Light on the Path

Mabel Collins (1851 - 1927)

When Light on the Path was first published in 1885 it became an important work for Theosophists and has remained so ever since. It offers advice for those who wish to follow a spiritual way of living, set out point-by-point in short sections for the reader. This edition also includes a chapter on karma to provide further guidance for the student of esoteric knowledge.
