WELCOME

Welcome to the beginning of the Master The Code 6 Week Challenge... your adventure has begun!

It really is an honour to be connecting with you, and on behalf of the whole Raising Royalty family, all over the world, I'd like to welcome you on this beautiful journey as we learn to Master The Code together.

The Master The Code Challenge is helping people just like you step into a season of exponential growth, which is fast tracking their goals and dreams. But the vision is much greater than personal development.

Our vision is deep. It's intense. It's contagious, and it's worth dying for... Our vision is you, living your wildest dreams.

Absolutely nothing less!

The impact on the planet that will explode from your life when you are living a life fully aligned with your wildest dreams is beyond measure.

Fulfilled dreams disciple nations. We believe God is sparking a viral outbreak of fulfilled dreams and we want to do everything we can to help you be a part of this history making move of God.

The purpose of the Master The Code Challenge is you, living your wildest dreams and absolutely nothing less!

Over the next 6 weeks you are going to begin the journey of mastering 5 elements, which dictate whether we become people who live our wildest dreams, or whether we will become people who take our big God dreams to the grave.

If you want to become unstoppable, renew your mind, destroy your limits, and unleash your wildest dreams, then you are in the right place. Because that's exactly what is happening in people's lives as they Master The Code.

The world is in a season of extremes and your wildest dreams are solutions from Heaven for a world in crisis. The level of need all around us is extreme. The threats around us are extreme. Right now, the world is on fire with chaos, injustice, dysfunction, oppression, and tyranny. Lives are being destroyed. Marriages are failing. Families are crumbling. People are in excruciating pain and the world truly is in desperate need.

Your wildest dreams are significant. They are Heaven's solution to a world in crisis. They have the power to create a beautiful future, a future worth fighting for, worth dying for.

If you stepped into the future and looked deeply into the eyes of a child who was rescued from a lifetime of pain, because your fulfilled dream changed their world forever – what would you see?

You would see significance. You would see your purpose. You would see your calling. You would see your why. You would see a vision worth dying for. A vision worth fighting for everyday!

This journey of extraordinary growth is not just about us.

The vision of the Master The Code Challenge is to help you find and align with the call of God on your life in a way that is so significant, it's worth dying for.

That significance is found by dreaming with God and looking into the future into the eyes of the people whose lives will never be the same because you held nothing back, you went all in, and you lived your wildest dreams.

Your wildest dreams are a solution from Heaven for a world in crisis. Your wildest dreams are not just a nice idea. They are the divine purpose and calling on your life and they have eternal significance.

Will you become a person who carries regret for eternity because you never lived your wildest dreams and you never touched the lives you were born to impact? Or will you become a person without regret, a person who carries an eternal reward because you lived your life in alignment with your wildest dreams?

The 5 Fundamental Elements of the Master The Code Challenge

- Mastering Vision
- Mastering Focus
- Mastering Discipline
- Mastering Execution
- Mastering Consistency

By joining us on this journey, you are joining a tribe, an adventure, a code, and a way of living that is designed with the sole purpose of helping you become unstoppable, renew your mind, destroy your limits, and unleash your wildest dreams.

If that lights you up, then lean in here, pay attention, and get ready to implement secrets that are guaranteed to produce exponential growth!

Never doubt God's mighty power to work in you and accomplish all this. He will achieve infinitely more than your greatest request, your most unbelievable dream, and exceed your wildest imagination! He will outdo them all, for his miraculous power constantly energizes you. Ephesians 3:20 TPT

This verse, Ephesians 3:20, is a promise from God to you. It's not an if or a maybe. It's a guarantee. A guarantee that you never have to doubt. This journey of learning to Master The Code is founded on this promise, this guarantee from God, that He is able to "achieve infinitely more than your greatest request, your most unbelievable dream, and exceed your wildest imagination!"

Most people live life doubting the integrity of God and the possibility of this promise. As we learn to Master The Code, we will not only discover that this promise is genuine, but we will also learn how to activate the power of this promise in Ephesians 3:20.

