and follow me.

This requires a mindset that is committed to doing whatever it takes. If we follow in Jesus footsteps it could literally mean a journey to Hell and back!

One thing is certain – the standard for Biblical Christianity is a 100% all in commitment to doing whatever it takes to follow Christ!

When God unleashed His limitless power to dream the best for you – before you were ever born, He included the struggle!

He knew the struggle was necessary to reveal the greatness, the courage, the love, the faith, the light and the power that He placed in you before the foundation of the world.

The call of God on our lives was not just designed to be hard, challenging, painful, fraught with danger, demanding and surrounded by the Giants of darkness – it was designed by God to be absolutely impossible!

It was designed to bring us to a place of complete surrender and dependence on God.

Just like Abraham and Sarah – their destiny was completely impossible and they could only step into the impossibility of their destiny and the promises of God for their lives by going all in!

They were plunged into an impossible calling but every time they looked at the stars they were surrounded by promises from the God of the impossible

2 Corinthians 1:20, NIV

For no matter how many promises God has made, they are “Yes” in Christ. And so through him the “Amen” is spoken by us to the glory of God.

Romans 8:31, TPT

So, what does all this mean? If God has determined to stand with us, tell me, who then could ever stand against us?

Taking Massive Consistent Action

It can't just be a one off short burst of intensity. The Giants of Darkness are used to that. They'll just step aside for a moment, watch you burn yourself out and then finish you off. It's easier for them to deal with a victim of burn out than it is to deal with a casual attitude.

Your Massive Actions must be calculated to allow for long term Consistency.

By ensuring that your actions are long term and consistent you will receive 2 major benefits:

Benefit 1) Will Power

Massive Action embraces every difficult task, every discipline, every early morning, every sacrifice and it never avoids pain. It confronts disappointments and runs into every challenging circumstance with a resolute will to do whatever it takes.

Over a long period of time this develops a strength of will power that can be produced no other way.

This will power or tenacity, character, testicular fortitude or endurance grows in the trenches of relentlessly turning up day after day to do whatever it takes to make your dreams happen.

It's not glamorous, but it's one of the most powerful attributes that anyone can ever develop and it will benefit you in every area of your life and especially in every area of “The Science of Dreams” and Mastering the 4 Ancient Weapons from Heaven.

Having been deeply involved in the process of personal transformation, Pastoring, Life Coaching and vision training I have observed many different people's journeys, their struggles and failures.

Through a desire to understand how to help people get the change they are looking for, I have done a huge amount of research and also self-reflection.

One specific question I have had for years has been:

Why do so many of my people in our generation fail so consistently to perform tasks, disciplines and actions that I found almost effortless to achieve?

After a long time of journeying with people I made a surprising discovery.

As a child and through my teenage years I grew up on an organic market garden. My parents were Pastors but the farm was the family business. Being organic, we didn't use chemical sprays on weeds. That meant that on top of all the other jobs involved in running the farm, we had about 7 acres of crops that had to be continuously weeded all year round.

That's a lot of weeds – especially when you are doing everything you can to create optimum growth conditions and everything is flourishing!

That meant that my entire childhood I was never short of having the opportunity to do hard things! From the time I was 6 years old I was spending hours at a time weeding and working on the farm.

Rain or shine. Burning hot or freezing cold. Early morning or late at night. On the farm we just had to do whatever it took to get jobs done – all year round. Year after year.

Sometimes I regretted it. I didn't always enjoy it. It was definitely hard and often painful. Doing everything by hand. Bending over for hours at a time. Washing vegetables at dawn in finger numbing, near freezing water – the lists of jobs were endless.

But now, I couldn't possibly be more grateful – because I realise now that developing a great work ethic and doing hard things repeatedly as a child and teenager helped me to overcome the Giant of Apathy as an adult!

Now when counselling or training people on how to bring their dreams to life, one of the most crucial recommendations that I have for people is:

“Do hard things!”

Do hard things: as hard as possible and as often as possible, embrace hard things, embrace pain and in the process you will develop the power of an unshakeable will.

The Giant of Apathy is ruining a generation right now by constantly leading people to avoid hard things and to avoid pain knowing that if they live like that they will become easy victims with weak will power and no self control.

2 Timothy 1:7, NIV

For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline.

