

Ships That Pass in the Night by Beatrice Harraden

Read by Erin Taylor, TriciaG, Gary J. Conover, Guomin Do, Amy B, LynSerene, Janna Erikson, Lysa Ali, Jeff Robinson, Steven Jon Peterson, Paul Harvey and Scarbo
Total running time: 04:14:40

This short novel by Beatrice Harraden, who was known for her work as a suffragist, was a bestseller in its time. In it, teacher and activist Bernardine Holme takes up residence at a tuberculosis sanatorium after falling ill. There she meets Robert Allitsen, known to sanatorium residents as “the Disagreeable Man.” As their friendship grows, the mutual influence of each character’s outlook on life and illness comes to have a lasting effect on the two. - Summary by Scarbo

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.
Cover picture: "Adirondack Cottage Sanitarium, Saranac Lake, N. Y." The New York Public Library Digital Collections. 1898 - 1931. Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author’s life +70 yrs laws. Cover design by Tomas Peter. This design is in the public domain.

Ships That Pass in the Night* by Beatrice Harraden

Ships That Pass in the Night* by Beatrice Harraden