

White Dandy: A Horses' Story

(A companion book to Black Beauty)

Velma Caldwell MELVILLE

This book is written from the horse's point of view, much as Black Beauty was, filling in more background as seen by the horse. The title is actually White Dandy or Master and I: A Horse's Story. What do horses talk about among themselves? Do they have personalities, some dour and unhappy, others buoyant and upbeat just as we humans do? Do horses anticipate good times and fear bad owners? Do they love? Here's a delightful glimpse into a horse's life and thoughts. ~ Summary by Phil Chenevert
