Strong words, yet you are DESIGNED to DAILY step into the VISION to steward it unto INCREASE so it can reach, impact & influence as many people as possible.

Patrick and Ann McDonald discuss the unique issues we face as we move through the phases from idea to Lifestyle freedom while designing, building and scaling to meet our express goals in any given season.

The process of creating something from nothing and not letting that "something" take over your life, is "something" not a lot of idea people share.

Let's tackle this with laughter, honesty and some back and forth!

TITANIUM Members, you can access the feed here, on the website or in your Podcast app of choice, as long as you are a member of the Mastermind program!
