

Name: _____

DEVELOPING PERSONAL CONVICTIONS WORKSHEET

1. An example of _____ would be "God's Word is inspired."
2. Convictions can be _____ or _____.
3. A decision which is based on facts rather than feelings or opinions would be _____.
4. A decision which is based on feelings or opinions rather than facts would be _____.
5. Sociologists refer to young adults born between the early 1980's to early 2000's as _____.
6. _____ is the belief that truth can be true at one time and at one place and is always subject to change.
7. Strong beliefs that one is fully convinced of, having been persuaded by evidence or reason and not merely subjective feelings are _____.
8. A _____ refers to the way a Christian individual, group or culture interprets the world and interacts with it.
9. The source of a Christian's character and leadership is found in his _____, where the Holy Spirit abides.
10. One Christian can behave differently from another Christian due to their _____.
11. An inner sense of what is right or wrong in one's conduct or motives, impelling one toward right action is referred to as the _____.
12. _____ is an outlook or system of thought attaching prime importance to human rather than divine matters, stressing the potential value, and the goodness of humanity.

13. _____ are issues not directly addressed in the Word of God.
14. _____ are ideas about morally correct and acceptable behavior that are often used to make judgments about the quality of other things.
15. _____ define decisions made based on whatever is right or wrong relative to the situation.
16. The ability or willingness to endure something, in particular the existence of opinions or behavior that one does not necessarily agree with is _____.
17. A _____ is acting in advance to deal with an expected difficulty, tending to initiate change rather than reacting to events.
18. The Bible refers to the _____ as ideas, philosophies and general thought patterns that contradict God's Word.
19. Convictions can differ among _____ and _____.
20. A statement common to humanistic philosophy might be " _____."
21. A statement common to subjective truth might be " _____."
22. A statement common to objective truth might be " _____."
23. An example of situational ethics might be _____.
24. "Everything is relative," is a common phrase for Millennials. How does that compare with Jesus' statement, "Thy Word is truth," or "The entirety of Your Word is truth." (Jn. 17: 17 Ps. 119:160)
- _____.