There is so much opposition on this journey towards our dreams that most people don't make it and most Christians take their wildest dreams to the grave. We don't want that to be you.

That is why we have created the Master The Code 6 Week Challenge, so that you, and anyone you invite onto this journey can be supported, encouraged, and championed, as we pursue our dreams together.

We can't wait for you to become the next person whose life is never the same and whose lost dreams, dead dreams, forgotten dreams, wildest dreams and new dreams start exploding to life because of all the keys you discover on this journey together.

Welcome once again to the Master The Code 6 Week Challenge!

Week 1

“Where there is no vision, the people perish” Proverbs 29:18 KJV

VISION

DISCIPLINE

CONSISTENCY

This week is all about you exploring and discovering your dreams.

One of the most important questions that you can ever ask in life is: “What do you want?” For some people the answer to that question is simple, “I want what God wants.”.

That is a great attitude to have, but if you stop there, it's highly likely that you'll never fully discover your dreams. There's a danger that you'll get caught waiting forever for God to tell you what your purpose is, rather than digging deep to discover that God has hidden your purpose inside your own heart.

It's only as you give your heart permission to speak, permission to dream, permission to articulate what you truly want and desire that the dreams that God has placed in you begin to come alive.

“Delight yourself also in the LORD and He shall give you the desires of your heart.” Psalm 37:4

So here's the question you need to ask... what do you want?

When it comes to dreaming with God and giving your heart permission to speak honestly and authentically, there can be no limits.

There comes a time for practical thinking, logistics and reality to be involved in the process of making your dream happen, but that time is not in the dream zone. People who don't understand this abort most of their dreams before they ever have a chance to see the light of day.

Dreaming with God is an art that requires a limitless mindset. When you dream with God, you are invited to transcend what seems realistic, possible, probable and practical.

You get to be limitless when you dream with God.

What problems do you want to solve? Who do you want to help?
How do you want things to change for your relationships? How do you want to see things change for your family? What injustice is unbearable to you? What expressions of evil are you ok with?

What suffering in the world are you happy to ignore and offer no support to? If you could end one evil on the earth what would it be? If you could leave one legacy what would it be? What do you want to create? Where do you want to travel? Who do you want to be with? What future do you want to create?

The art of dreaming with God begins by asking yourself deep questions and letting your heart speak freely. Most of us live from our heads and not our hearts. It's time to stop letting your head shut down your heart.

Give your heart permission to dream impossible and impractical dreams that don't seem realistic or logical. Give your heart permission to dream limitless dreams with God and then write them down.

We have created 2 activations to help you with that process.

The main activation is called "The 100 Dream Challenge".
It's pretty self-explanatory, you write down 100 dreams.

When people first hear that they often think it sounds impossible.
Relax. We've got a system that will help you with the process.

When it comes to "The 100 Dream Challenge" there's no wrong answers. Your dreams can be as small or as big as you like. Something that really helped me with this process was realising that any desire in my heart big or small is a dream that deserves to be recognised, acknowledged, and celebrated.

You can list anything that you desire as a dream in “The 100 Dream Challenge.” It could be as simple as wanting to have a treat a beautiful spot that you like. It could be as big as out dreaming darkness on the whole planet. Big or small, write down all your desires on your 100 dream list.

Before we go any further, let’s address the number one reason why people don’t dream...

Fear of failure.

Fear of failure causes many people to become too scared to dream. So we have included a bonus activation for you called : “Processing Failure Template”.

A lot of us need to discover that failure is not fatal, it’s simply feedback. It’s ok to live after failure. It’s ok to dream after failure.

Included in this Homework are two activations. The “Processing Failure Template”, and the “The 100 Dream Challenge”.

“The 100 Dream Challenge” includes hot tips to help discover your dreams, help your heart find it’s voice, and to activate the process of dreaming with God.

The Processing Failure Template is an optional bonus, which we have included because it has helped so many people break down mental, emotional and spiritual barriers to dreaming with God. It also contains some amazing stories of overcoming major failures and opposition.

Now is the time to step past the fear of failure and give your heart permission to dream limitless dreams with God!