I see this so much in this generation as they face addictions to drugs, porn, eating disorders, self harm – the list of self destructive behaviours goes on and because our culture and specifically the Giant of Apathy encourages people to avoid hard things and avoid pain, people often have very little will power or self discipline when they need it the most.

I see it in Christian couples trying to protect their purity and values before marriage – those with will power achieve this easily. Those without will power fail continuously.

As a parent now I understand the value of getting my kids to do hard things as often as possible! As an adult I now appreciate all the countless opportunities to do hard things that I received as a child.

One of the best ways to train yourself as a Giant Slayer is to get out there and embrace doing hard things!

If you fail in this one area of will power alone, the Giant of Apathy can destroy your entire Destiny!

Millions, more likely billions of dreams in this generation are heading straight for the grave right now because people have underestimated the vital necessity of developing an unshakeable will.

If all you had was an unshakeable will, that would be enough to make all the changes required in your life to start bringing your Wildest Dreams to life!

But if an unshakeable will is the only thing you are missing you don't stand a chance against the Giants of Darkness!

If you truly are all in on bringing your Wildest Dreams to life and running in your Sacred Destiny then you must fight with everything you've got to develop an unshakeable will!

It starts now. It starts with embracing pain. It starts with embracing hard things. It starts with you deciding that you are going to do whatever it takes!

Benefit 2) Sustainability

Massive Action must be Consistent Action to ensure that your success is Sustainable.

The objective of your Massive Action is always to produce change of some sort. When you are planning your Massive Actions, you need to consider Sustainability. If your Actions are not Consistent, the change will not be Sustainable.

Break your Massive Actions down into an army of Incremental Sustainable changes to ensure that your gains are long term! Think big and think Long Term – by thinking “Incremental and Sustainable.”

For example, like many good wives, my wife got busy changing our families diet around. She especially wanted to reduce our sugar consumption. I’m thankful she didn’t just throw all the sugar out in an instant, because it wouldn’t have lasted and I would have gone on a sugar binge.

But little by little, we have embraced a reduced sugar diet. It’s been incremental, little baby steps, but we have been able to consistently and majorly reduce our sugar intake over the last ten years “little by little”.

As you go out and smash tiny goals it will eventually produce dramatic changes!

Exodus 23:29-30, NIV

29But I will not drive them out in a single year, because the land would become desolate and the wild animals too numerous for you. 30Little by little I will drive them out before you, until you have increased enough to take possession of the land.

Something that has really helped me when embracing incremental change is “Micro Commitments”. That often looks like starting with just 5 minutes a day and expanding from there.

What new disciplines or habits do you need/want to form? Could you make a “Micro Commitment” of 5 minutes a day to this discipline that has the power to redesign your entire reality?

A practice becomes a habit. A habit becomes a reflex. A reflex becomes a lifestyle. A lifestyle becomes a State of being.

This is an area where we must take Extreme Ownership of our mindsets, behaviours, results and lifestyles. I have one empowering question for you to consider:

What action, that you know will take you closer to your dreams - are you unwilling to initiate?

A victim mindset will justify all the reasons why you aren’t, can’t and shan’t take action...

Extreme Ownership, like Nike says will:

“Just Do It!”

Imagine with all your mind. Believe with all your heart. Achieve with all your might.

Anonymous

An example of how a victim mindset responds to being confronted about not doing what it takes to bring their Wildest Dreams to life is:

“I’m too busy.”

This is just lying to yourself that leads to procrastination and no progress.

An example of how Extreme Ownership responds to being confronted about not doing what it takes to bring their Wildest Dreams to life is:

“I haven’t made that a priority in my life yet.”

Then Extreme Ownership, follows through by making a commitment to change, even if it’s a “Micro Commitment” Extreme Ownership takes action!

Advance as conditions permit. If conditions do not permit – create those conditions.

Anonymous General.

Taking Massive Strategic Action

American President Dwight Eisenhower once said, “Plans are worthless, but planning is everything.” This saying has everything to do with timing and the unexpected, dynamic nature of life. The value of planning is priceless and critical.

But goals, strategies and plans need to work for you and not against you. When your circumstances change unexpectedly you may find that your original plan is ineffective or even counterproductive at this time.

What was a brilliant strategy yesterday could be a recipe for disaster today.

This does not mean that you should forget about planning. If you forget about planning, then the Giants of Distraction and Apathy will take you out of the game in no time.

