

PURPOSED LIVING

Week 12 - PURPOSED LIVING

Daily I WILL live with intentionality toward my God-given purpose.

- I am created on purpose for a purpose.
- Learn to live with eternity in mind.
- Nothing has to derail me from my God-given destiny.

Too many people live a sad life of just taking it as it comes, with no real plan or purpose. This kind of living is what makes people a product of circumstance and results in looking back at the end of your life with regret. You do NOT have to live this way. As children of God, we are products of God's grace and His good will toward us. You have a purpose in this life and don't ever forget it! The good hand of God and His Holy Spirit will lead your every step and every stop. A wise thing for us to do is to continue to make good choices that lead us closer to Jesus, saying "YES" to Him even in times that we don't understand. Your life, literally, depends on it. Before every decision, learn to ask, "In the light of eternity, what does this matter? Does this decision get me closer to my purpose or does it pull me further away from it." When things don't turn out exactly like you had planned, remember that God works all things out for the good of those who love Him. In hard times, remember NOTTMM - "None of these things move me" and praise Him for being God. In good times, rejoice and give Him praise for His blessings. God created you on purpose for a purpose. You are forever a disciple of Jesus Christ! Follow Him every day of your life and He will lead you all the way home. YOU DID IT!
