This Month...

The good news of the gospel continues as we read our Bibles through the heart of our King. Our coming King. Our eternal King. Our kind King. The King who guides our lives through His Word.

As we read through “the five Ts”, James, and I John together as a church family, let’s compare our priorities with those of King Jesus and be quick to bow our hearts to Him.

BIBLE INFO: DID YOU KNOW?

- The five “T-books” are neighbors? (I & II Thessalonians, I & II Timothy, Titus are all together.)
- James is about practical Christianity.
- John’s recurring message in his 90s was “Love one another.”

Living in the light of eternity changes your priorities.

LET EVERY CHOICE BOW TO OUR KING

☐ I DID IT!

Seeking first the kingdom of God means you ask God for His way of doing things. When you put God first in your calendar, finances, and decisions, everything just works out.
