Fables of Aesop and Others

AESOP \(c. 620 BCE - 564\) and Thomas BEWICK \(1753 - 1828\)

The origins of these fables are perhaps lost in obscurity, but they are so closely identified with the Greek writer Aesop, that we may regard them as such. Most of these tales involve interactions among animals, and to each is appended a moral. This edition was edited and illustrated by Thomas Bewick a well-known British engraver and illustrator. The book begins with an excellent introduction. ~ Larry Wilson
