The Deportation Cases of 1919-1920

by Constantine Panunzio (1884 - 1964)

"The study here presented embodies the findings of an investigation into the recent [1919-1920] deportations of persons deemed to be unlawfully in the country. . . Its purpose is to call public attention to practices that are inconsistent with the American tradition of justice and fair-play." (from the introduction)