When circumstances change, significant pieces of your vision, strategy, goals and action plans may have to change in a single moment.

I set my vision in jelly not concrete – because your vision is there to serve you not oppress you and if the world changes you may have to change with it in a hurry!

I'm writing this in December 2020. This year the world has shifted like never before with Global Lockdowns, border closures and more changes than anyone could have imagined possible. Nearly every person, business and organisation in the world has had to pivot in some way in order to survive in the context of dramatic global changes.

Those who can't adapt may not survive!

Mike Tyson a World Champion Boxer said it like this:

“Everyone has a plan until they get punched in the mouth.”

When that happens, you must collect yourself. Take stock of the situation you are in and immediately pivot your strategy to ensure that you are not engaging in random actions that will take you even further away from your dreams.

Jesus had a simple, powerful system for doing this on a moment by moment basis:

John 5:19, NIV

19 Jesus gave them this answer: “Very truly I tell you, the Son can do nothing by himself; he can do only what he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does.”

When we participate in the Divine Dance like Jesus, we can receive moment by moment strategy updates from the Trinity.

My whole life revolves around this dynamic of doing “Only what I see the Father doing”.

I take my Vision, my goals, my strategy, my action plans, my priority to do list from the Trinity on a moment by moment basis. The wonderful thing about that is that they give me prophetic Strategy Updates.

In around June 2019, the Trinity said to me:

“Clear the decks or I’ll clear them for you.”

They were specifically speaking about all ministry, conferences and missions’ trips that we had planned for this year - 2020.

We cancelled everything!

Things we’d been running for years – everything for 2020 got cancelled in 2019.

All mission trips. All Schools. All Conferences. We cancelled events and programs that had been in motion for well over a decade - based off a whisper from the Trinity.

Then they even told us to leave the church we had helped to plant, the ministry we had been building for over a decade, the town we lived in, to sell our property and just like Abraham our family was sent out with no specific directions as to where he was sending us.

Nothing in our world made sense except that we knew we were walking in obedience.

He also led us to transition everything online. Ministry. Business. It all went online before the end of 2019.

Because we had no idea where we were going, we home schooled our 2 oldest kids.

It wasn't until the Lockdown hit our world finally made sense and we were perfectly positioned to thrive in the midst of it all.

When we participate in the beauty of the Divine Dance, then just like Jesus – we have the capacity to receive moment by moment strategy reports from Heaven that can lead us through every storm, every blindside, every tragedy and every unexpected circumstance that we face in life.

During the World Series baseball game between the Oakland Athletics and the San Francisco Giants at Candlestick Park in San Francisco in 1989 an earthquake with a magnitude of 6.9 on the Richter scale struck the city. Because of the media coverage around the city for the baseball game it was the first earthquake to be caught on live TV.

The Loma Prieta earthquake also known as the World Series Quake struck at 5:04pm on October the 17th. It caused 63 deaths, 3,757 injuries, over 8,000 people became homeless and $US5.6-6 billion worth of damages. It was a total disaster and it immediately changed everyone's priorities to survival for themselves and others.

If your plan was keeping your shop or your restaurant open and doing some great business after the game, then what was initially a great plan is now a life threatening activity. Buildings had collapsed, fires were breaking out, many fires were being fueled by gas leaks, road infrastructure had collapsed and if you were there you had quite possibly just lost your home. If your priorities, your plans, your strategies and your actions don't shift with your changing life experiences your excellent plan could become the source of your own demise.

Instead of a weekend of great business for people, it was time to shut up what was left of the business. It was time to start making a new plan regarding immediate safety, getting water and finding somewhere to sleep if you or your family were among the 8,000 people who had instantly become homeless. If you didn't adapt your plans to the situation then your survival was in great danger.

Many people's dreams die for this very reason. They develop a great vision, with a great strategy, great goals and excellent planning before they launch into massive action – but all of your plans can become worthless if your circumstances change.

Your planning however remains priceless. When your circumstances change it is time to adapt your plan. You may only need to make a slight adjustment to the plan, but the value of a plan is determined by how effectively it serves your dream.

The Loma Prieta earthquake caused $US5.5-6 billion worth of damages. Is it possible for anyone to use the momentum of an earthquake that devastating to their own advantage? Yes absolutely – get into construction or supplying materials for the rebuild. Sometimes a circumstance, which we think will destroy us may actually only destroy our plan in its current form. A slight adjustment to your plan at the right time can turn a tragedy into a triumph.