GROUP QUESTIONS

- 1 If there were absolutely no limits, if you had all the resources you would ever need, what would you dream for?
- 2 Are there any expressions of evil that really make you angry, which you want to see stopped?
- 3 What is the number 1 thing that holds you back from dreaming?
- 4 Do you think that God wants to give you the desires of your heart?
- 5 What goals and dreams are you working towards right now?

BONUS : Processing Failure Template

Over the years I've seen people struggle with the whole concept of dreaming. One of the biggest reasons for this is the fear of failure. It aborts dreams before they have a chance at life. Not only that, but it also completely shuts down people's ability to dream.

Most often the fear of failure is attached to a lie, rooted in a wound that came from experienced a nasty failure. Here is an activation to help you overcome the fear of failure. It's called the Processing Failure Template.

Failure of many kinds is almost guaranteed in life. But there's a difference between being impacted by failure and defined by failure.

This template will help take the sting out of past failures and set you free to dream again with a fresh perspective on failure.

I recommend you go through the Processing Failure Template before you attempt the 100 Dream Challenge.

Please share your definition of failure.

Describe one area in your life where you feel like you have experienced a significant failure.

Has this sense of failure influenced who you believe you are in any way? For example, has this experience of failure led you to believe that you personally are a failure or inadequate in any way?

Please explain your answer further. If your answer was no, what beliefs have you developed that stop you from being defined by your failures? If your answer was yes, what beliefs have you developed that allow you to be defined by your failures?

Has this experience caused you to develop a fear of failure or to draw back from taking risks or chasing your dreams in any way? If so, please describe how?

Do you believe that you are defined by your failures in any way? If so how?

THE 100 DREAM CHALLENGE

“Keep your dreams alive. Understand to achieve anything requires faith and belief in yourself, vision, hard work, determination, and dedication. Remember all things are possible for those who believe. “ - Gail Devers

To help you develop the ability to let your heart speak, and authentically answer the question “What do you want?” We use an activation called The 100 Dream Challenge.

A lot of people almost by reflex or instinct respond to the question of “What do you want?” by saying, “I don’t know what I want.”

I don’t believe that answer is true for anyone. I generally find that by asking the question in a more targeted, specific way, people are able to let their heart speak and begin to answer the question honestly.

The 100 Dream Challenge focuses on assisting people to develop an authentic and balanced vision by asking targeted questions designed to help people discover precisely what they want in all areas of life.

I have identified 7 high value areas of life that are essential for developing a focused and balanced vision:

- Faith
- Family
- Finance
- Fitness
- Fellowship
- Fun
- Future

Here are some catalytic thoughts designed to help kick start your dreaming and to help you start answering the big question with precision detail – what do you want?

These are not exhaustive lists. Please feel free to add your own thoughts, questions, and ideas.

What do you want in the area of faith?

Do you want more intimacy, identity, spiritual gifts, revelation, or spiritual understanding? Do you want a more divine state of being? Do you want more of the fruits of the Spirit? Do you want to see more people blessed by your faith? Do you want to launch a ministry, improve a ministry, or expand a ministry? Do you want to pray more, read more, or do any more spiritual activities? Do you want to go to a conference? Do you want to study your faith more?

Is there something else specific in regards to faith that has captured your attention? Do you need personal freedom? Do you want to be free from inadequacy, shame, self hatred, condemnation, self harm, anxiety, sin, fear, trauma, or abuse?

What do you want in the area of family?

What type of son, daughter, brother, sister, husband, wife, father, mother, aunty, uncle, grandmother, grandfather, or cousin do you want to be?

Is there a specific relationship or relationships that you want to see grow? Do you want to get married? Do you want a better marriage relationship? Do you want more intimacy in your marriage? Do you want more fun in your marriage? Do you want more adventure in your marriage?

If you're not married and you want to be – what do you want your future marriage to be like? Do you want children? Do you want restoration? Do you want to improve your communication skills? Do you want to improve the culture in your family or in one of your relationships?

Do you want the same experience of family for your children that you experienced? Do you want to use the same parenting style that your parents used? Do you want to adopt?

