

This Month...

The book of Romans can be summarized in one word: righteousness. Paul explains that the gospel's good news means Jesus has done everything for us to be reconciled to God, so people no longer need to appease Him with their rituals, sacrifices, and feasts. All we need to do to receive salvation is trust in Jesus' righteousness. Due to the central doctrines explained, Romans is described as "Christianity 101" or "The Constitution of Christianity."