When we make a plan, we set key priority tasks. But these priority tasks must remain flexible, because we have to balance our priority tasks with the circumstances around us. If our priorities are not flexible, it can be to our disadvantage. Our priorities must revolve around our changing circumstances because the timing of our actions dictates their success.

Having said that, maintaining flexible priorities is not an encouragement to neglect the vital few priorities at hand. Mastering Strategy requires us to master the ability to evaluate all of our dreams, goals, strategies and tasks at hand while simultaneously closely monitoring our changing circumstances. By doing this we are able to accurately assess, which tasks are the genuine priorities of the day and then Boldly launch into Massive Strategic Action and complete those tasks.

Mastering Strategy is not just about avoiding disaster but also making the most of opportunities presented in the midst of change, chaos and blindsides. Every Strategy must revolve around precision timing. It's possible for the timing of your actions to have more influence on your success than the actions themselves.

One area that this is clearly showcased is financial investments. Timing is the biggest influence in any investment. I want to share a historical story about timing that is surrounded by mystery. As I have researched this story, I have found seemingly reputable sources claiming facts, which are in direct contradiction to one another. I have found some claims, which are obviously not true regarding possibly the shrewdest investment in history.

I'll share some of the perspectives and let you make up your own mind or do further research if the story interests you. We will start with some of the undisputed facts of this story, which began in a Jewish ghetto in 1744, Frankfurt, Germany with the birth of Mayer Amschel Rothschild. Mayer became a banker with a vision to expand his banking empire, which he accomplished through his five sons, whom he stationed in five of the most influential financial centers in Europe. His sons were: Amschel stationed in Frankfurt, Salomon stationed in Vienna, Nathan stationed in London, Calmann stationed in Naples, and the youngest Jakob stationed in Paris.

Between them they developed the most advanced postal and transport system in Europe. Through this system of couriers, they were able to transport goods, information and gold across the continent with great efficiency. Nathan moved to London in 1798.

Not long after this in 1802 the Napoleonic wars broke out, which lasted intermittently until November 20, 1815. The Rothschild's were heavily invested in the Napoleonic wars. They provided finance to nations to fund war campaigns. Nathan financed Britain, while simultaneously Jakob who was based in Paris was discreetly funding Napoleon.

Nathan was contracted by the British government to take gold to the British troops under the control of The Duke of Wellington. Transporting gold during war was a great risk, but they received generous commissions for the work and their courier system worked very efficiently.

The battle of Waterloo was fought on Sunday the 18th of June in 1815 near Waterloo in present day Belgium. Napoleon versus Britain and the Prussian army. In a closely contended battle Britain and Prussia defeated Napoleon. Here is the part of the story surrounded by some mystery.

Some people claim that Nathan Rothschild was at the battle watching and once he saw that Napoleon was defeated raced back to London. This version is almost certainly a fabrication. A more likely version of events is that one of Nathan's couriers named Rothworth was stationed at the battle to see the outcome and then report back to London as quickly as possible.

Some people claim that Rothworth made it back to London a full 48 hours before Wellington's courier, others claim it was 24 hours. Either way the majority of sources that I found claimed that Nathan's courier was at least 24 hours ahead of Wellington's courier. Here's where the story gets even more mysterious.

Multiple places claiming to be reputable historical sources completely contradict each other on aspects of this part of the story. Some claim that with the news of Wellington's victory Nathan began to sell all his bonds on the Stock exchange. These bonds were Fixed Loan Contracts with the British Government, with contractual returns they were all worth astronomical fortunes and whoever controlled the majority of these bonds, or Government Debt would have enormous control in the Government itself.

If Napoleon conquered London, he would not honour any of these contracts and they wouldn't be worth the paper they were printed on.

When people realised that Nathan was selling his priceless Bonds, they assumed that his networks had supplied him with information from the battle and the aristocracy of England began to sell their bonds in the fear that Napoleon was about to march on London and they were about to lose generations worth of family fortunes.

Once the price of bonds hit rock bottom Nathan bought all the bonds that he could, entire family fortunes, at a fraction of their original value. Other sources claim that Nathan didn't cause a crash in the market. What is certain is that at this time, Nathan spent a fortune on bonds at rock bottom prices and later sold them for an enormous profit.