What do you want in the area of finances?

Week 2

“Focus on your goals, not your fear.
Focus like a laser beam on your goals.”

Roy T. Bennett

VISION

CONSISTENCY

The practical activation this week is to help you develop the type of focus that is so powerful that it awakens the highest level of passion possible, the type of passion, which makes the impossible possible.

You can develop this type of focus by creating and writing down a 3 year goal worth dying for, which you read, declare, or write out every day.

Focus is like a muscle it has to be trained and strengthened. There's a process, a discipline, and a cost required to develop a precision focus. But without focus all of your goals and dreams are in extreme danger. Without great focus, you are vulnerable to one of the most deadly substances known to man – distraction, the kryptonite of dreams.

When you really get vulnerable, authentic, and courageous as you dream with God, you'll notice that God has a habit of dreaming impossible dreams. When you steward the power of true focus, it awakens the type of passion that makes impossible God dreams happen.

Passion comes from significance. You find significance by looking into the eyes of the people who will never be the same because your dream changed their lives forever.

To activate the true power of focus you have to discover a vision, a cause, a future that is so significant to you that it's worth dying for. Then you have to write down with exact detail what that future looks like, sounds like, feels like, smells like and tastes like, then you must read it, declare it, or write it down every single day.

Much of this process will take place in your God given imagination. You will have to use your imagination to see a future where your wildest dreams are present realities. Then in your imagination you have to ask yourself what it feels like to see, hear, feel, smell, and taste the fruition of your most amazing dreams? This part of the process needs to get tactile.

You need to get present in your imagination. Place yourself in the future and see how people's lives are never the same because your wildest dreams changed their lives forever.

Let yourself feel it deeply. What you experience in your imagination needs to be translated into writing, so you can constantly and easily refer to it and focus on it.

If your “3 Year Goal Worth Dying For”, isn’t worth fighting for every day for the next 3 years, you’ve missed the point. You have to go to the deepest part of yourself and dream without limits, tapping into your wildest dreams and most authentic desires and find a future reality that truly is worth dying for.

“Every man dies. Not every man really lives.”
William Wallace, Braveheart

When you push past all the difficulties, break out of your comfort zones, dive deep into your desires and you find the dreams, the cause, the people, and the future possibilities that are worth risking everything for, in the hope of bringing those beautiful realities to fruition... something happens. At that point everything changes.

It’s only once you have found something, that you believe is worth dying for, that you truly come alive! Living without a cause worth dying for is not truly living.

This is where most people spend their whole lives. In the zombie zone. Alive, but not really living. Not tasting the exhilaration of waking up every day with 10 out of 10 passion burning inside their veins.

If we live in the zombie zone, every obstacle is too difficult, every limitation is permanent, and every excuse and justification becomes a self-fulfilling prophecy. Not so for the person who is truly alive. Not so for the person who maintains an unwavering focus on a vision, a cause worth dying for.

For the person who is truly alive – nothing is impossible.

That’s because when your “why?” is big enough, the details and the sacrifice of the “how?” become irrelevant.

Imagine with me that Jesus came to you and said: “You’ve got 3 years and then you’ll be with me in Heaven.” If you knew you only had 3 years left to create a legacy that you would carry for eternity – what would you want to create?

In order to master focus, you have to imagine the best case future that you could possibly create in the next 3 years.

If there were no limits – what future would you want to create?
Whose lives would you want to impact and see changed forever?
What legacy would you want to leave the generations to come and what legacy would you want to carry throughout eternity?

People who are able to inject a sense of urgency into their daily lives, get more results, more breakthrough, more impact and more dreams fulfilled than people who are casual. In fact, a lack of urgency is a major reason why so many dreams fail.

Your 3 year goal worth dying for should awaken great significance, passion, and urgency inside you.

Now imagine that your 3 years is up... Your race is run, and you are standing in Heaven with Jesus looking back over your life. As you look back with Jesus, imagine how much joy you will feel on a scale from 1-10, when you see all of your wildest dreams and every assignment that Jesus gave you completely fulfilled.

