THE FINANCE MAXIMIZER™

Utilizing private lenders and private equity investors can maximize your access to capital and enable you to scale your portfolio faster.

Like any lender, private lenders and equity investors want to understand the deal's value and who they are investing with.

To maximize your access to capital, preparation is key. Before presenting to a potential investor, ensure you have and understand the following information.

- ☐ 1. Documentation outlined in The Finance Accelerator
- ☐ 2. Your Value Add Statement – Who are you as an investor?
- ☐ 3. Summary of existing portfolio and past work
 - a. Alternatively, for new investors, a summary of experience relevant to investing
- ☐ 4. The 4 Ways to Win™ on the subject property
 - a. Flippers and Flip to Yourself™ – include evaluation pre- and post-renovation
 - b. Private equity investment – proposed numbers based on percentage participation of investors
- ☐ 5. Recent comparable property sales
 - a. Flippers and Flip to Yourself™ – include current condition and those comparable to post-renovation to support ARV (After Repair Value)
- ☐ 6. Acquisition cost summary
 - a. Legal and closing costs
 - b. Appraisal
 - c. Additional inspections
 - d. Other
- ☐ 7. Renovation budget and detailed breakdown, including contingency (if applicable)
- ☐ 8. Real estate market summary
 - a. Area benefits to support the proposed investing strategy
- ☐ 9. Requested loan/equity position including:
 - a. Loan to Value
 - b. Interest rate
 - c. Terms
 - d. Summary of additional financing that will be applied to property (i.e. first institutional mortgage)
- ☐ 10. Exit strategy
 - a. Primary
 - b. Secondary

Note: Private lenders and private equity investors have the unique ability to set their investing criteria. An investor may not request all the information above; however, this preparation is always beneficial and will make you more confident.