This quote from Nathan Rothschild in 1810, 5 years before Waterloo, “buy on the sound of cannons, sell on the sound of trumpets”, highlights his investment philosophy. For Nathan Rothschild the most influential factor for investing was timing.

Having researched a range of conflicting perspectives it is hard to be certain of exactly what happened in the 48 hours after the battle of Waterloo in 1815. Every source that I viewed claimed a monopoly on the truth of the subject.

I want to highlight that Nathan Rothschild went to London with 20,000 pounds of investment capital in 1798, by the mid 1800's the Rothschild's were the wealthiest family in the world and some sources claim that at that point in time they controlled half of the wealth in the world through their international Banks and other portfolios. They were happy to fund both sides of wars and made immense profit from war.

I don't endorse what seems to be shady methods but a principle that Nathan Rothschild understood well is that the timing of your Actions can often have more influence than the Actions in themselves.

Once you are convinced of your Strategy it is time to go all in, to do whatever it takes and to Boldly take Massive Action!

Operation Thunderbolt

Please note, a range of sources all claiming to be legitimate give slightly varied numbers and information for some of the details mentioned below. I have attempted to find the most trusted accounts where multiple sources provide slightly conflicting numbers and details.*

On Sunday the 27th of June 1976, Air France flight 139 departed Tel Aviv for Paris via Athens with 188 passengers on board and 12 crew. At Athens a further 58 passengers boarded the A300-B airbus. Shortly after takeoff four armed hijackers who boarded the flight in Athens took control of the plane and 254 hostages. They forced the plane to change its course and head for Africa. While refueling in Benghazi, Libya the passengers faced extreme heat in the plane on the tarmac.

A young lady named Patricia Martel pretended to be pregnant and pleaded with the hijackers to let her go as she feared a miscarriage. They agreed and released her in Libya. They then continued on and landed in the middle of the night at Entebbe Airport, Uganda. At that time Uganda was under the control of military dictator and notorious mass murderer and tyrant - President Idi Amin.

The hostages were moved to the old out of use airport terminal building and kept under armed guard. The hijackers made their demand: $5 million and the release of over 50 Palestinian militants held around the world. If their demands were not met, the hostages would receive severe and immediate repercussions. The deadline for their demands was 2:00pm on Thursday the 1st of July. People all around the world feared for their survival.

On Monday the 28th of June international efforts to negotiate appeared to be failing.

On Tuesday the 29th of June, all hostages with Israeli citizenship or dual citizenship were separated from the other passengers. The French captain and crew chose to remain with the Israelis. On Wednesday the 30th of June the hijackers released 47 non-Israeli hostages. They were immediately flown to France and were interviewed by Mossad, the Israeli Secret Service.

In Israel, anxious relatives of the hostages invaded Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin's private residence to urge him to negotiate. On the deadline of Thursday the 1st of July Israel entered into negotiations and received an extension until Sunday the 4th of July and 101 non-Israeli hostages were released. 105 hostages remained under armed guard. The families were terrified and the whole world was watching the unfolding emergency.

From the moment the news of the hijacking was received the Israeli Defense Force (IDF) began planning possible military options. With the extremely short timeline and the huge logistical challenges involved a precision military action was not an option. Entebbe airport in Uganda is approximately 2,500 miles or 4,000 kilometers from Israel and to get there they would have to fly through large areas of enemy airspace.

Considering the timeframe, the formulation and execution of a precision military option was not realistic. However, the moment that the time extension was granted an extremely high risk military action became an option.

The IDF had developed a rescue plan; it seemed impossible, irresponsible and reckless – but they believed it was the best course of action available. It was to be led by Lieutenant Colonel Yonatan (Yoni) Netanyahu. The IDF shared their plan with the government and waited for their verdict.

The nation's leaders began to discuss, debate and deliberate on the best course of action. This was not just considered a military decision but a moral decision. Finally, on Saturday the 3rd of July the cabinet approved “Operation Thunderbolt”. Within a few hours’ planes were in the air.

The IDF dispatched four Lockheed C-130 Hercules transporters carrying vehicles, soldiers and a large medical team. They flew at an average of 30m above the ground to avoid radar detection as they passed through enemy airspace.

At 23:00 hours on Saturday July the 3rd, under the cover of darkness the first Hercules approached Entebbe Airport like a regular commercial aircraft. It landed without raising any suspicions. As it moved down the runway troops discreetly leapt out with beacons to light the runway for the remaining planes in case the runway lights were turned off. The Hercules continued to drive down the old runway before turning around.