On a scale from 1-10, how much joy would you feel in that moment?
How much joy would you feel knowing that you will carry that legacy forever? Knowing that you fulfilled every dream that God placed in you and completed everything assignment that God called you to.

Ok, let’s reverse engineer that... Imagine you are standing with Jesus in 3 years from now, looking back over your life and none of the dreams that God had placed in your heart have been fulfilled.

On a scale from 1-10, how painful would that be and how much regret would you feel because you never stewarded the one opportunity that God gave you to live your wildest dreams?

Your one opportunity to impact people's lives for eternity is gone.
Your one opportunity to fulfill the God given assignments on your life is gone. Your dreams never happened. Your assignments were never completed. You never reached the people that you were called to impact. You were too distracted and it cost you your dreams and calling.

On a scale from 1-10, how painful would that be?

Ok, stop thinking about that and do not repeat that particular exercise on a regular basis!

Invest yourself into imagining what it will feel like when you are living your wildest dreams instead.

The cost of failing to master focus is extreme. The rewards of putting in the effort to get out of your comfort zone and master focus are also extreme.

Are you ready and willing to take massive action to master focus?
Because you only have one opportunity to get this right...

We don't usually appreciate the value of that "one more" opportunity until it is taken away from us. How much would you give for one more year, if your last year was taken from You? How much would you give for one more month, if your last month was taken from you?

We never know for sure when our last opportunity for "one more", could be taken from us...

It's impossible to make the most of the one life that God has given you, without absolutely mastering focus.

If you're ready to start that journey and truly master the power of focus, it's time to get busy and create a 3 year goal worth dying for!

GROUP QUESTIONS

- 1. What was Jesus so focused on and so passionate about that He was willing to die for His dream?
- 2. On a scale from 1-10, how focused would you say you are on your wildest dreams?
- 3. Are there any common distractions in your life that you'd like to minimise?
- 4. If nothing was to change in your life right now, do you think you're on course to live your wildest dreams?
- 5. How do you feel about the practice of imagining what it looks like, sounds like, feels like, smells like, and tastes like to be living your wildest dreams?

HOME WORK

The “3 Year Goal Worth Dying For”, is going to be a precise summary that details exactly what you want your world to look like in 3 years’ time. When you write it, you’ll want to write it in a future tense.

Here’s an example of how to write the opening line:

I’m so thankful and grateful now that ...(fill in here what has happened)... on ...(fill in here the date 3 years from now).

Here’s what one of mine looks like: I’m so thankful and grateful now that Raising Royalty is a disciple making movement that has graduated 10,000 world changing students in our Master The Code Academy on Thursday the first of January 2026.

The pattern is simple. It’s been handed down from Napoleon Hill, Bob Proctor, Alex Morton, and many others. Many people have used similar blueprints, I really like this one.

Here’s the pattern again:

I’m so thankful and grateful now that... Add a precise description of what your fulfilled goal looks like into this section. On... Add in the date 3 years from now.

The pattern is super easy and simple, what’s tricky is going to the deepest part of your being and discovering a dream that’s truly worth dying for, then breaking it into a “3 Year Goal Worth Dying For”.

You can choose how much detail you want to go into. But the deeper and more authentic and emotional that it is, the more powerful and useful it will be as a daily resource to help you master focus and awaken a 10 out of 10 passion for your cause worth dying for.

I recommend making it a a short, precise, focused, and highly emotional resource. Summarise any of your priority dreams that truly get you burning.

If you can keep it to around 5 short paragraphs or less that would be great, mine is a bit longer. The purpose of this resource is to be something that you can easily read, write, or declare, at least once a day.

Keeping it short, precise, worth dying for, and highly emotional are keys to the success of this tool.

When structuring this “3 Year Goal Worth Dying For”, there are a few keys to maximizing it’s power:

- Key 1

Start with, “I’m so thankful and grateful that...” then list off exactly what your world looks like when your “3 Year Goal Worth Dying For” has come to full fruition.