Once the Hercules had turned around and opened its rear door two Land Rovers and a Mercedes Benz drove out of the plane. They were exact replicas of the Ugandan Presidential motorcade.

Inside the three vehicles were 29 Commandos from the Sayaret Matkal division. The Sayaret Matkal is equivalent to the U.S. Delta force or the British Special Air Service (S.A.S.). As they approached the old terminal building where the hostages were held, two armed Ugandan guards challenged the motorcade. They were immediately shot with silenced pistols.

However, one of them got up. An order was given, and he was shot again with a machine gun. The sound of the machine gun rang out across the airport. The element of surprise was gone, but the Sayaret Matkal Commandos proceeded to storm the terminal building under heavy gunfire from the Ugandan army.

One unit assigned to the rescue of the hostages burst into the building where the hostages were held. The gunfight with the terrorists lasted only minutes. Seven of the terrorists were killed. Three others escaped. Three of the hostages were caught in the crossfire and died during the assault. Lieutenant Colonel Yoni Netanyahu was also shot and killed. 101 hostages were set free.

One other hostage Dora Bloch, aged 74 fell sick during the hostage situation and was taken to a hospital. She was left behind. When President Idi Amin heard of the rescue, he ordered her execution. Years later her family returned to Uganda and took her body home to be buried beside her husband.

Only 7 minutes after the first Hercules landed and the raid had begun 2 more of the Hercules planes landed. As they anticipated the runway had been shut down. They activated their beacons and guided the planes in.

Once they landed each Hercules opened its back door and out drove two armoured personnel carriers. The four armoured personnel carriers positioned themselves to prevent further Ugandan troops arriving.

Once the area was secure some of these units proceeded to another part of the airport where the Ugandan MiG fighter jets were parked. (I saw several different reports on the actual number of MiG fighter jets that were stationed at Entebbe, it seems that there were approximately 11.) To prevent an aerial counter attack they destroyed them all.

The Israeli soldiers eventually overcame the Ugandan forces. Then the 4th Hercules landed and pulled up outside the old airport terminal building. The hostages were rushed onto the plane. The other three planes were waiting at the end of the tarmac, engines running and ready for takeoff.

They began to refuel for the flight home, but they were running out of time to escape. Ugandan reinforcements were on their way. At the very last minute the Kenyan government gave permission for the Israeli planes to refuel in Nairobi, so they departed Entebbe immediately.

All the hostages and all the vehicles loaded up and took to the skies. 57 minutes from the time the first plane landed they were all airborne and on their way home. They refueled in Nairobi, Kenya where a number of the wounded were treated by the medical team before departing for Israel.

They all arrived safely back into Tel Aviv just after midday on Sunday the 4th of July. Spontaneous celebrations erupted all over Israel! The IDF had successfully conducted the most logistically challenging and daring hostage rescue in history!

Operation Thunderbolt was renamed Operation Yonatan in honour of Yoni Netanyahu, their Commander who died during the rescue. Yoni was the older brother of Israeli Prime Minister, Benjamin Netanyahu.

Operation Yonatan is an extreme example of taking Massive Strategic Action, which empowered a seemingly impossible dream to become reality. The Massive Strategic Actions of the IDF saved the lives of 101 hostages who many believed were going to be executed. Only two years before hand in a similar hostage situation in Ma'alot in Israel, terrorists killed 25 hostages including 22 children with guns and grenades and injured another 68 people.

Many feared that the hostages taken to Entebbe would never survive. The seemingly impossible dream was that mothers and fathers would see their children again. That husbands and wives would be reunited. The dream was that loved ones would return home safely.

But simply dreaming would not save these lives, reunite these loved ones or bring this seemingly impossible dream to pass. What they needed was Massive Strategic Action!

The life or death of your Wildest Dreams is also at stake right now, hanging precariously in the balance, all of Heaven is on the edge of their seats watching with great anticipation – their only chance at survival, what they desperately need right now is you to Master “The Science of Dreams” and take Massive Consistent Strategic Action!

The distance between your dreams and reality is action.

Conclusion

Choose this day...

God gave me this poem when I was 19, in the same way that He gave me this book. It was just in me and I had to get it out. I wrote this poem in about half an hour, because it was “in me”. I wrote the first draft of this book in 5 days because it was “in me”.