It will most likely take several paragraphs to frame out all the details of your “3 Year Goal Worth Dying For”, start each new paragraph with “I’m so grateful and thankful that...”.

- Key 2

Spend time imagining the moment your “3 Year Goal Worth Dying For” has come to full fruition. This helps you to engage your emotions, which are a critical part of the process.

Each word needs to be deeply connected with your “why?”, your purpose, and with significance, so that when you read it, it lights you up!

This resource is designed to help set yourself on fire with 10 out of 10 passion every day. By creating deep emotional connections with the significance of your “3 Year Goal Worth Dying For”, this resource becomes an extremely powerful daily tool.

- Key 3

Include in the “3 Year Goal Worth Dying For” what commitment you are willing to make in order to achieve this goal.

Here’s an example, “To fulfill all of these dreams by Thursday the 1st of January, 2026 I will... fill in here the price you are willing to pay and the commitment you are willing to make to achieve this goal.”

*Obviously you’ll want to set your date 3 years out from now.

- Key 4

Keep it around about 5 paragraphs at the most, or a length that you can commit to reading, writing, or declaring on a daily basis.

- Key 5

Date it and sign it.

“Like a city whose walls are broken through is a person who lacks self-control.”

Proverbs 25:28 NIV

VISION

CONSISTENCY

Daily habits dictate your future.

In Proverbs 25:28, Solomon shares ancient wisdom that seems to be lost to much of our modern society.

If we lack discipline, or self-control, we are extremely vulnerable to enemy attacks. Another way of looking at it is, if we lack discipline, we have become our own worst enemy. Developing discipline is one of the most fundamental necessities to succeed in any area of life.

Establishing a foundation of healthy daily habits is critical if you want to set yourself apart from the vast majority of people who will never live their dreams. If you want to become one of the few people who genuinely step into the fulfillment of their wildest dreams, there are some serious requirements that you will have to wrestle with.

Your dreams aren't cheap. They don't negotiate. They don't compromise. You have to pay full price and there are non-negotiable payments that you have to make, to truly live your wildest dreams.

Your wildest dreams demand that you master discipline, execution and consistency, if you truly want to see them come to life. But it's a process to master each of these elements. That process starts with practice.

A practice becomes a habit. A habit becomes a reflex. A reflex becomes a lifestyle. A lifestyle becomes a state of being.

Another way of saying this is that our daily practices become our future. The Master The Code Challenge is designed to help you create a future, where you are thriving in every area of your life.

In The Master The Code Challenge we implement three daily systems designed to help us create a future where we are living our wildest dreams.

But we need to start with a warning... You're about to receive a lot of information. We have some recommendations to help you avoid getting overwhelmed.

As you start this process of implementing new daily habits, focus on consistency over intensity. Focus on incremental and sustainable change.

You'll want to avoid overwhelm, because people are more likely to quit on healthy habits and disciplines when they reach a point of overwhelm. If you can just take one more step then you're unstoppable!

So avoid overwhelm, reduce the intensity, maintain consistency. Embrace incremental sustainable changes. Refuse to quit! Remember, if you've got even one more little step inside you, you're unstoppable!

So, if you start getting a little bit overwhelmed, just pause. Relax.

Celebrate the fact that you are on a wonderful learning journey and reduce the intensity to a point where you no longer feel overwhelmed. Everyone is at a different place. Don't compare yourself to others on this journey. Celebrate your own progress and give yourself lots of grace.

Remember this is designed to be a challenge, but it's not designed to be overwhelming. You get to choose and adjust the intensity levels to suit where you are at right now.

Everything in the Master The Code Challenge is designed to serve you, not burden you. So if it's getting too intense, just dial it back to a point where you can maintain consistency.

With that said, let's explore the 3 daily systems that will help you master Discipline, Execution and Consistency.

We will start with our system designed to build daily disciplines that produce exponential growth – the 12 Sacred Rhythms.

DISCIPLINE: 12 SACRED RHYTHMS

Our activation for mastering discipline is the 12 Sacred Rhythms.

There are 12 Sacred Rhythms in The Master The Code Challenge, which have proven time and time again to produce exponential growth in the lives of those who practice them.