I would like to share this poem with you because it has been a source of courage to me all these years. I have found that every single season of my life has demanded great courage often times the demand for courage has been greater than the level of courage I seemed to possess. This poem has helped bridge that gap for me.

I pray it does the same for you as you step into a season the is demanding immense courage:

I want to take this moment as we conclude to honour the Trinity for giving me this book and giving me the ability to write. It is an honour and a delight to co-create with the Trinity from the context of the Divine Dance. I also want to thank my wife Alanna and our three amazing kids; Ezra, Zoe and Aaliyah for being the most priceless and delightful, adventurous fun filled family and for creating the space for me to effectively disappear and write for 5 days. I love you all with all that I am!

Bold Enough To Lead Them

As from a foetus seed I grow,
My mystery unwinds.

In caverns of the soul,
One seeks but seldom finds.

Burning coals and ashes,
To kindle to a blaze.

A brightness bold enough,
To lead them through the maze!

In caverns of the soul,
I sought and now have found.

Tongue of fire in the deep,
Is with heart and soul intertwined.

Aloft the torch to carry,
Shedding light upon the blind.

Forging from the future,
A road since light from man concealed.
Although the journey's never ending –

It has come:
The blaze must be revealed!

Right now I'm thinking of all the lives like our pretend friend Chelsea. The people like Marina at 14 years old who haven't yet discovered that they are as loved as loved can be and whose lives are under full scale assault.

I'm thinking of people that haven't had the opportunity to experience the love of God. Whose lives and families and Destinies are being robbed, killed and destroyed by Satanic Assignments and by the relentless attacks from the Giants of Lack, Unbelief, Distraction and Apathy...

I'm also thinking of you.

I'm thinking of your calling to be swallowed up in the most wonderful love of the Divine Dance.

I'm thinking of your calling to Dream with God and to outdream the darkness in this world.

I'm wondering, what will you do with the "Science of Dreams"?

I'm wondering, what will you do with the 4 Ancient Heavenly Weapons of Imagination, Faith, Wisdom and Boldness?

I'm wondering if you'll be one of the many that God is raising up in our Generation to re-design their lives and our world in the image of Heaven?

I'm wondering how many people just like Marina will never be the same because you choose the Narrow Path of Extreme Ownership?

I'm wondering how future Generations will be impacted by the Legacy you leave as you begin to unlock the infinite possibilities available in Christ Jesus as you step into your Wildest Dreams and the Sacred Destiny upon your life?

I'm wondering how you will respond to the challenge to embrace hard things, to embrace pain, to carry your cross and to do whatever it takes?

Because it all rests on a choice... and most of all I'm wondering what choice you will make?

Joshua 24:15, NIV

15But if serving the Lord seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

My prayer is that you will discover the love of God in a deeper, wider more beautifully consuming way than ever before.

My prayer is that you will have the courage to take Extreme Ownership over every aspect of your life.

My prayer is that you will be empowered to Dream with God and "yada" your dreams that are worth dying for, in a way that awakens an unstoppable force of passion that will burn in your heart night and day!

My prayer is that your Faith will grow beyond measure as you conquer impossibilities, just like Abraham and Sarah by building your Wildest Dreams in the Spirit.

My prayer is that Wisdom will walk with you all the days of your life and that as you Focus on your Personalised Precision Vision Plan you will have unprecedented clarity that enables you to complete the “vital few” tasks every day that are guaranteed to unleash your Sacred Destiny.

My prayer is that you will become such a force of Boldness, taking such Massive, Consistent and Strategic Action that the Giants of Darkness will fall before you as you advance relentlessly into the life that God saw when He unleashed His limitless power to dream the best for you!

It has been an honour to share this journey with you and I look forward to seeing the impact that you will have on generations to come!

Deep love and Shalom to you my friend.

Philippians 3:12-14, AMP Classic

12 Not that I have now attained [this ideal], or have already been made perfect, but I press on to lay hold of (grasp) and make my own, that for which Christ Jesus (the Messiah) has laid hold of me and made me His own.

13 I do not consider, brethren, that I have captured and made it my own [yet]; but one thing I do [it is my one aspiration]: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead,

14 I press on toward the goal to win the [supreme and heavenly] prize to which God in Christ Jesus is calling us upward.