We have been refining them for years and their results are exceptional and predictable. They are simple practices, but making them consistent, disciplined habits is hard.

Welcome to a challenge where we do hard things!

The culture of the world is notorious for avoiding pain, discipline, consistency, and healthy habits. The result is a culture of weak willed people that lack resilience, discipline and will power.

Imagine if Jesus had avoided pain and refused to do hard things or to embrace discipline?

As we embrace a culture of discipline and doing hard things, we fast track our character development and the fruition of our dreams.

Les Brown said it so well...

“If you do what is easy your life will become hard. But if you do what is hard your life will become easy.”

As you explore these 12 Sacred Rhythms, ask yourself whether you think they are achievable daily practices or not?

Sacred Rhythm 1

- Pray in the spirit for 5 minutes
- Great resources for more understanding on praying in the spirit include Matt Lansdowne's Holy Spirit School on the Raising Royalty platform @ www.raisingroyalty.io, and Dave Robertson's book "The Walk of The Spirit The Walk of Power"

Sacred Rhythm 2

- Read one chapter of the Bible and record your favourite verse.
- We recommend starting with the book of Proverbs and recording your verse in either a paper or digital journal

Sacred Rhythm 3

- What have you learnt in the last 24 hours?
- Include this reflection in your journal too. It may be a very short answer or lead to deep processing.

Sacred Rhythm 4

- Record 3 things you are grateful for.
- Record your gratuities in your journal.

Sacred Rhythm 5

- Daily declarations.
- We recommend that you turn your "3 Year Goal Worth Dying For", into a declaration that you declare each day. You may also wish to create declarations for some of the dreams on your 100 Dream list.

Sacred Rhythm 6

- Move your body for at least 5 minutes.
- Any type of movement counts.

Sacred Rhythm 7

- Eat something awesome.
- You get to define what awesome is for you, but we encourage you to intentionally eat something that will be great for your health.

Sacred Rhythm 8

- Drink 3 liters of water.
- The U.S. National Academies of Sciences, Engineering, and Medicine recommend a daily fluid intake of: About 15.5 cups (3.7 litres) of fluids a day for men. About 11.5 cups (2.7 litres) of fluids a day for women. This may vary depending on a person's size, exercise, environment, overall health, and pregnancy or breast feeding. Feel free to adjust this amount if you are struggling with that much water, but in general, it's a good amount to aim for.

Sacred Rhythm 9

- Intentionally love on someone.
- You can be as creative as you like with this. It could be anything from a smile to a wildly extravagant act of love.

Sacred Rhythm 10

- Practice your trigger.
- This is usually the most confusing of the sacred rhythms. Practice your trigger refers to practicing the presence of God. That looks taking tiny moments throughout the day to place your heart and your attention on God. The word trigger refers the practice of using an alarm, a post it note, or some other trigger to remind you to place your attention on Him.

Sacred Rhythm 11

- Make a genius financial move.
- The intention behind this Sacred Rhythm is to encourage you to be intentional regarding how you steward money. Is there an opportunity for you today to be wise in how you think about money, earn money, spend money, give money, invest money, or save money? This could include going to work, taking action on a business, educating yourself, creating content or resources. Anything industrious or any action with a focus of being a wise steward of your resources counts..

Sacred Rhythm 12

- Be accountable for your day.
- Being accountable for your day means being a part of a Master The Code Challenge community and letting the community know if you got everything done for the day. Usually this happens through some form of group chat. We often say “Nailed it!” If we completed our tasks for the day or give a brief 1 sentence update on how things went for the day. This task is also a part of our daily consistency activations

EXECUTION: THE 555 SYSTEM

Our activation for execution is the “Triple 5 System”.

The “Triple 5 System” is designed to help you fast track your goals and dreams by taking the most strategic and significant actions possible every day. It helps you to work smarter.

It’s a simple concept... You take 5 minutes towards the start of the day to reflect on your “3 Year Goal Worth Dying For”.

With your 3 year goal in mind you ask Holy Spirit, “What are the 5 highest consequence actions that I need to take today to achieve my 3 year goal?” Then write down the 5 highest consequence/most important tasks that you need to complete for the day.

Aim to write down the tasks on your “555” list in order of their priority. List the tasks with the highest urgency and the highest importance at the top and the tasks with the lowest urgency and importance at the bottom. As much as possible aim to complete the tasks at the top of the list first.

We do this 5 days a week. Generally, we take the weekends off.

Let me summarise that...

- Take 5 minutes
- List your 5 highest consequence actions for the day
- Do it 5 days a week

*One rule that we have in the Master The Code Challenge is that we do not put any of the 12 Sacred Rhythms onto our “555” lists. So, you should never have exercise, prayer, drinking water etc, or any of the other 12 Sacred Rhythms on your “555” list.

THE 555 SYSTEM

CONSISTENCY: DAILY ACCOUNTABILITY

Our activation for consistency is daily accountability.

Most people like the idea of the 12 Sacred Rhythms and the “555” system.

A lot of people aspire towards those types of habits, but most people lack the level of consistency, which will produce exponential growth.

These daily accountability activations are designed to help us stay consistent with healthy habits that will become our future.

There are 3 parts to our daily accountability activation:

1. Share your “555” list in the accountability chat.
2. Share a pic of something you’ve been doing during the day in the accountability chat.
3. Report back to the group in the accountability chat and let everyone know if you completed your 12 Sacred Rhythms and your “555” list or not.

We often say something short like, “Nailed it!” if we completed them all. If we didn’t, we usually sum up how the day went in a 1 sentence response.

We are accountable for the “555” 5 days a week, but we are accountable for our Sacred Rhythms every day.

You’ll need to make sure that your Master The Code community has a group chat, that all the members of the group are in it, and that everyone knows exactly where to send their daily accountability messages.

Getting Started...

Ok, this is it... you've got all the info you need...
It's time to get started. But don't get stuck on analysis paralysis.
That means, don't worry about trying to start perfectly.

There's a lot to take in and you'll get much better at mastering the process with some practice.

You're about to begin a challenge within a challenge.
This week you get to begin a 21 day cycle of implementing all the elements of the Master The Code Challenge.

This is where the exponential growth is just waiting for you.
Go all in to get the most out of the challenge, but at the same time, avoid hitting overwhelm, by focusing on consistency over intensity.
Remember to celebrate every little bit of progress. You really don't have to get this perfect. The goal is incremental, sustainable change.

A lot of people start by taking little steps with this challenge and as they see their capacity increasing they increase the intensity incrementally.

Everything in the Master The Code Challenge is designed to be a blessing not a burden. But if you have the mindset that you are obligated to do everything perfectly right from the start, a system that is designed to bless you could become an obligation that you resent.

- Avoid overwhelm.
- Avoid obligation.
- Don't try to start perfectly.
- Start with what you understand and what you think is achievable.
- Start with an intensity that is sustainable.
- Challenge yourself, but enjoy the journey.

You're about to grow in amazing ways.
We're all backing you for great results.

Let's go!

CONCLUDING THOUGHTS

Thank you so much for participating in the Master The Code 6 Week Challenge. We are fully persuaded that your dreams are solutions from Heaven for a world in crisis. They are priceless beyond words.

On the other end of your dreams are people in desperate need, and God has called you to be His answer, His hands and feet.

It is the nature of love to out dream darkness. God wants to dream with you. God wants to create the future with you.

There's no expression of evil that love is ok with - so, dream big! Partner with God to establish His Kingdom, on Earth as in Heaven.

Pursuing your wildest dreams is not going to be an easy road. It's going to have its trials and challenges. But your dreams are worth it. Your dreams are worth every sacrifice, every struggle, every painful step, which is paving the way to a world more beautiful than you've ever imagined possible!

“Never doubt God's mighty power to work in you and accomplish all this. He will achieve infinitely more than your greatest request, your most unbelievable dream, and exceed your wildest imagination! He will outdo them all, for his miraculous power constantly energizes you.” Ephesians 3:20 TPT
